THROUGH MY WINDOW

AND THE FUN CONTINUES

Wonder why I say this is the best, the most exciting time of year? Well, let me tell you part of what happened the other day. Long before the drapes were opened the bird chorus had tuned up and was sernading the new day.

Chirps, whistles, cheeps and trills all olended together—each singer did his part perfectly; it was a lovely sound.

The first bird of note that came to the feeder was Mr. Bright Cardinal. Such a handsome fellow, but how vain — he spent so much time showing off his pretty red feathers that he never did get around to eating.

A big blue-jay swooped down to the feeder and the red boy left. No sunflower breakfast for him that morning.

As it turned out, we saw blue-jays all day long. At the feeders, in the yards and in the trees, they were just everywhere and so very, very busy.

And so colorful, too. This time of year their blue seems extra bright and as if showing off, their tails were fanned out, which of course made the birds look bigger and bluer than ever.

Often we counted six of the blue ones at once and it was nothing to have three of them dining together.

✓

THE MORNING was hardly underway when the really big excitement rattled at us and flew to the dead limb hanging over the creek.

Mrs. Kingfisher — we knew it was a female when looking through the binoculars we saw reddish-brown flanks and breast band.

As she stared down into the little pool beneath the dead limb, we had just begun to wonder if she were going to see anything when bang, like a shot she nose-dived down and came up with a small wriggling minnow.

Within our view there were three perches she fished from that morning and come afternoon, her husband took over. He was a little larger, head shaggier and bill bigger but he was not so expert at least twice we saw him dive and come up empty-billed and once, about halfway up to the branch a fish slipped free. Believe me that loud raucous call was heard then.

Across the creek a pair of flickers busied themselves with drilling holes in the soft ground near the water's edge.

Bent down, the red spots on the back of their heads showed so plainly and when straightened up, it was the jet-black crests on their tan breasts that caught the eye. Up the creek, in the trees in back of Gertrude's, another pair of flickers were playing.

Flying from tree to tree they first showed the golden underside of their wings, then the white base of the tail spots.

✓

GOING FROM big to little, we also had a wren. The tiny chatterbox thrilled us by showing great interest in the "wren tree."

In and out of the wren-house, up and down all the surrounding limbs, if ever a prospective tenant thoroughly inspected the home and neighborhood into which he was considering moving, this little bird did. Hope everything was OK — we love to have wrens nest with us.

There was even a dishonest squirrel this day. He stole two full ears of corns from the corn-tree — one was lugged across the creek but we still don't know where he stashed the other ear.

So it is that this time of year there is always much going on outside. One busy day follows another and the fun continues.

THE SHAPE OF A MIRACLE. And the heart pump is no less than that. Because of it, hope does not fail when the heart does. The world of modern medicine is full of such miracles. Isotopes that track disease. Vaccines that prevent it. Drugs that cure it. Isn't it a wonderful feeling to know that you can afford the best that modern medicine has to offer? This is the feeling Blue Cross-Blue Shield protection gives. Half of the people in Michigan have it. Perhaps you are among them. If not, shouldn't you look into it? You'll find there's no substitute for your Blue Cross-Blue Shield membership card. You get so much for what you put into it.

It's wonderful to be cared for

SEARCHING NATURE'S STOREHOUSE

A century ago pioneer exploration for Natural Gas was a very simple procedure — just as the gold prospector had his pan, pick and shovel, the GAS prospector had his dowsing rod or "wiggle stick". Likely spots for drilling were found with little effort, very little expense — AND POOR RESULTS!

Today producers spend millions of dollars locating Natural Gas. Modern methods require the combined skill and knowledge of chemists, physicists, geologists and engineers to uncover the clues and find where Mother Nature has hidden her "wonder-fuel". For example: a seismograph crew measures the shock waves from a blast (such as that pictured above) to help plot underground rock formations and determine whether or not they are a promising source of MORE Natural Gas.

16 YEARS GROWING WITH TECUMSEH

Youth Visits Capitol

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Tecumseh was represented as area safety patrol leaders, on a four-day trip to Washington as Automobile Club of Michigan's guests, visited U.S. Senator Patrick V. McNamara and saw a scale model of the Michigan - built Chrysler Redstone missile.

The rocket served as the booster for the successful May 5 space flight of America's astronaut, Cdr. Alan B. Shepard, Jr., and is Michigan's honorary "product of the year."

The youngsters were among 117 Michigan safety patrollers who joined more than 35,000 of their fellows from across the U.S. at the 25th AAA National Safety Patrol Rally and parade.

VISITS WASHINGTON — Senator Pat McNamara posed with Jim Goodman, (second from right), the Patterson School safety patrol boy who recently went to Washington with 117 fellow patrollers from all over Michigan as guests of the Auto Club.

Kiwanians Are Guests in Windsor

Nine members of the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club attended an International Inter-Club meeting at Windsor last Wednesday in observance of U.S.—Canada Good -Will Week.

The event, sponsored annually by the Kiwanis Clubs of the Windsor area, was attended by 729 men from Indiana, Ohio, Michigan and Canada.

Those attending the meeting from Tecumseh were Gene Tuckey, Richard Myers, Owen Merrill, Harold Kopka, Dave Oustерhout, John Pobuda, Don Judd, Merle Hoag and Norris Kopka.

Joe Rice gave an interesting slide presentation of some of the scenic highlights of his recent trip to the Orient at last week's meeting of the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club.

Sociology Prof Speaks

Dr. Walter Freeman, professor of Sociology and Anthropology at Michigan State University, will be the speaker at Tecumseh's annual Mayor's Exchange Banquet. It will be held at the Tecumseh Country Club, May 22 at 6:30 p.m. The general public is invited.

Dr. Freeman is the co-author of "Social Action Resulting from Industrial Development" and "Community Involvement", both books which use Tecumseh as a background.

The Social Action booklet is used by MSU as study material in Sociology. It is a short history of what takes place when big industry moves into a small town the social changes, advantages, disadvantages.

Dr. Freeman lived in Tecumseh while he was compiling data for his writings and recalls many people that he associated with during his stay here.

To quote Dr. Freeman, "I have a warm spot in my heart for Tecumseh, and go back time to time to keep a check on the progress made."

Dr. Freeman will talk on Urban Development and Business Decentralization in Michigan, using Tecumseh as his base and going out into the state.

The banquet is to be a joint service club venture. The Exchange Club will be the host club this year as the banquet falls on their meeting night.

"To see Dr. Freeman's eyes light up at the mention of Tecumseh is a treat in itself, and to hear him talk about our city will be a real treat," says Don Murply, who arranged the appearance.

Tickets are available at the Chamber office and the city hall.

This year Charles Stone, a Boysville sophomore, will represent the school at the 1961 Wolverine Boys' State, which will be held from June 15 to 22 at Michigan State University.

Chuck will be sponsored by the Lenawee County Voiture 997 of the Forty and Eight organization of the American Legion.

The Boysville Fighting Knights won their fifth baseball league victory against no defeats over the Whiteford Bobcats on the Boysville diamond, 7-1.

On May 11, Dick Michniak went the distance, as he usually does, for the Knights.

It was Michniak who broke a 1-1 tie in the early innings with a bases-loaded triple which drove in three runs, and then scored himself on a ground ball hit by Stan Klos.

Although Michniak's control was erratic at times, he came through in the clutch in each inning, backed up by the booming bats and sure-handed fielding of his Knight teammates.

The Boysville team has two more games this season. They boast a 6-1 record for the season so far.

Some light on a dark subject

Ever wonder why some pills come in clear, transparent bottles, while others hide behind brown or dark-green glass? It's no accident, but by design. Why . . . ? Simple daylight can reduce the potency of some medications. Consider how sunshine fades a rayon print, for instance. Thus, where needed, we use dark bottles, not to hide anything, but to preserve the medical effectiveness of the drug your physician prescribed for you. This is but one of many precautionary measures that are taken to provide you with the best in pharmaceutical service.

Teenage relationships with parents?

Indeed, this is a touchy and rarely ever-thought-of-problem.

However, if you are interested in some sort of a solution or remedy, please read what Anthony Bronzo's senior problems class has concluded.

Today's children are rarely given the chance of being children.

"Oh, Jonnie, you mus'nt go out in the rain you'll catch a cold."

"Mary don't you dare fight with your brother, it isn't right, you may hurt him."

"I don't care if you don't want to join the Little League, I say it is better than playing with those hoodlums in the back lot."

Do the previous statements sound somewhat familiar to your household? In conclusion of our discussion the other day, we decided "We are too organized!"

Nowdays, children aren't allowed to participate in anything unless it's organized.

The modern day child is loosing his imagination. Of course, an organization is not complete unless money is involved in uniforms, equipment, field rental and the like.

Can you remember when you were a child? Immediately, you probably recall fond memories of the local baseball game in a "no trespassing" lot, or playing house in grandmother's old dresses.

Do children do this nowdays? Seldom. They are expected—and often forced—by their parents to join the Garden Club, the Social Dance Class, the Rock Club, Scouts and the like.

Please don't misunderstand, I'm in favor of many organizations. However, why not just let your child use his imagination and, at least for part of his life, let him have some childhood fanticies, without explaining why a fairy couldn't fly—it's the law of gravitation.

Introducing: Tomorrow's Leaders

The high school student, they say, is a young person who will:

► Use a car to get to a store two blocks away, knowing full well that the parking lot is three blocks on the other side.

► Move heaven, earth, and the principal's office to enroll in a class already filled, then drop the course.

► Complain bitterly about the quality of food served in the school cafeteria, while putting down a second portion.

But, there is a serious side. Today's students, many teachers say, are more accomplished than the average of their predecessors.

Perhaps this is because the adults, today, provide better opportunities for the youth to learn

The activity sponsored this week in Tecumseh, when students took over the functions of the city government for a day (and this newspaper), contributed much to their education.

High school scholars, elected by the THS student body, were given the unique honor of acting as municipal officials Tuesday.

It was an exciting event for all of us who participated. Many, for the first time in their lives, experienced endeavors involving adult responsibilities.

The students' competence, which was considerable, got them into as much difficulty as did their youthful blunders.

The occasion was stimulating and the privilege of the student participation was wonderful.

Tuesday night, Mayor Jon Aho and his council held an excellent meeting.

The mayor requested that all city department heads report on their day's work.

Fire Chief Chuck Osburn and his assistant, Mike Rohrer, told

'Regression Rather Than Progression'

By SUSAN HARRIS

Mayors Exchange Day Banquet, held at the Tecumseh Country Club Monday evening, introduced the first of many activities taking place in Tecumseh during Michigan Week.

Mayor Eugene Jenison of Dowagiac, was the honored guest.

Following a reception parade, Tecumseh's Mayor Harold Easton, presented Mr. Jenison with an "Honorary Mayor" certificate of Tecumseh.

At the banquet, Mayor Jenison expressed his sincerest gratitude for the kindness shown by the citizens of Tecumseh.

Wednesday, Mayor Easton was to be exchange mayor in Dowagiac.

Bob Aten was master of ceremonies, introducing Mayor and Mrs. Jenison and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wildes, chief of police of Dowagiac and his wife.

Highlighting the evening was a talk presented by Dr. Walter Freeman, professor of Sociology and Anthropology at Michigan State University.

Dr. Freeman lived in Tecumseh while compiling information for his writings, "Social Action Resulting from Industrial Development" and "Community Involvement".

In both of these books, Dr. Freeman used Tecumseh as a background for his material.

AS A SOCIAL Scientist, Dr. Freeman was interested in annalizing the manner in which people dealt with one another. He was also interested in finding "A well-ordered class system."

In explaining the many reasons for tensions, in a community such as Tecumseh, Dr. Freeman noted that perhaps "urbanization" is the reason for such frictions. He recalled that in 1952, such problems were affecting the community:

► An addition to the hospital

► Sewage disposal plant

► School expansion problem

► Floridation campaign

These were just a few problems of urbanization which forced people to make new adjustments, which often proved difficult.

People either adjusted in one of two ways:

1. They maintained an isolation policy.

2. Or, they familiarized themselves with the new condition.

Dr. Freeman explained that

Tecumseh Gets Top-Flight Man as Police Chief

State Police Lt. Murell W. Clark has been appointed Tecumseh's new police chief.

His appointment will probably become effective June 10, the day after he retires from the Michigan State Police.

He later served at Ypsilanti, Rockwood, Wakefield, Manistique, Clinton, L'Anse and Marquette, before his promotion May 1, 1947 to corporal and a transfer to Flint.

4-Mill Issue Voted Down

By JIM LINCOLN

The largest turnout for any school election dealt the Tecumseh School's proposed four mills a convincing 1,509-793 defeat Saturday.

The board, expecting a large vote, was prepared and had seven voting machines to handle the electorate some of whom were in line when the polls opened at 7 a.m.

The defeat killed all hopes of the board to restore some parts of the education program cut earlier this spring.

Cuts now in effect for the 1961-'62 school year are:

► Reduction in number of kindergarten sections.

► All first grades on half-day sessions.

► Elimination of special vocal music and art teachers in the elementary.

► Double size of physical education classes.

► Close Macon, West Branch school buildings.

► Put junior high on 5-hour school day.

► Eliminate expenses for senior trip counselors.

► Eliminate adult education classes.

►Eliminate freshman football and basketball.

► Eliminate high school debate and oration.

Whether the board will try again to raise money for operating expenses was not answered Monday night when a special meeting was held to validate the vote.

☆

FURTHER CUTS, however, were made at the session in services now provided:

► Discontinuance of all field trips.

► Discontinue all intramural activities.

► Reduce student testing program from three to one.

► Restrict use of football field at night unless all expenses are paid for.

Saturday's vote was the climax of several weeks of controversey over the need of four additional mills or "tighten the belt" policy advocated by many citizens.

It was the second defeat at the polls for the schools within a year. In July 1960, the voters turned down two mills by nearly a three-to-one majority.

The school board slashed the budget by over $87,000 earlier this spring to balance it for next year.

Another similar reduction in expenses already has been proposed for the 1962-'63 school year

ACTRESS NANCY KELLY DRAWS ADMIRIN G GLANCE FROM STAGE-STRUCK WRITER

Gal's Dream Comes True

(Editor's note: Actress Nancy Kelly arrived in Ann Arbor last week and The Herald dispatched special writer Gin Murray to interview her. Gin, up to her ears in amateur theater as a member of the Tecumseh Players, turned in the following piece.)

By GIN MURRAY

Calling all stage-struck girls.

How many times have you wanted to meet a Broadway and Hollywood star face to face?

My chance came Friday evening and it was a genuine thrill.

Nancy Kelly, now appearing in the Ann Arbor Drama Series in her prize-winning stage and screen role of "The Bad Seed", was a gracious subject.

Arriving minutes late, I expected a cool welcome from the star who portrays so brilliantly a mother who discovers her young daughter is a murderer.

Instead, I received a cool drink and a warm reception.

☆

MISS KELLY had been rehearsing all afternoon and it was well past the supper hour. Yet, Miss Kelly proved to be a great lady offstage as well as on.

Her genuine smile of welcome was as cordial as the greeting in her warm brown eyes.

She was dressed beautifully in a double-breasted, gold boucle suit. On a table nearby was a huge bouquet of yellow roses.

Miss Kelly has been "on stage" since she was four, when she won the title of Most Healthy Child in New York. She made her first movie shortly after that.

What got her into acting?

"In my case, it was a stage-struck mother who had always wanted to become an actress and fulfilled her ambition in my career," Miss Kelly smiled.

Nancy, married to handsome Earl Towe, stage, TV and movie performer, is the mother of one daughter, Caro.

☆

MISS KELLY stressed the importance of community and repetory theatre to provide training for actors and other theatre personnel.

She added that such groups help keep alive the traditions of American theatre.

Miss Kelly was cast in the role of Christine Penmark when the Maxwell Anderson drama of "The Bad Seed" opened on Broadway.

She was acclaimed by the critics and won a Tony award for the season's outstanding performance.

Miss Kelly repeated the role in the film version of the Anderson drama, winning an Academy Award nomination.

Performances in Ann Arbor of the stage play are being given nightly through Saturday at 8:30. There are matinees Thursday and Saturday at 2:30.

Tickets for all performances are available at the box ofifce in the Lydia Mendelssohn Theatre.

Welchs Attend

Royal E. Welch, candidate for Con-Con, and his wife attended the quarterly board meeting of the Michigan Institute of Drycleaning at Lansing Sunday.

Mr. Welch is the Director for Lenawee and Monroe counties.

REGRESSION

urbanization calls for some sort of adjustment patterns, and as "We are living in a highly technological world, we must make these sound adjustments, or we will not live in harmony. After all, urbanization is an inevitability.

☆

IN DISTINGUISHING between the now obsolete agricultural community of Tecumseh to the present urban community, Dr. Freeman stated that the agricultural community had many common bonds, which tended to produce a harmonizing community, these bonds were a common religion, work and beliefs.

On the other hand, a urban community is such an heterogenous one that it is questionable if any common bonds exist. "Differences require dependents," the speaker said in explaining this, he stated the common bond of this community is that everyone is dependent upon someone else, and our way of life is affected by the work of others.

Following the social pattern of our city, Dr. Freeman said he was unhappy about the millage "falling flat on its face".

If a community is content, it will not progress. Where is the end? If the reason for the failure of this proposal was "personalization rather than rationalization." Tecumseh has not progressed at all.

When frightened, a community tends to go into regression rather than progression. If some sort of a solution is to be offered, perhaps there should be a compromise between "War" and "Peace."

Mayor Jenison, Dr. Freeman and Chief of Police Wilds were each presented with a product of the community — a Jiffy Cooler.

Chamber of Commerce Secretary, Don Murphy, then presented Mayor Jenison with a sterling silver platter as a gift from the community.

The Kiwanis Club served as host.

Roland Boyers Named President of Cabin Group

Roland Boyers was elected president of the Scout Cabin Association at a meeting held May 16 at the cabin. Others elected were:

Vice-president — Mrs. Merrill Murphy

Secretary—Mrs. James Murphy

Treasurer — William Hannibal

Plans for inside improvements and painting were made.

A new ceiling is presently being installed under the direction of the committee consisting of Russell Cheever, Lowell Wise, Dick Witt, Gerald Creger and Lester Ruhl.

Estimates for paint for the outside of the cabin were presented by Warren Filter. Others on this committee are Gerald Creger, Russell Cheever, ElRay Finnegan and Dick Witt.

A work bee is planned for the Girl Scout Troops to make drapes for the cabin windows. Material to be purchased by the troops and rods by the Cabin Association.

The maintenance committee, Mrs. Merrill Murphy, Mrs. Donald Creger and Mrs. Stanley Miller are in charge of the purchasing.

The Rev. Paul Brantingham and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wilson and Ardis Drewyor were in Bellview, O. Monday evening to attend the Malone College alumni meeting.

Our solution is, let the kids alone, let them act like imaginative kids without all of this modern day machinery of launching pads, electric trains and talking dolls.

What happens when the over-organized child becomes a teenager? By this time the parent feels as though their child has been taught all of the good things in life, as they have had membership in every respectable club in town by the age of 12, and they are weary of guiding youngster's life.

Thus, the teenager is free to go his own way, and of course, it will be the "right" way.

Then too, the teenager has had to listen and obey, without question, the wishes of the parents throughout all his childhood.

A solution? There can be no set pattern. However, with a little industry on the part of the parents, pleasing results could be available.

How about these familiar statements:

"Well, of course, I don't like Alice to drink, but I can't do anything about it."

"No, I don't approve of these unchaperoned parties, but if John doesn't attend he won't have any friends."

"My daughter would never do such a thing!"

These previous statements are about as naive as a new-born child. If parents are sincerely interested in molding their children into decent individuals, they will and can take an active interest in teenage activities.

No, I don't refer to a planned recreation hall that, of course, will have to accomodate the parents, nor do I refer to parties that are so well planned that a time schedule could be distributed, but I'm referring to a certain parental interest.

Believe it or not, just plain discussion with your teenager will bring about such respect and responsibility and you will be able to trust their judgment and they in turn will trust and believe in your judgment.

But, do you have the time to deal with your teenager?

Yes, Music Club, Rotary and Women's Society of Christian Service and the like all take considerable time and are worthwhile projects.

But what is the sense in helping the community when you are neglecting its very core — the teenager?

We teenagers are willing—how about you parents.

It is high time that something is done to create a much better parent-child relationship.

Our formula—show as much interest to the teenager as you do the child.

Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks still bravely singing fly,
Scarce heard amidst the guns below.
We are the dead —

High school — 2¼ minutes
Junior high — 1¼ minutes

During their inspection trip, the fire officials said they found fire extinguishers at Patterson and Tecumseh Acres have not been recharged in more than one year, which is a violation of the fire ordinance.

They also said that in their opinion, West Branch, with only two exits, was a "fire trap."

POPPY STORY—John Colson, new commander of the Tecumseh American Legion, tells his son, Jackie, age five, the reasons for selling poppies. Legion Poppy days this year will be Friday and Saturday.

Legion Poppy Sale Is Friday, Saturday

"Wear a poppy," an annual appeal from the American Legion Auxiliary, will be heard in Tecumseh Friday and Saturday, May 26 and 27.

This annual observance is directed by the Auxiliary, which uses the services of volunteer workers from the Auxiliary, Post and Junior Members to distribute the Memorial flowers.

Mrs. Leland Cheever, auxiliary poppy day chairman, has announced that many volunteers from the Tecumseh area will be on the streets offering the veteran made poppies to the public.

The poppy was a familiar sight to servicemen in Europe during the First World War. The hardy little flower which was immortalized in Lt. Col. John McRae's poem, "In Flander's Fields", bloomed in the war-torn battlefields and offered a touch of color to our soldiers bleak surroundings.

When the men returned home in 1918, they remembered the poppy, and soon adopted it as a symbol of their comrades who had died in battle.

The Poppy Program is a dedication to our war dead, but in a more tangible light, it is a re-dedication to our living veterans and their dependants.

The hospitalized veteran fashions the red leaves into a symbol of service. This veteran is paid one and one half cent for each poppy he makes.

Making the poppies gives employment to hundreds of disabled men who otherwise would be unable to earn anything toward the support of themselves or their families.

Then, too, the work is of real value in aiding their recovery, occupying hands, and mind. Men whose fingers are busy with bright red poppy petals do not give themselves so easily to depressing worry.

Dimes and dollars contributed during Poppy Day go directly into the rehabilitation and child welfare programs.

Not one cent is retained by these service organization which administer the program on a voluntary basis.

Families and veterans aided by Poppy Day can be found in every community. Poppy benefits are used to strengthen lives blighted by war-time injury and suffering.

"When you are asked to wear a Poppy on Friday and Saturday, remember the veteran in a hospital or work shop who made this Memorial flower. Our Poppy Day purpose has always been to honor the war dead by assisting the living. This is the true significance of Poppy Day," said Mrs. Cheever.

Student City Manager Seeks New Sewer Lines

By SUSAN HARRIS

City Manager Bob Koffron inspected the sewage pipes at south Union and recommended that new ones be installed. He also discussed fines resulting from parking meters.

Learning to use Tecumseh's surveying instruments was the duty of City Engineer Ti Tietsma and City Assessor Dale Tuckey.

They recommended that several parking meter heads be removed and "penny" meters be installed. Fourteen have been ordered.

Chief of Police Bob Fisher reported on his department. His assistants rode with the Tecumseh police throughout the day and answered several calls.

James Bashore was arrested and taken into custody on the suspicion of smoking under the age of 18. He was released because of lack of evidence.

Policewoman Margaret Horvath, busily issued 46 parking tickets during the day.

In closing, Mayor Jon Aho expressed gratitude from students for the experience which they were fortunate enough to have.

He sincerely thanked all those who made this possible.

MEMORIAMS

MEMORIAL—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Allen Abner, who passed away 3 years ago May 26, 1958.
When the ties of love are broken and loved ones have to part,
It leaves a wound that never heals and an ever aching heart.
No one knows how much we miss you since you were called away
But to us who loved you it seems like yesterday
How we miss your footsteps coming through the open door
We will clasp your hands in gladness
When we meet on heavens shore
Sadly missed by his wife and children. M25,p

VOICE of THE HERALD

Which Will It Be?

For the second time within a year, voters in the Tecumseh School District overwhelmingly defeated a proposal for additional operating monies for the local schools.

Apparently, the people prefer cuts in educational services to an increase in taxation.

Cuts have been made—over $67,000 — and more should be made to erase the $136,000 deficit—the reason the school board asked for four mills last Saturday.

We hope that the board is not deterred in its plans to end deficit spending because of the defeat at the polls.

With no financial help coming, we suggest that the board make further cuts, more than those already approved for the 1961-'62 school year, and that some of these cuts be made in the upper four grades.

Although the board at one time voiced opposition to reducing the high school program, the elementary grades have been affected greatly already and further reductions here would severely attack the younger children's education.

One foreseeable alternative to reducing services is another attempt at the polls for more millage. We would prefer this to slashing the educational programs again, even though the odds for voters' approval seems unsurmountable.

The problem of eliminating the deficit is still with the schools. It can be solved only by more money or by limitations on the education services.

Which will it be?

Don't Get Angry on Trip

Don't get involved in arguments before and during Memorial Day holiday trips. It could cause you to have an accident.

"Studies show that drivers under emotional strain are more likely to have an accident than motorists who remain calm and cool on the highway," State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said.

He referred to a study which shows that truck drivers are more accident prone during the first hour they are on the highway.

"In many cases, truck drivers involved in accidents during this period were under emotional strain following arguments with their wives or fellow employers," Mackie said

"The study shows it takes a truck driver about an hour to cool off as the source of conflict is left behind," he said.

"On the other hand, motorists on trips with their families are constantly exposed to differences of opinion and even minor disagreements can make the driver less able to cope with accident producing situations."

Mackie said proper conditioning for highway travel will allow for a safer and more enjoyable holiday.

Other safety tips for holiday motorists include: — Begin now to get your car ready for highway travel. Check brake adjustments, ties, fan belts, generators, lights and windshield wipers and washers. If your car hasn't been safety checked for some time, now would be a good time to have it done.

Plan trips well in advance so you won't be covering long distances in too short a period of time.

—Consult new highway maps for latest routings on new highways.

—Drive at the same rate of speed as other drivers. Motorists who drive at a faster rate of speed leave themselves open to dangers of passing and cutting in. Motorists who drive slower expose other drivers to these dangers.

—Observe posted regulations.

—When driving after dark dim your lights for approaching traffic and for motorists in cars ahead of you.

—Motorists who become drowsy should pull off the road and rest.

Remain alert until your car is safely parked in your garage at the end of your trips. Many motorists have a tendency to drop their guard as they get close to home.

SURPRISE STAR—Terry Mackin, in uniform, proved a standout in his minor role as a sailor who was lured into taking several drinks too many. Restraining him is Wayne Reganall. Watching is Mrs. Tom Corkery.

'Fleecing' Had Surprises

By TOM RIORDAN

There were some pleasant surprises in last week's production of "The Golden Fleecing" by the Tecumseh Players.

Terry Mackin, as a sailor who took six bolts of bourbon at the urging of some schemers, was delighted in turning from a stone sober gob to an unconscious drunk in five minutes.

The admiral was done magnificiently by Richard Kureth, who stole most the scenes in which he appeared.

Another surprise was Ralph Dabe, playing to the teeth a pompous American business executive in Italy.

Wayne Reganall's portrayal of the lead male was better Thursday than opening night, when he spoke too rapidly, thus loosing some of the role's punch.

Wayne's performance earned him an offer from the Clark Lake Players to appear in their version of "Auntie Maime" this summer.

Mrs. Tom Corkery had a ball doing the admiral's daughter and Mrs. Bob Murray shined as the scientist's boy friend.

Earl Kotts, as the scientist, was excellent, matching his work in "Charlie's Aunt".

The pop-eyed ensign, Dick Boyd, convinced the audience he was a frightened accomplice of the breezy Reganall.

Directed by talented Al Katz, the show was the second major production by the Players in the past year.

You're Guilty!

By NANCY NIXON

Results of the voting on the millage issue have made me, as a student of Tecumseh High School, even more aware of the serious problem confronting the Tecumseh Schools.

It may be true that you, as Tecumseh Citizens, are revolting against paying taxes, therefore refusing to pay any more. However, it seems rather disastrous that you citizens have chosen the millage proposal to exemplify the fact that you are revolting.

With all the millions of dollars being spent by the Federal Government, in order to stay abreast of Russia in the "space race," the "no-voters" have helped to prevent the United States from making any notable progress in the future.

What good are missiles and rockets if there aren't any intelligent humans to control them?

There is more involved in the competition with Russia than just orbitting men. More important is the "classroom race," a fact which the voters have forgotten.

You "no-voters" have set off a sizzling chain reaction!

First, your children will be affected, second your community will be affected, along with other communities similar to Tecumseh, and last but not least, America will be affected.

I pronounce you citizens guilty! Guilty of what? Of helping to degrade America's education system and giving to the already, powerful Russia, more power.

Gal-A-Rama Will Be Scout Project

The first Gal-a-Rama to be held by Tecumseh Girl Scouts will take place Saturday, June 3, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Tecumseh Products Workers Union Hall.

Each troop will have a booth to display arts and crafts in 11 different fields, as well as literature and dramatics on the stage.

Cotton candy, as well as food at a snack bar, will be featured by the Senior Scouts. They're working to earn money to attend the International Girl Scout Round-up in Button Bay State Park at Burlington, Vermont in 1962.

Most of the seniors have a good opportunity to attend the Round-Up. Ann Cameron and Grace Dennis were delegates to the last one held in Colorado.

Special awards will be given at the close of the Gal-a-Rama and at 7 p.m. graduation ceremonies will be held for Troop 112, led by Ruth Bishop. These girls have completed 10 years of Scouting.

First class awards will be presented to those girls qualifying for them.

Dr. Helzerman Won't Run

Dr. Ralph Helzerman, veteran school boardman, announced at Monday night's meeting that he would not seek re-election this July.

The local physician, a board member for the past 15 years and ranking members with the highest seniority, indicated that he must devote more and more time to his medical practice.

His post is the only board member up for election.

Petitions may be taken out at the superintendent's office for the board position, which will be for a four-year term. All petitions must be filed by June 10.

Early this month, Gov. Swainson signed a bill that provided for an election on June 12, instead of in July.

The bill would have prevented local persons from taking out petitions and getting their names on the ballot. Tecumseh would have had to have a write-in race for Dr. Helzerman's vacancy.

However, Supt. James McDowell checked with Lansing school officials Tuesday morning and learned that the bill was unconstitutional.

☆

OTHER board action was:

► Agreement to sell Calvin School for $4,500 to Mrs. Leo James.

► Increase first grade teacher salaries to offset the additional teaching load as the teachers will have to teach two half-day sessions and two different sets of children a day.

► Reorganize bus stops and have many students walk to central points for pickups.

Italian Street Fair Saturday

The Italian Street Fair to be held Saturday in the Youth House of the First Baptist Church is a project of the Youth Fellowship, under the leadership of Mrs. Anna Grigg.

The meal featuring spaghetti, pizza and macaroni and cheese will be served cafeteria style beginning at 5 p.m.

Fortune telling, a wishing well and candy and bake goods booths will add to the festivity.

Evelyn Beland will be purchasing chairman. Others assisting with the preparation will be Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Buehrer and Mrs. Claude Sebring.

Soybean Special Fertilizer

Rainbow 0-10-30 Soybean Special is the first new development in soybean fertilization in 20 years. It's an International first—an exclusive formulation with special nutrients not available in any other soybean fertilizer on the market.

In addition to Rainbow's special nutrients, there's plenty of quality phosphorus to get young plants off to a fast start—establish a good root system and hasten maturity. There's plenty of potash for vigorous growth, proper maturity and heavy yields of No. 1 beans, the kinds with good color and high oil content.

Don't be disappointed with low yields of poor quality beans. Avoid the effort of costly spraying for nutrient deficiencies. When deficiencies appear, it's already too late for top yields. Use International's Rainbow 0-10-30 Soybean Special for Satisfaction at Harvest Time.

THIS FLY CAN BE STOPPED with repellents in combination with a knockdown spray. Repellents are especially advantageous where no residual is applied in the barn. Even when fogging is practiced, repellents may give better control than ordinary stock sprays. Use 1 to 2 quarts of a dilution of Tabatrex or R-325 with a killing agent, applied to cows 2 or 3 times a week. You may prefer to use 2 ounces per animal per day of a ready-to-use oilbase spray.

CLEAN PLANTER FERTILIZER ATTACHMENTS immediately after corn or soybean planting. Any fertilizer left in the hopper will collect moisture and cause excessive corrosion. This could mean having to replace otherwise. Brush all parts and wash them down with water. Then give them all a good coating of oil.

QUALITY OF GRASS SILAGE IN THE FEED BUNK depends on how you fill your silo. Whenever conditions allow, wilt forages to 65% to 70% moisture. Forage wilter than this will tend to form a higher portion of undesirable silo acids and you'll get more seepage losses. Be sure silage is packed well to exclude air. Underpacked silage will overheat, causing considerable loss in feeding value. Plastic silo caps and covers can be a big help in preserving silage.

HAVE A CALF THAT NEEDS DEHORNING OR CASTRATING? If so, you'd better do it before flies become a real serious problem. The longer you wait, the more flies there'll be around to contend with.

"SHOWBOAT" WAS COMPLETE WITH SANDWICH BOARDS AND THE "CHARLESTON"—Janice Bryan, (left), with three other girls danced the Charleston during intermission time when refreshments of pineapple, lunchmeat and pickle rolls and other typical offerings of that era were sold by Future Homemakers. This sale totaled $35 for the FHA treasury. Jim Bashore and Leland Green were the advertisers for Cid's Good Eats. Ron Lemerand was the captain of the good ship, Robert E. Leek. It was estimated that about 1,600 people attended the production of "Show Boat" by the High School Band and Chorus with total gross proceeds reaching $800.50. After materials for the set, costing between $150 and $190, have been paid to Tecumseh merchants the net amount will be divided between the two groups. Retail prices were paid for nearly all of the materials. A survey is being made as to the advisability of ordering records made from the tape recording of the Wednesday evening performance. If enough students contact Don Johnson, Les Bennett or Miles Cowdry about the records they may be ordered for a nominal fee. Details are available from the above mentioned teachers.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

It was with considerable interest and some alarm that I read two certain articles on the front page of The Herald of May 4.

The first had to do with the misfortunes of a race of people referred to as "Asusians", no doubt a pseudonym for whatever people the writer wishes to infer.

Whatever is intended here, I was immediately reminded of the poor Indian nations; and the picture that comes to my mind of some of the Reservations their descendants are found on here in the west is not a pretty one.

If we are the ones in the story who came bearing gifts and stayed to conquer then our conscience should sometimes prick us.

The second article dealt with a controversial film now enjoying a large popularity. That this film is filled with intentional misrepresentation and deceit is no secret and there are at least 16 documented such errors and unjustified innuendos in the picture and sound track thereof.

Admittedly we must continue to fight against communist action now at work in this country. But when we adopt the well-known tactics of the communist to do so we become little better than they and run the risk of distortion of the dimension and nature of the enemy.

It then becomes a power struggle and even if we win we lose. Deceit, lies, and distortion are well recognized tools of the communist—let us fight them with truth, honesty and vigorous facts!

It is perhaps this knowledge which prompted Governor Swainson to withhold the showing of this picture to state employees, that the Michigan State Government might not become a party to the falsity of its presentation.

It has been said that reactionary can be as dangerous as an extreme leftist. It is hoped that your columns will try to adopt a more generous and considered approach to our daily problems so that a disservice may not be done your readers.

How to add years to your life

100

100 years ago the average American could expect to live about 40 years. Today—about 70. Modern sanitation, diet, drugs and medical practice have added 30 years to our life span. And note that 70 is average. Many die sooner. Many live longer. You up your chances of being a "longer" if you eat properly and get proper medical care. This means periodic check-ups by your physician. As pharmacists we are pleased to help by supplying the drugs your doctor prescribes—drugs unknown a century ago. We're soconscious of the effectiveness of modern medicine that we're shooting for a life span of 100 years. How about you?

Ken was born in Jackson, in 1921.

The Herrick family, shortly after his birth, moved to Tecumseh, where he attended the public schools. He graduated from Howe Military School in 1940 and started with Tecumseh Products.

He worked in all departments of the firm and presently is vice-president and director of the company.

He served with the United States Air Force from 1942 through 1945.

Mr. Herrick is married and has two children, Todd W. who is a student at Albion College, and Lynn C. who attends the Tecumseh school.

Mort Neff Entertains

Mort Neff entertained a crowd of about 400 sport fans at the Tecumseh High School Tuesday May 16, discussing local and statewide game problems.

Of particular interest was his statement that the State Conservation Department is not releasing deer in this area.

In answer to the comment that a herd of fifteen deer were recently seen east of Tecumseh, Mr. Neff stated that such a large herd could only be a herd released from confinement and probably from within 25 or 50 miles.

It is the habit of deer released from captivity to stay close together.

Mr. Neff discussed the life cycle of the sea Lamphry in some detail explaining that spawning occurs in the mud flats of certain streams emptying into the great lakes and that the young burrow into the mud to remain for six years.

It is when they then emerge that they attach themselves to fish to obtain the food on which to grow for 14 months when they return to the stream in which they were born to spawn and immediately die.

A pair of Lamprey spawns one hundred thousand eggs. Most interesting is the fact that a lamprecide has now been developed that suffocates only the Lamprey and will make practical control in four years of stream treatment.

Mr. Neff closed his program with some beautiful color pictures of his fishing travels in South America and a short film on "Thumper" a highly domesticated rabbit who enjoyed all of the comforts of home even to watching Westerns on the television.

Tecumseh Rotary Club will join other Service Clubs in observing Mayor's Day Monday, May 22.

Juvenal (65-140 A.D.) said:

"A SOUND MIND IN A SOUND BODY IS TO BE PRAYED FOR"

In ancient days a sound body was truly a blessing for then known medicines gave very little help. Plagues would overnight decimate or wipe out cities. Any surgical operation was a death-defying ordeal.

Physicians can now prescribe effective medicines for which monarchs would have given their kingdoms in grateful payment. Yet these new drugs, many of which cost millions to research and perfect, are a few cents per treatment. They not only save lives, but by lessening sickness-time and requiring fewer visits from physicians, actually save you money.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Dean Lauds Superior Work of Miss Oliphant

Doris Oliphant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Oliphant, has received special recognition as a superior student at the University of Colorado at Boulder, Colorado.

A letter received by the Oliphants from their daughter, written her by the dean, Kenneth E. Clark, reads in part

"The standards of excellence, which our faculty impose in the assignment of grades are such that your record is a rare one in the college.

"Only 418 students out of a total enrollment of 6,645 in the college achieved an average of 3.5 or above this fall.

"I am sure that your performance is outstanding in substantial part because you have dedicated yourself to intellectual matters and have learned to use your talents and skills in an effective way.

"This surely helped you to make good grades; I trust it also served to bring you great personal satisfaction."

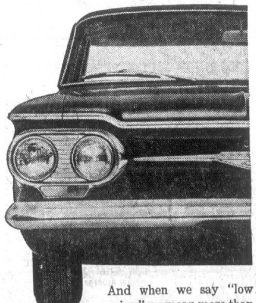
LOW PRICE IS ONLY HALF THE STORY



(The other—and even more satisfying—half you'll discover the first time you drive a Corvair!)

And when we say "low price," we mean more than merely the pint-sized figure on the window sticker of a new Corvair. You're going to be saving like sixty on gas. And on the antifreeze you won't buy next winter, and the radiator repairs you'll never have to pay for. About the only things Corvair doesn't skimp on are room, smoothness, style and pure driving joy. But that's the other half of the story. Talk to your Chevrolet dealer about it soon!

THE YELLOW DAYS OF SPRING

Sometime each May there is a short wonderful time which we like to call the Yellow Days of Spring.

The forsythia bushes are mounds of yellow gold, the cocky little daffodils are in bloom, and in the newly green lawns, dandelions blossom.

Come summer these will be pests, against which unrelenting war is waged, but once each year, after a long dreary winter, every bit of color and every blossom is welcome.

Even the trees are now more yellow than green—yes, as the new leaves burst out and grow with amazing speed they are, especially in the warm spring sun, a yellowish-green with the emphasis definitely on the yellow

☆

EVEN THE birds get into the act; this is the time of yellow birds. When the elms and the maples begin to pop, we start looking for yellow warblers.

It's fun to watch them flitting from branch to branch in their never-ending search for tiny bugs and insects.

The yellow warblers are an excellent example of how Mother Nature cares for her own—before the leaves are big enough to offer the birds protection by concealment they, the leaves, so nearly match the birds' yellowish color that movement is the only thing to show which is leaf and which is bird.

The other day, far up the creek, we saw something yellow working from tree to tree towards us.

☆

HE WAS having such a good time, bouncing from one limb to another, that we couldn't find him with the binoculars; birds do wonderful things however, and before flying out of our window picture completely, he spent one all too brief moment perched in the wren tree.

Yellow, almost orange head, light breast, dark back, tail and wings—could it have been a Prothonotary Warbler?

Probably one of the best known and most beloved birds are the wild canaries or gold-finches. 'Our flock' numbers six.

One of the males has been most obliging; he has thrilled us all by coming closer than we have ever had one before.

Having discarded his dull winter garb, he is all decked out in spring finery and how pretty. His bright, golden yellow body is set off nicely by jet black tail and wings; a black spot between his eyes gives him a cocky appearance much in keeping with his happy, buoyant disposition.

☆

LORD AND Lady Baltimore Oriole make their appearance about now, too. Mom saw the first one sitting at the top of the cornetree: he left only after giving her ample time to fully appreciate his beautiful black head and bright orange breast.

Since then we have seen a pair but at a distance. Daily they bathe in the shallow pools of the creek's edge and then fly in to a small tree on Doctor's bank to shake their feathers dry and rearrange them 'just so'. My, I do hope they nest in the neighborhood—few things are more exciting than a male Baltimore Oriole streaking through the window picture.

So it is that for a short time each May we enjoy the Yellow Days of Spring.

2 Take Part in Inspection at Grosse Ile

Cmdr. Glenn L. Green, Jr., 518 Outer Dr., and Lt. Cmdr. William M. Powell, 234 Park St. will participate in the annual military inspection and review at the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station, Saturday, June 3.

The inspection will be conducted by Rear Adm. Arnold W. McKechnie, Chief of Naval Air Reserve Training with headquarters at Glenview, Illinois.

The Naval Air Reserve, appropriately named the "Weekend Warriors", is composed of officers and men from all walks of life. They devote one weekend each month and two weeks each year to active training duty in order to maintain top effectiveness for pilots and aircrewmen.

The 18 squadrons based at Grosse Ile include helicopters, attack, anti-submarine, and transport type aircraft. The men and women are world war II and Korean veterans, as well as young recruits.

The state of readiness is such that should a national emergency occur, these squadrons would augment regular Navy operations without further training.

Dick Michniak hurled the four-hit shutout for the Knights, thus keeping his team undefeated in league competition this season.

√

Students have been working on a quarter-mile track behind the baseball field at Boysville, with a view to getting it in shape eventually to become the track to be used by the Boysville Track Team.

Now, however, the primary purpose of the track is for racing horses. The members of the Saddle Club staged a horse race on it for Open House visitors.

√

TOM RIORDAN'S Long AND Short

There's no question about it. Tecumseh can boast of having one of the finest Memorial Day parades in the state.

This year's event was another excellent example.

Orville Laidlaw noted that the 1961 parade also was one of the longest.

Riding in the 40 et 8 "train", Orville said that units were still turning into Chicago Blvd. at the city hall as the band started up N. Union St.—six blocks away.

Few adults can watch such an event without having to choke back a thickness in their throats and dab at a tear or two.

Congratulations go to parade marshall Jack Colson and all the folks who took part.

Complete details and pictures will appear in next week's Herald.

☆

"Kids, kids, kids . . . why can't they be like we were, perfect in every way?" go the words of a popular song.

Well, hardly.

Dad and mom will have to admit the youngsters of today are about the same as they were — only maybe a little sharper.

Student Government Day last week proved to a lot of folks that our young people are just as responsible as we'll let them be.

The two young ladies who took over The Herald as co-editors did extremely well. One phrase in the column turned out by Nancy Nixon particularly impressed me: "Many for the first time in their lives experienced endeavors involving adult responsibilities."

It made me stop and take notice. Young people will act adult if we'll treat them as adults.

Now as to the other side of the teenage coin.

Quite a few parents around Tecumseh became slightly despondent a week ago upon learning that their teenage sons and daughters had staged a beer party in the Irish Hills.

It was well-organized, even to each youth kicking in one dollar a few days before and then the mob meeting in front of the high school the evening of the bash with beer poured into milk cans.

The night ended with several fights. Fortunately, there were no auto accidents, which could have so easily happened.

It was a lark to the young people, yet few realized the dangers with which they were playing footsie.

This writer hasn't any pat answer, far from it.

But it would seem that when youths are given an adult challenge—as was the case on Student Government Day—the response is gratifying.

Some of our readers might wish to comment.

Call to Daddy

Lovely 18-year-old Raechel German has stars in her eyes these days.

Raechel was named Miss Lenawee County in a Miss Universe preliminary beauty pageant May 25 at the Strand Theatre.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald German of Cambridge Junction.

Raechel will now compete for the title of Miss Michigan at Detroit's Windmill Pointe Yacht Club June 18.

If she wins there, it's Miami Beach in August for the Miss USA and Miss Universe pageant.

No wonder the dark-haired belle has stars in her eyes.

What was the first thought Miss German had when she discovered she had won the Miss Lenawee title over 15 others?

"I wanted to call daddy. He had to work and couldn't come."

As soon as she got offstage, after being officially crowned by Miss Michigan, Judy Richards of Dearborn, she hustled to the phone and told her father, who is a foreman at Clark's Equipment Co. in Jackson, the good news.

Miss Lenawee, who stands 5'8" and has a statuesque 38-26-36 figure, graduated last year from Brooklyn High School. She attended Jackson Business school.

She had been working as a secretary at Clinton Engines, Inc. until a recent lay-off.

Miss German loves horseback riding and has two horses, Diablo and Pinkie, which are kept on her grandfather's farm.

She has a brother, Ronnie, 10, and a sister, Patty, five.

This wasn't Raechel's first title. She was queen of the Heart O' the Lakes Festival in Brooklyn in 1959 and runner-up in the Miss Michigan Chiropractic contest at Detroit in 1960.

☆

FOUR runners-up to Miss German were selected by the judges:

1. Carlene Raines, 19, Adrian
2. Vera Michajlenko, 20, Tecumseh.
3. Diane Fox, 20, Tecumseh
4. Janet Sentle, 20, Adrian

One of Miss Lenawee's first assignments in her new role was to visit Tecumseh Friday after noon and pick up more than $200 in gifts given her by local merchants.

Judging the Miss Lenawee contest were Mary LaRue of Toledo, Ty Cross of Jackson and Dick Birke of Hastings.

One of Nation's Oldest

One of the nation's oldest Civil War monuments is located in Franklin Cemetery in Tipton. It was erected on July 4, 1866, on high ground in the center of the well-kept burial grounds, "by the citizens of Franklin as a memorial of the brave and patriotic men who represented them in battle and gave their lives in defense of the unity of our common country." The war had been over less than a year when the monument was dedicated.

Paddlers Win Kisses in Canoe Race

One of the day's exciting highlights in last Thursday's Michigan Week's festivities was a canoe race from Clinton to Tecumseh on River Raisin sponsored by Radio Station WABJ.

Winners were Earl Baldwin and Cal Damon.

Bob Moore and Dr. Robert Bowers were disqualified for portaging, after coming in first.

Other participants were Don Murphy and Mike Green, Dr. Robert Laidlaw and Jon Aho, Dr. Robert Murray and Terry Mackin, Harold Green and Bob Aten, Jack Osburn and Jim McKenna, Karl Sshneider and Dr. Carlos Knisely, Gail Robinson and Bill Clausen.

Many upsets occurred during the race, some teams topping over as many as five or six times.

Only casualty was to Mr. Murphy, who with partner Mike Green, tipped over about 100 feet from the finish and lost his glasses.

Don Purkey was the starter.

Last year's Miss Michigan runner-up greeted the winners with kisses and their awards in a ceremony held in front of the Strand Theatre.

The race was filmed by a Michigan Outdoors cameraman and appeared the same evening on the Channel 4 program of that name. It was also screened by a Toledo TV station.

Mrs. Anderson Captures Gals' Chip-in Contest

Low gross winners in the ladies league at the Country Club Wednesday were Mrs. Robert Moore, Mrs. B. B. Hannibal and Mrs. Allen Russell.

Mrs. Edward Mossing, Mrs. Paul Clauda and Mrs. R. G. Anderson were low putt winners.

Mrs. R. G. Anderson won the chip-in contest.

Hostesses for June 7 will be Mrs. J. H. Rohweder, Mrs. Austin Miller and Mrs. Roger Linger.

Methodist Membership Jumps 25%

Tecumseh's Methodist Church has had a 25% increase of membership since June 1, 1960.

During the morning worship service, the Rev. Allen Wittrup received Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Fowler, who became the 100th and 101st persons to join the church this year.

An intensive program of evangelism has been carried on by Commission on Evangelism, led by Mrs. Paul Hadsell, Mrs. Robert Bonner and Mrs. Carlos Jones.

"Church attendance has so increased during the year that all the facilities of the church are being used and plans are now being considered for a building program," states the Rev. Mr. Wittrup.

Car Wash Operating

Al Bagshaw's Fast Car Wash, at the rear of his Coin-Op Laundry, is now in operation.

Being managed by Bill Caulkins, 407 Seneca St., it features a Washmobile unit, which can do a car in about 15 minutes. An attendant does the wheels and will clean the inside.

The Fast Auto Wash is open daily from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sundays from noon to 6 p.m.

'Greensleeves' To Be One Piece at Organ Recital

Episcopal Churchwomen of St. Peter's Parish are sponsoring an organ recital and tea Thursday, June 8 at 2 p.m.

It replaces their Annual Kitchen Tour of past years.

The recital by Jack Tonneberger, will feature a program of light and familiar music, including the beautiful "Trees", and a modern treatment of an old favorite, "Greensleeves".

Mr. Tonneberger has recently returned to Tecumseh from Toledo, where he was full-time organist and director of music at Augsburg Lutheran Church.

While there, he formed and directed five choirs, with 385 voices.

He also constructed the plan and directed the recent renovation and rebuilding of the 53 rank "Aeolian" pine organ at Augsburg Church.

He is a member of Phi Mu Alpha honorary music fraternity and the American Guild of Organists. Mr. Tonneberger is currently the director of secondary vocal music and guidance counselor at the Onsted Community School.

Following the recital, tea will be served in St. Peter's Parish Hall at 3 p.m. Mrs. William Damon, Jr., is general chairman for the recital and tea.

She will be assisted at the tea by Mrs. Jack Curtiss, dining room chairman; Mrs. John Doman and Mrs. Frank Hawthorne, kitchen co-chairmen; and Mrs. Arthur Geisenhaver, ticket chairman.

Tickets may be purchased at the door, or from any member of the Episcopal Churchwomen's organization.

Nothing, but nothing was left out May 26. Even hail came down from the leaden skies over Tecumseh about 10:30 Friday morning.

Earlier the sun had shone and rain and snow had both fallen. This certainly, it seems to me, should be some kind of a record. But whatever, its for the birds.

However, Memorial Day more than made up for the past weather with Old Sol shining ever so brightly.

LETTERS

TO THE EDITORS:

During the last few days since the millage defeat I have heard expressed the opinion that those who voted against the millage were unthinkingly voting against "any more taxes".

I do not feel that this is true. It would leave the impression that the majority of the voters gave no consideration to the true issues.

I think that those voters had come to the realization that a much longer view had to be taken of future committments so that all possibilities of needs be considered as a whole picture.

The U. of M. study points out that the housing in our junior and senior highs is reaching a critical level, and with this I agree. If there is soon to be a need for more building, as there will be, the voter (especially the property owner) feels loath to obligate himself for five years for operating millage when he will soon face a further demand that will be for a good just as pressing as operation.

The fact that this millage proposal for operating was defeated does not mean that the majority have turned their backs on education. Every problem has a solution, but the answer may be in compromise.

As I see it, and I speak only as an individual, we will have to see what we can buy with what we have. If there is evidence of harm to our childrens' education we will have to provide the means to restore some, at least, of the lack.

I would like to see a realistic long range plan set up, with no expectation of outside donors, that includes both operating and building needs.

This decade is going to demand good, businesslike management at the personal, local, state and national level, and school administration has to expect the same demand will be made of them.

Your sincerely,
Mrs. Robert F. Stone

Indian braves from Pack 4 Cub Scouts had a heap big Pow-Wow May 25 in the Tecumseh Products Hall.

A SKIT by Den 8 "The Old Indian's Tale" around a makeshift campfire brought many laughs. The boys from the whole Pack joined in a noisy War Dance around the fire and through it.

Den 8 won the coveted "Cubby" Award for 100% attendance of boys and parents. They also won an airplane ride, a reward promised by Dick Jacobs, father of one of the Cubs, if Den 8 ever won the Cubby.

Displays carrying out the Indian theme were made by Dens 2, 4 and 6, and a map of Michigan showing different Indian Tribes, who once lived in the state was on display from the Tecumseh Public Library.

Den 14 had the closing Flag Ceremony.

What Makes Church Great?

The measure of greatness is to be found not just in size, but in the quantity of that greatness.

Greatness is one of the discriptive words for the church, but it is a good practice to examine the roots of faith and teachings of the church to see if the church has stayed faithful to its task.

The Rev. Allen Wittrup of the Tecumseh Methodist Church will be asking the question "What Makes A Church Great?" in the sermon on Sunday at 10 a.m.

Paul Burns Reports on School

Paul Burns, Tecumseh High School vocational-agriculture teacher, gave a report on the Higgins Lake Conservation School to the Little Garden Club May 16 at the home of Mrs. Harry Richard.

He was sponsored to the school in the summer of 1960 by the Little Garden Club and the Tecumseh Garden Club.

He gave a brief outline of the material covered to show the comprehensiveness of the course.

In ending his report he stated that, "The reason garden clubs throughout the state are sending teachers to the Conservation School is that Conservation is an education problem.

"A high moral obligation is essential in Conservation, we must believe in a future for our children and our children's children, he said.

Conservation should be a way of life. Kids should be brought up with the idea that they have a responsibility towards conservation. "Last of all conservation should be thought of as an insurance policy. Pay for it and hope you do not need it," Mr. Burns concluded.

June 20, the group will meet at the Pickard Floral Shop for a design work shop to be conducted by Mrs. Harold Pickard.

Four members attended the tulip tea in Adrian.

Mrs. Stanley Cook and Mrs. Byron Goodman are in charge of the plantings to be placed by the Veterans Memorial erected near the city hall.

Sponsoring of the Junior Garden Club was tabled until fall.

A spring salad was served by Mrs. Richard and Mrs. Fred Randall.

Face Flies Are Pests to Farmers

Face flies are becoming more of a troublesome pest to Michigan dairy farmers each year, says George Parsons, dairy extension specialist at Michigan State University.

Face flies usually start appearing in Michigan about June 1.

Cows bothered by the face fly lose weight and milk production drops.

It is believed the face fly carries the germs which cause pink eye in cattle, says Parsons.

The face fly resembles a large housefly. It bothers cattle by feeding on moisture around the eyes, from the lips, and in and around the notrils. It also feeds from any open cuts on the animal.

As far as is known, the face fly breeds only in manure, says Parsons.

The USDA has recently approved the use of a 2 per cent DDVP syrup which is a corn sugar salve.

Farmers should spread this salve on the animals face for a period of 10 to 14 days. After that, continue treatment only as needed.

Also recommended for use is a mixture of 6/100 to 8/100 per cent pyrethrins plus 1 per cent piperonyl butoxide and 4/10 M-GK repellent 326 in highly medicinal oil.

This mixture should be brushed or swabbed on the face of the animal daily.

Farmers should start treatment as soon as the flies begin to appear.

Farmers must be careful in using any of these mixtures. Make sure that the label is read before using the product.

Care must be taken to see that milk does not come in contact with any chemicals which might contaminate it.

Too Much Pressure To Win?

Is pressure to win on the part of parents endangering the character-building values of Little League baseball, a sport in which one million boys begin playing this June in 5400 Little Leagues around the world?

Donald R. McNeil, a Little League coach in Arizona, believes too many parents superimpose their own standards on a sport designed for children 8 to 12 years of age and that by "constant, nagging criticism," parents pass along their own insecurities to their sons.

McNeil speaks his mind in an article, "Little Leagues Aren't Big Leagues," appearing in the June issue of Reader's Digest and Parents' Magazine.

"Little League baseball is a splendid opportunity to teach boys the basic facts of sports and sportmanship," he writes.

"But all too many parents spoil the opportunity by putting unnecessary pressures on their youngsters, especially the pressure to win . . . in front of teammates, managers, coaches and other parents, fathers and mothers abuse their boys for not fielding like Red Schoendienst, hitting like Mickey Mantle or pitching like Vernon Law . . .

"Umpire-baiting by parents creates an unwholesome attitude toward authority . . . The father who teaches by his example that rules are made to be broken is training his boy later in life to crib on school examinations, run through stop signs and cheat on his income tax."

Mr. McNeil lives in Mesa, Ariz. 16 miles southeast of Phoenix.

Pest Control for Fruit Trees

A 1961 revision of the home orchard bulletin "Pest Control Program for Home Grown Fruit" gives schedule for a new program for home orchards.

Its outstanding features are more economical than ready mixed combinations (this is a home mix combination) and it is used on a 12-14 day span starting June 10 until harvest.

Call Extension Office if you want a copy of this new revision or write Cooperative Extension Service, Court House, Adrian.

Mrs. Vern Manwaring was the chairman of the nominating committee.

St. Peter's Church Building Program Is Meeting Topic

Parish members of St. Peter's Episcopal Church will hold one of the most important meetings since the church was founded here in 1833.

Members of the church will be asked to approve a building program of upwards of $80,000, and possibly $100,000 if a new rectory is included.

The meeting will take place in the parish hall at 8 p.m. next Monday evening.

Lawrence Blum and Charles Newell, senior and junior wardens respectively, will conduct the session.

Three other preliminary meetings were held early in May when the entire building program was discussed.

Church members were told then that the building was in such poor condition that it could be condemned.

Foundation repairs under the main church building have been made repeatedly in the past without permanently eliminating structural faults.

☆

ARCHITECTURAL plans already have been completed for restoring the church and an estimate of costs was given by Kreighoff Construction Co. in Adrian. Bids have not yet been asked.

The Rev. Frank Hawthorne, rector, says the parish will have to take some sort of action, either approve restoration and a financial drive of $80,000, request a new church which would be even costlier, or lose the church here and plan to hold services elsewhere.

If restoration is approved, the main problem will become raising the money from the 165-family parish.

Members will not be told their share, but their pledges will be sought if restoration plans are approved.

☆

THE CHURCH has been given the small triangle lot behind the rectory and some parish members have suggested a new home for the rector and his family on part of this lot.

The present home needs considerable repair and is over 80 years old.

Whether the parish wishes to include a new rectory in the building program may not be decided at Monday's meeting.

Mr. Hawthorne says a new rectory has not been included in the meeting's program and only the church building itself is planned for discussion.

If the old church is abandoned, it will mark the end of one of the two oldest Episcopal churches west of the Allegheny Mountains. Only other church which is older is located at Worthington, O.

The couple lives at 227 Herrick Park Dr.

Scavenger Hunt Friday Fun for 32

The youth fellowship of the Friend's Church enjoyed a scavenger hunt Friday evening.

The group returned to the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Brantingham for games. Biblical characters were pantomined. Devotions were led by the Rev. Mr. Brantingham.

Refreshments of hot dogs, potatoes chips, soft drinks and cupcakes were served by the hostess to 32 persons.

Safety at Play

Safety at play is one of the many things a young child has to learn as he climbs, jumps, balances himself, moves heavy objects, and judges the amount of space needed to turn a toy wagon

Betty Garlick, head of Spartan Nursery School at Michigan State University, says children must learn to use the various muscles in their bodies, and each child is different.

Some will climb better and more safely than others. If a child falls easily, perhaps his grip is not yet firmly developed.

Adults need to be alert to see what a child is capable of doing and to give guidance as needed. They need to show a child safe places to climb, help him see where it is safe to jump, and give positive suggestions when he is in dangerous situations.

It's better to say, "Take it easy" or "Move this foot," than to shout, "Look out!" or "You'll fall!"

Excited calls may frighten a child and hasten an accident. Positive suggestions give needed support and can guide a child safely in a way that will carry over to other situations.

Safety instructions in the use of toys and equipment should be matter-of-fact, positive, cheerful and functional. Minor accidents do happen during play, and Miss Garlick suggests these be turned into learning situations.

If all the time is spent in comforting the child, the only thing he will learn is to expect comfort when he is hurt.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Last Words of a Weekly Editor

Art Elliott was a weekly editor and publisher in Belding for many years.

His career was cut short by death last month.

An unfinished editorial was discovered in his typewriter, which he apparently had been working on shortly before being stricken.

It ran in the next issue of the Belding Banner-News and is now being reprinted around the state by fellow weeklies.

The piece was directed more at owners of community newspapers than Art's readers, but we thought you might wish to see Art's effort.

"Are weekly newspapers lacking the courage to stand up for what they know is right. To write about editors in the same profession takes courage, because they could brand you as a know it all. However, after seven years in the weekly newspaper field and about 30 years in the daily newspaper field, or in other words spending almost all our life in the newspaper business, we feel one should learn something about the business.

"We realize this is a rather strong statement because very few weekly newspapers in the state of Michigan write their editorials. Most of them have no editorials at all in their paper.

"If we do get at least one letter a week from someone that does not agree with an editorial we have written, we think we have not done our job for the week.

"We believe when readers buy a weekly newspaper (in many cases it is the only newspaper he reads) he has a right to expect more than a narration of news events. He has a right to expect more than a word puzzle and a rundown on a marriage of a local damsel. He has a right to expect hard hitting, pertinent editorials.

"The newspaper publisher or editor that does not provide the latter can never hope to be fulfilling his role as a communicator. Agreed that the primary function of this newspaper is to present news. But on an equal plane is the necessity for telling readers through an editorial."

ALBERT DEKKER

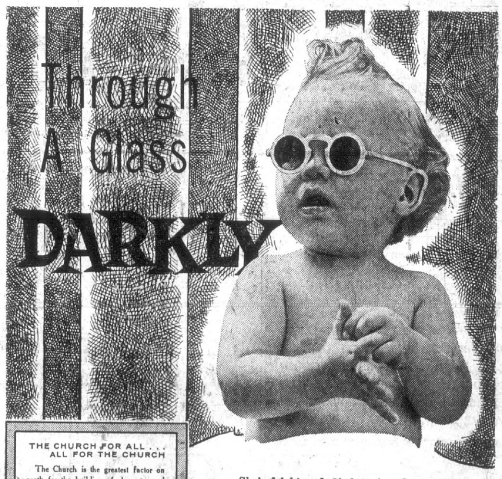
Albert Dekker Stars in Play

ANN ARBOR—Albert Dekker, distinguished stage and screen actor, is starring in the Ann Arbor Drama Season production of "A Touch of the Poet" by Eugene O'Neill for one week through Saturday night at the Lydia Mendelssohn Theatre.

"Poet" is the last full-length work by O'Neill, generally considered the greatest American playwright — the nation's only dramatist ever to receive the Nobel Prize for literature.

Performances will be given nightly at 8:30 p.m. with matinees Thursday and Saturday at 2:30 p.m. Tickets for all performances are available at the Lydia Mendelssohn box office.

FOR ALL WE HOLD SACRED . . . ATTEND CHURCH !



THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Tuesday	Matthew	19	13-22

She's frightened. She's seeing the world for the first time through dark glasses.

It's no wonder you and I are frightened. Ever since we were old enough to reason, we have been seeing the world through dark glasses. It's just as Paul said:

"Now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face."

We spend our years wondering why things happen as they do . . . why hatred flourishes and love withers . . . why sorrow seems inevitable and joy so rare. Apparently, we were not meant to understand . . . not here!

Some truths God has revealed to us; these our Churches teach. Other truths God will not reveal until another day; to prepare us for that day our Churches strive.

Until at length we gain that complete vision, we are happiest and strongest when we live faithfully in the truth already revealed. Even with dark glasses a man can see as long as he walks toward the Light.

100

100 years ago the average American could expect to live about 40 years. Today—about 70. Modern sanitation, diet, drugs and medical practice have added 30 years to our life span. And note that 70 is average. Many die sooner. Many live longer. You up your chances of being a "longer" if you eat properly and get proper medical care. This means periodic check-ups by your physician. As pharmacists we are pleased to help by supplying the drugs your doctor prescribes—drugs unknown a century ago. We're soconscious of the effectiveness of modern medicine that we're shooting for a life span of 100 years. How about you?

It's Fun Being Head Man

BRITTON — Mayor Charles Thompson of Davidson and his wife were Mayor's Day guests here last Monday.

They were greeted at the intersection of US-23 and M-50 by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown and escorted into town.

Councilman Brown chairman of the day's activities, introduced the guests to Fred Bryan a former village president, who presented Mayor Thompson with a key to the village.

The group then watched as the parade passed from the school through town and back to the school.

The Britton-Macon High School Band led the parade followed by Boy Scouts of Troop 23, the Camp Fire Girls, Cub Scouts and Blue Birds.

School was dismissed one hour early at noon for those who wished to participate in the parade and allow the rest to view the activities.

The guests then visited the Bryan home, where the ladies were presented corsages.

☆

THEN FOLLOWED a tour of the business establishments and the local police department, where Chief Becker explained the workings of the radio broadcasting system, which belongs to the village and Ridgeway Township.

The guests were impressed with the inter-com system which is one of the most modern in the state.

Eighteen enjoyed the ham luncheon at Pauline's Restaurant, including Alvin LaPoint, cousin of the visiting mayor.

Mr. Bryan presented the honored guests with a gift and gave a short speech in honor of their participating in the annual exchange day.

Forty citizens gathered and toured the Dundee Cement Plant.

Mayor Thompson, a retired superintendent of the Davidson High School seemed greatly impressed with the hospitality.

☆

VILLAGE President Wayne Dunbar and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Auten left Britton at 7 a.m. and were greeted at the intersection of US-16 and US-23 by Mayor Thompson.

During a "get acquainted" session in a restaurant near the intersection, Mayor Thompson presented a key to the City of Davidson to Mr. Dunbar.

L. Keeler and Mr. and Mrs. Smith accompanied the Davison Mayor to this point and returned with the visiting party to be met by members of Davison police department near the city of 2,000.

The Davison High School Band played several selections for the visitors.

Mayor Pro-Tem Pettengill, pastors, merchants and citizens of the community welcomed the party from Britton and presented the ladies with corsages.

☆

A SHORT visit through the city hall and the library and the party proceeded through the downtown area to Whitey's Restaurant where a luncheon was held.

Here several selections were presented by the school chorus.

A tour of the city was taken. At the high school, the visiting councilmen had a chat with L. D. Henckel, a former Britton School superintendent.

Polaroid pictures were taken at various points of interest during the day.

These are to be assembled into a scrapbook for Mr. Dunbar and will be sent to him as a memento of his visit to Davison.

School Board Seeking Additional Half Mill

BRITTON — The local school district will hold its annual election June 12.

The Board of Education passed a resolution to ask the voters to vote on the proposal to levy for operational purposes, 2½ mills for two years.

This proposal is a renewal of the two-mill levy that expired in 1960, and a one-half mill increase.

This half-mill is necessary for teacher salary increases voted by the board for the next school years, explains Supt. Russell Spalding.

"We have reduced the general budget in order to allow more money to be paid to the teachers. We feel it is wise to maintain our present teaching program."

"With increased cost the additional half mill will guarantee our present level of education in the Britton-Macon Area School," he stated.

Time for the vote will be 12 noon to 8 p.m. in the school library.

There will be election of two members to the Board for terms of four years. For these vacancies there are four candidates that have filed petitions.

The incumbents are Harold Rohrback and Leland Bush.

The other candidates are James Squires and Mrs. Dora Schober.

The Board named as the election committee, Doug Palmer, Ned Brown, Mike Papp, Elizabeth Cheever and Elmer Eberhardt.

Mrs. Herb Gilmore is alternate.

Pictures Of Russia Shown to 35

BRITTON—Mr. and Mrs. Norman Keller of Blissfield were guests of the Duets Class of the Congregational Christian Church May 24 in the Fellowship Center for potluck supper.

About 35 members and guests viewed colored slides, shown and narrated by Mr. Keller, of his trip last fall to Russia, Germany, Belgium, Poland and France.

After viewing the pictures taken in Russia, hearing about their way of life and listening to the informative talk given by Mr. Keller, the group was in agreement that the amount of taxes we pay to preserve the United States is indeed a privilege.

Mr. and Mrs. William Saxton were program chairmen and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rowlands served as hosts.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By LOUIE CIAVONE

The winner of the contest to name the new campus store has been announced.

Brother Edward Cole, CSC, drafting instructor and algebra teacher at Boysville, offered the name, "Campus PX," and the judges decided that that would be it, for ease in spelling and simplicity of name.

Annual Alumni-Senior Dinner was held in the Boysville Dining Hall on May 20.

The purpose of the dinner is to welcome officially the new graduating class into the ranks of the alumni and to invite them to be active members of the association.

Earl Temerowski, '54, was toastmaster. Thomas Phillips, '52, president of the Association, spoke, and presented the Alumni trophy for the Athlete of the Year to John McGeshick, a senior star in football, basketball, and baseball.

Brother Gregoire, CSC, moderator of the Alumni Association, and Brother John Lavelle, CSC, director of Boysville, also spoke at the banquet.

The Boysville Marching Band invaded the streets of Tecumseh on May 23 to participate in Tecumseh's annual "Safety Week" parade.

The weather turned out to be perfect for the spectators, but a little warm for the marchers.

The bandmen enjoyed being in the parade, and hopes to march again next year.

The Boysville Band put on its final performance of the year when it marched in Royal Oak on Memorial Day, May 30.

All told, the band marched in five parades and participated in five major concerts. Next year the band expects to have another busy season.

Now that the end of the year is closing in, the individual classes are off on their class outings.

The juniors began by going to a dinner and movie in Ann Arbor on Monday, May 22. Next, the Seniors went home for their annual Senior Weekend and Prom on Friday, May 26.

Then on Sunday, May 28, the Sophomores went to Camp Dearborn and the Freshmen went to Wamplers Lake.

All classes had a wonderful time.

The Senior Prom was held in the nights of Columbus 305 Council Hall in Detroit on Saturday, May 27. The prom was limited to Boysville's seniors and juniors and their dates.

The music for the formal dance was supplied by Eddie Casper and his band.

The Boysville seniors are looking forward to June 4, as it is commencement day at Boysville.

Graduation exercises are to be held in the gymnasium at 3. Earlier in the day, at an Honors Assembly, track and baseball letters will be given to participating members.

Also to be awarded are band and glee club emblems to those who have participated in these activities for two or more years.

The Boysville baseball team lost its last game of the season to the overpowering hitting of Monroe Catholic Central, 10-8.

Richard Haynen, Boysville track coach, has led the Knights to another victorious season. This is the track Knight's second season in the River Raisin Conference, and they have won the championship each year.

In the conference meet on May 17, the Knights set six new meet records. Pat Collins ran the 440 in 55.2; Jim Palko took the 100-yard dash in 10.8 and the 220 dash in 24.3½; Al Andreini ran the low hurdles in 21.9½; Tony Farr ran the mile in 4:55.8; and our 880 relay team, composed of Pat Collins, Al Andreini, Bill Gager, and Jim Palko, set a record in 1:38.7.

The mile relay team set a new school record of 3:51. The Knights also took first in the shot put.

Next year the Knights will again be defending their league title.

Final exams for the seniors will be held on June 1 and 2, and for the remainder of the students on June 6 and 7. Then on June 8, the long-awaited summer vacation will begin for the Boysville students.

JC Carnival Opens June 13

Tecumseh Jaycees have turned over a new leaf.

Dick Whelan reports that this year's carnival will be much superior to the one the group brought to Tecumseh last summer.

The event is slated June 13 through 18 on the grounds next to Meyer's Aircraft.

On the last day, a Sunday, there will be a giant charcoal broiled chicken dinner, served from 1 p.m. until at least 500 are fed.

A daily feature will be a climb up a pole to retrieve a $5 bill One slight hitch will be that the pole will be well-greased.

Kids day will be Saturday, June 17, with reduced prices and the give-away of two bicycles. Each ride they take will entitle them to a chance on the bikes.

A display of fireworks will be held the night of June 17.

There will be twice as many rides and concessions as last summer, Mr. Whelan promises.

A go-kart track is going to be set up with young folks given an opportunity to take a spin around the cinders.

They Love 'Bee Gee'

(Editor's note: This is the first in a series of articles, "Where Tecumseh Youths Go To College.")

BOWLING GREEN, O.—Study, sports and bridge occupy most of the time of two 1958 graduates of Tecumseh High School who are junior class students at Bowling Green State University.

Martha Owen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Owen, 711 Outer Dr., and Jane Colgrove, daughter of Mrs. Jean Colgrove, 716 W. Pottawatamie St. estimate that they spend about 10 hours a day attending class and studying.

Jane is a physical education major who is planning on a public school teaching career. Martha, majoring in accounting, plans to become a Certified Public Accountant.

The girls said that they have an average of four to six hours of free time every day. Both girls are avid bridge players, and both participate in intramural sports, such as bowling and volleyball.

Both are delegates to the Women's Intramural Association Legislative Board, which disseminates information on sports, organizes teams and suggests improvements.

Since their average day runs from early morning to quite late at night, this leaves Jane and Martha about three hours a day for such necessary chores as tidying up their rooms, doing laundry, etc. Also, both girls are on the dishwashing detail at their sorority houses.

After graduating from high school, where both were members of the Girls Athletic Association, they chose Bowling Green State University because of the fine reputation of the Physical Education department.

At that time, both planned to major in Physical Education. Although Martha later changed to accounting, she relates that she was sold on the University and stayed.

Jane and Martha have consistently maintained average to above average grades in their courses. Jane has enjoyed most of all courses in methods of teaching elementary and high school physical education.

She states that she is looking forward to student teaching in the Bowling Green schools next year.

Martha is one of four junior girls at BGSU who is majoring in accounting. According to Prof. W. F. Schmeltz, Dean of the College of Business Administration, many freshmen girls indicate accounting as their major.

But the course is hard, and many of the girls switch to easier fields before graduation. Martha's favorite course has been statistics, one which girls generally steer clear of in droves. She has also enjoyed her accounting and economics courses.

Jane and Martha both feel that sorority membership has enhanced their college years. Jane is a member of Phi Mu and Martha is a member of Chi Omega.

They feel they have made closer friends—friends who will remain close for life. They also like living in a smaller, more integrated unit such as the sorority house.

After keeping up with the pace at school, both relates that they look forward to vacation time for a break in the routine. Of prime importance at home is sleep. Still, they don't leave all academia behind. As Jane says, "This is a good time to catch up on studying and term papers".

Young Campers Share in Work

Plans to bring a happy and worthwhile camping experience to all the girls who participate in the program at Girl Scout Camp O'the Hills, are the endeavors of Mrs. Wayne Balliet, camp director and her staff.

Karen Creger, Ann Drake and Cora Murphy have registered to go to camp and will stay in Shadow Valley.

Renee Albaugh and Barbara Powell will be housed in Chici Hollow.

These girls will be at Camp O' The Hills from June 2 to July 1.

The Gypsy unit, which houses twenty four campers and a staff of four, is the youngest group of campers. This group learn simple campcrafts, take short hikes and enjoy two one-half hour swimming periods a day.

However these campers are not considered the "babies" of the camp for they share in kapers (the chores) in their unit, setting their own tables in the large dining hall called Hill House, doing their own dishes, and taking their place on the Camp Council, which meets to decide on all camp programs.

☆

IN CHICI Hollow campers who are going into the fifth grade in the fall join a lively program of cook-outs, nature hikes, swimming and boating.

Here the 24 campers can work on Girl Scout out-door requirements for badges, besides sharing in the kapers and having a voice in the camp council.

Sherwood Forest, Chici Ridge and Viking units are open to campers who will be in the sixth through seventh grade in the fall.

The progression in camping in their program developes advance camp skills, swimming, boating and an introduction to canoeing along with overnights and cookouts.

A stress in the program is the completion of the outdoor badge work and first class requirement.

The new unit, added to the camp setting last year, has been named Shadow Valley. Here all 20 girls from the eighth grade up through high school age, explore the aspects of primitive camping, enlarge their knowledge of living in the out-of-doors, and for these girls attending the two weeks periods there will be a two day canoe trip.

A second year counselor-in-training program for eight girls and a first-year training for new CIT's will be under the capable guidance of the Camps own "Bobber", Mrs. Jacobs Hugel.

Mrs. Hugel, herself a former CIT at Camp O'the Hills, plans to instill in each counselor the importance of her job and the joys of teaching others the values of camping. In her hands are the futures of prospective camp counselors.

The camp is open to both scouts and there are some dates available in all units. Anyone wishing to go to camp may send for reservations.

Information is available at the Irish Hills Girl Scout Council Office, 100 E. Washington Jackson, Mich. or from the neighborhood chairman, Mrs. Donald Creger.

A father-daughter breakfast for all registered Brownies and Girl Scouts will be held at Hill House at Camp O' The Hills from 8 a.m. until noon on June 18.

This event affords an opportunity for girls and their dads to explore and take a tour of the facilities.

Tour School

Twelve members of Girl Scout Troop 102 visited the Girl's Training School in Adrian Tuesday.

They toured the cottages, the bakery, school, swimming pool, greenhouse and the chapel.

Punch, cookies, nuts and mints were served for refreshments.

Mrs. Anna Grigg, Mrs. Robert Anderson and Mrs. Mahlon Lord accompanied them.

Bandsmen Get Awards

By DOROTHY GRIGG

The warmth that good food, good fellowship and a good toastmaster can provide pervaded the high school cafeteria Friday evening at the second annual Band Boosters banquet.

Nearly 200 parents, students and teachers had the opportunity to see the smiling face of Duncan Leetka as he provided many a laugh while introducing the program participants.

On the football field, it is more often the rear view that Tecumseh residents have of the able coach.

The Rev. Blair Bashore pronounced the invocation preceding the excellent dinner served by the Tecumseh Grange.

Following the awards and presentations, the Lennon Bodine family of eight children, mother and father, entertained beautifully with musical selections and dancing.

The Bodine family of Dundee have won three awards on the Twin Pine Dairy television show. They appeared on Channel 4 Saturday.

Mrs. Donald Beevers, president of the Boosters, expressed gratitude to the members especially Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Oyer, general charimen; Dr. and Mrs. Blanden, decorating committee, the Grange and Mrs. Charles O'Neill.

Others assisting were Mrs. Clarence Damon, Mrs. James Barton and Mrs. Clifford Deaner.

She also introduced her officers and presented them with gifts for their work during the year.

Mrs. James Barton read a poetic tribute to the band director, Don Johnson, and his wife and Mrs. Beevers presented them with a gift and basket of flowers.

Mrs. Oyer read another original poem to Miles Cowdrey and his wife and Mrs. Beevers presented them with a gift and floral basket.

Ron Lemerand, president of the band, spoke and presented gift certificates to Mr. Johnson and Mr. Cowdrey.

Mr. Johnson introduced the band officers and Dorinda Winters, whom he called a true champion. He also introduced members of the all county band.

Mr. Cowdrey spoke expressing his gratitude.

James McDowell expressed gratitude to the Boosters for their fine work during the year.

16 Win Curved Bar

Tecumseh was well represented at the annual Girl Scout Council board meeting held at Jonesville High School May 11.

Sixteen of the 26 Girls from the three counties, Lenawee, Hillsdale and Jackson, to receive the curved bar, were from Tecumseh.

This is the first time that the award, the highest in Girl Scouting has been presented from the Council.

Those to attain this rank were from the Troops led by Mrs. Merrill Murphy and Mrs. Don Creger. They are:

Troop 123 — Kay Southwell, Cora Murphy, Linda Sinkey, Shirley Fielder, Pamela Dabe, Karen Miller, Bryn Packard and Cathy Mitchell.

Troop 123 — Charlotte Elliott, Sue Ellen Rutherford, Linda Spooner, Edith Holmes, Karen Creger, Carolyn Purple, Diann Hoch and Anne Drake.

Mrs. Gordon Goldsberry, Mrs. Julius Vincze and Mrs. Creger were delegates to the session.

Many Tecumseh mothers, as well as the leaders and drivers, were present for the ceremonies following the regular potluck dinner.

WINS AWARD — Anne Drake is presented the coveted curved bar, highest rank in Girl Scouting, by Mrs. Maude Herman at a dinner in Jonesville honoring 26 girls from three counties. Sixteen of them were Tecumseh girls of Troops 123 and 117, led by Mrs. Merrill Murphy and Mrs. Don Creger. These Scouts are entering senior scouting. Mrs. Herman is Lenawee County district advisor of Jackson staff of the Irish Hills Girl Scout Council.

Army Offers Opportunities

Sgt. Charles Anderson, local Army recruiter, suggests that seniors, who are not going to college, explore the wide variety of GI opportunities for high school graduates.

He cautions that, since the number who may be assigned to army schools, technical courses and specific job training is limited, it is advisable to make your future plans while still in school, so that you will be able to enter the field of your choice upon graduation.

Sgt. Anderson will furnish more information and literature without obligation in the Tecumseh police station each Tuesday from 8:30 until 11 a.m. or call Monroe, CHerry 1-6666 collect.

CROP Men — Canned Beef to Corn Oil

Foods shipped by CROP during the month of April 1961 included chopped canned beef to Italy, corn oil to Jordan and East Pakistan, beans to Haiti and the Congo, and a poultry incubator to Jordan.

The meat will be used in hospitals and orphanages. The beans to the Congo are for use in feeding displaced Baluba tribe families, while corn oil is used largely in institutional feeding, according to Russell Hartzler, Michigan CROP Director.

He also said that the incubator would be used to "expand a poultry project in Jordan. In this project, the sale of poultry and eggs by villagers (who receive the chicks from the church agency) is greatly increasing cash income, thus helping them to raise their own living standards."

In addition to donated foods, large quantities of food from U. S. Government "surplus" stocks are regularly being shipped to areas of need by voluntray agencies including CROP.

Foods presently available from our government are wheat, flour, corn meal, powered milk and cooking oils.

Tractors on Road Dangerous

Farm boys should not drive tractors on the highway until they have licenses to drive cars, believes an agricultural safety engineer at Michigan State University.

Richard Pfister says tractors on the highway are really more dangerous and harder to drive than cars. Youngsters can steer, but many lack needed mature judgment.

"Twenty-eight of the state's 72 tractor highway fatalities since 1955 have involved children under 14," Pfister points out. "That's a big toll considering that these children spend two-thirds of the year in school."

By comparison, only eight men between 30 and 44 suffered similar mishaps. These men do a good share of the tractor work.

2,100 Man-Hours of Labor

In any stage production, those in the cast tend to receive most of the credit when the show is a success.

"Behind-the-scene" individuals are often ignored.

However, without their consistent willingness and patience, the production would not have been possible.

Those among the 950 who saw "Golden Fleecing" marvelled at the beautiful scenery, which was under the direction of Richard Kureth, who carved all three-dimensional art work from styrofoam.

Mr. Kureth played a lead role, too.

Also contributing to the success of the setting was a painting of "Leda and the Swan" by Russell Steinke.

The unusual lighting was designed by David Burr of the University of Michigan, and the play even had its own original music, which was composed by Paul Miller and played by the woodwind section of the Milford High School Band.

The difficult task of tracking down all of the properties lay on the steady shoulders of Mrs. Vic Lawson, who also supervised the use of the hand and set properties.

The programs were donated by the Porter Printing Co.

Without the help of interested merchants, this play certainly would not have been possible, and Easton's Friendly Service is to be thanked for help in delivering lighting and props to and from Detroit.

Boardhead Naval Armory loaned the group a Navy signal light and uniforms, while the U. of M. loaned a sofa and chair, which were reupholstered and painted by Jean Coak.

Greenwald's Laundry provided laundering of uniforms without charge and Mrs. Al Snyder tracked down costumes for all the men in the cast.

Special praise goes to director Albert Katz, a graduate student at the U. of M.

He was most ably assisted by Mrs. Gloria Jadwin and Patricia Muller, a senior at Tecumseh High School.

A total of 1,500 man-hours of rehearsal was necessary for the production while 600 man-hours were spent working on set construction.

The group had production costs of $800, with ticket sales at $731, leaving a deficit of $149.

In the future it is thought that tickets would have to be sold at $1.50 per person and no more matinees.

Derby Proves Exciting

Excitment reigned over the Union Hall May 17 as the meeting of Cub Scout Pack 73 was opened with the presentation of the flags.

Following the solemn Pledge of Allegiance, the pinewood race cars showing hours of labor by father and son, were inspected by city police officers Eugene Skinner and Mahlon Sebring and Wayne Carpenter.

An award for the best design was presented to Bradley Brees.

Since the cars must not exceed five ounces a "weighing in" was conducted by an official inspection committee.

Den members competed against each other with ElRay Finnegan as starter and Officer Skinner flashing the light for the deciding finish.

☆

TENSION MOUNTED as the parents pressed forward during the elimination races.

At last the final heat of winners was run. The sportsmanship of the Cubs, who had lost the first race was wonderful as they cheered their fellow Scouts to victory.

Final winners were:
First—Stephan Cook
Second—Greg Sebring
Third—Michael Lambes

The authenic pinewood derby track used for the races was donated by Pack 59 of Adrian led by Cubmaster Bernard Wheelock.

Two dens followed the theme of the month, "Indians." Mrs. Roland Boyers and Mrs. Charels Osburn's Den 3 wearing loin clothes and head bands which they had designed and made, presented an Indian dance midway through the meeting.

Mrs. Kennard Wise's Den 16 proudly wore Apache head dresses which they had made.

Haste Can Make Waste in Planting

Corn planting is under way in Lenawee. What are some of the factors affecting seed spacing and seed requirements?

John Comstock and James Sprague point out two main factors: Plant population and planting speed.

A recent report from Michigan State University Crops Department by S. C. Hildebrand and Milt Erdmann indicate for most corn planters when aiming at a population of 16,000 plants per acre, a speed of 3 to 3½ miles per hour is optimum.

Studies have shown that when the aim is 16,00 plants, each one mile per hour speed over 3 miles per hour will result in a reduction of 900 to 1,000 plants per acre.

At high planting speeds, uniform spacing of kernels is reduced. New design of equipment will change these relationships.

Mr. Sprague cautions farmers about planting too fast. He points out the old, trite expression, "haste makes waste".

QUESTIONS ABOUT SPARROWS

We hardly need spend much time on the English Sparrows. They are noisy, quarrelsome nuisances and yet, in all fairness, I must admit that were they not around, many times our window pictures would be quiet and deserted.

There are dozens and dozens of different sparrows, however, and this spring it has been our good fortune to have several of them stop for a visit.

The white-throated sparrows and the white-crowned sparrows were the first to arrive.

No sooner had I said in an earlier article that I had trouble telling them apart, than two came and stood "side by each" showing me how different they really are.

The stripes on the white-crown's head are wider and more distinct and his breast is a soft smoky gray; the white-throat has a small white patch under his bill, but it is certainly not as big as his name makes one believe, and altho' most pictures show small yellow spots between his eyes and bill we have never had a good enough look to see them.

Our little flock of white-throats and white-crowns have moved on now—wonder if I will have trouble telling them apart next year?

☆

THIS IS the first year we have had a chipping sparrow; I suppose I should say this is the first I have seen one.

I just happened to look out the window one day and there hopping at the edge of the creek-bank and looking exactly like his pictures, was Chippy.

Rufous cap, white stripe above his eye and black stripe thru his eye, he was a real cutie. We held our breath and hoped but he was not interested in the feeder and so we could get no pictures.

Much more co-operative are the song-sparrows. A pair of them come regularly to dine and have their pictures taken.

When the camera is turned on they come one at a time but as soon as it is turned off they come together.

One of these days they will make a mistake and won't we be happy to have a picture of two song-sparrows!

☆

THE SONGSTERS are great favorites of ours; they are round, much like the chick-a-dees, and always look as if they could be cupped in one's hand. Heavily striped little birds, they are most attractive.

Several weeks ago a bird, obviously some kind of a sparrow, appeared and oh, the trouble we had trying to identify it.

All the bird books were studied, we finally decided it was a fox sparrow. Larger than most sparrows and much more aggressive, he backed down to no-one.

Quite red-dish in color, his back and head were marked with narrow stripes and his light, almost white, breast was spotted and streaked with dark reddish brown.

He scratched much as the song-sparrows do; both feet work together. It was amazing the commotion he caused, scratch-feed and corn would be sent flying all over.

He was not the least bit afraid of the flash—hope the pictures of him turn out, it is always so nice to add a newcomer.

So it is that this year the bird books have really had a work-out. We have had lots of fun with and lots of questions about sparrows.

DAUGHTER AND MOTHER GRADUATES — ELAINE AND LILAH CADMUS

38-Year Dream

By FREIDA ROWLANDS

BRITTON—Elaine Cadmus was one of the 33 graduates to receive diplomas last week from Britton-Macon High School.

Her mother, Lilah Frayer Cadmus, will receive her bachelor of science degree from Eastern Michigan University Saturday.

Mrs. Cadmus graduated from Britton High School with the Class of 1923. She entered Michigan State Normal College that fall.

After one year, she began teaching in the rural schools in the county.

In 1927, she married Percy A. Cadmus of Tecumseh and the teaching career stopped.

Although busy as a housewife, active in school, church and Grange functions, Mrs. Cadmus always had a burning desire to get a bachelor's degree and return to teaching.

She said that when the school bell rang in the fall, it made her want to be in the class room once more.

"You see," she says, "Teaching is like horse racing, if it gets in your blood there's not much you can do about it."

A professor once told her a teacher was born, not made.

Thirty-eight years and seven children later, Mrs. Cadmus returned to her career and at the same time began taking classes at Eastern.

After five years she has realized her dream, a bachelor's degree.

She has taught the past four years in the Milan schools. Last Wednesday evening Elaine and her mother entertained for the happy occasion at an open house.

Other children of this smiling mother and teacher are Richard of Clinton, Mrs. Donald Mueller of Macon, Mrs. Jack Patterson and John of Adrian and Russell and Tom at home.

TOM RORDAN'S

Long AND Short

R. H. Moore is getting ready for another long trip in his 16-foot outboard craft.

This time it's going to be 1,500 rugged miles down the Missouri River from Great Falls, Montana to Chicago.

Bob says he is looking for a fellow to go along on the two-week trip.

Qualifications: be a good cook and mechanic. ☆

It isn't often that I get the feeling that most daily newspaper editors have gone off their rockers—but I do these days.

Are you getting fatigued at seeing endless pictures and reading scads of stories on dear Jacqueline? Me, I'm sick to death

The president goes to Europe for some deadly-serious conferences with heads of foreign governments and all we get is what Jackie wore to the ball, who did her hair, if the seams of her hose were straight.

Yes, the heat seems to have staggered big brothers editorial judgment.

People who dare are fools, my daughter tells me, but at the risk of being same I dare the dailies to run one complete edition with neither a photo of Mrs. Kennedy or a story about her dazzling beauty. ☆

Hugh Walter of Tecumseh Products dropped an advertising piece on my desk the other day.

It carried a raft of famous trade-marks from the field of small power equipments — all of which are powered by Tecumseh engines.

Among others, there is Toro, Sunbeam, Eska, Miami, Yard-Man, Homelite, Excello, Savage, Parker, Roto-Hoe.

The piece points out that 4,250,000 Tecumseh engines are now in the field. ☆

Readers were promised last week that there would be a complete report of the Memorial Day parade in pictures

City May Get New Precinct

By JIM LINCOLN

Authorization to investigate possibility of adding another precinct in Tecumseh was approved by Council Monday night.

Del King, local Republican chairman, told the officials that law limited precincts to 1,400 registered voters and Tecumseh's southwest precinct already was over 1,300.

Councilmen Royal Welch, Terry Mackin and Robert Bonner were appointed to study the situation.

Tecumseh has three precincts now. Another precinct would incur purchasing another voting machine, registration books and expenses amounting to about $1,900. ☆

IN OTHER Council action:

► Mayor Harold Easton was appointed to the Board of Supervisors, succeeding the late Leroy Titley.

► Neil Depuy was appointed to replace Mr. Titley on the Cemetery Board.

► Referred Claire Beland residential plat to the Planning Commission.

St. Peter's Recital Is Thursday

The Parish Hall at St. Peter's Church is a hub of activity, as the ladies of the parish prepare for the organ recital and tea to be presented Thursday, June 8, at 2 p.m.

Jack Tonneberger, who will present the recital, has prepared a program of music to delight the listener.

He will accompany his recital with comments about the music he is playing to give the audience fuller appreciation of it.

Of particular interest to the people in this area should be one number Mr. Tonneberger is presenting entitled "Chinese Boy and Bamboo Flute."

This composition is harmonized and arranged for the organ by Dr. James H. Spencer of Adrian College.

The tune was taken down from the playing of a Chinese boy on a native flute and Dr. Spencer has employed many interesting sounds from the organ to produce a realistic effect.

Tea, cookies, and sandwiches will be served immediately after the recital in the Parish Hall.

Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Episcopal Church Women's organization, of St. Peter's, or at the door the day of the recital.

Kiwanians Celebrate 5th Birthday

The Tecumseh Kiwanis Club will celebrate its fifth anniversary Thursday evening, with a dinner program at the Tecumseh Country Club.

Harold Webster, lieutenant governor of Michigan Kiwanis, will review the accomplishments of the club over the past years and suggest goals for the future.

Awards will be presented for perfect attendance and to the Outstanding Kiwanian of the Year.

This latter award, being presented for the first time within the local club, is to be given to that member who has made the greatest overall contribution to the activities and purposes of Kiwanis in Tecumseh.

The program will climax as Joe Rice narrates slides of his recent travels to the near east.

7 Circulate Petitions

Seven petitions are currently being circulated by possible candidates for the Tecumseh Board of Education vote on July 10.

One person will be elected for a four-year term.

As of Tuesday, one petition has been officially filed, that of Bill Wright, local pharmacist.

Voting will take place in the high school cafeteria and will be by machine.

The term of Dr. Ralph Helzerman expires next month and he announced that he will not seek re-election.

Feminine Softball Teams Form

An organizational meeting for girls ages 12 and 14, who are interested in playing softball, will be held Tuesday, June 19, at 1:30 p.m. on the softball diamond.

Carol Kapnick says that girls that want to play this summer must attend this meeting or contact her, phone HA 3-2967.

They should bring gloves with them.

Senior girl's tryouts will be held Friday, June 16, at 3 p.m. This is for girl's 15 to 18 years old.

"It is adviseable," said Miss Kapnick, "that girls who tryout for the senior team have some experience in playing against other teams or in league play."

$80,000 St. Peter's Project OKed

An $80,000 renovation and building program for St. Peter's Church was approved Monday evening by parish members.

The project includes:

► Complete new foundation and basement beneath church proper.

► Complete new floor.

► Repair of rafters and roof supporting beams.

► New floor inside the nave.

► Pews rebuilt.

► Restoring original-type windows as used in church when it was built in 1833.

► Replacement of present sanctuary, which was built in 1868. It will be deeper and wider.

► Install an old style Angelican "three-decker" pulpit, part of which will be made from what is believed to be the front of the original pulpit of the Church, discovered some years ago in the basement.

Steps No. 1 and No. 2 are the most vital to the program, explains the Rev. Frank Hawthorne, rector.

The Church will be jacked up off its present foundation, and suspended in air as the new one is built.

"Our 128-year-old building foundation is literally crumbling away," explains the Rev. Mr. Hawthorne. "The report from the engineering firm which checked the building showed there is a serious question as to how long the foundation will last."

St. Peter's was the first church built in this community and is the oldest standing Episcopal Church in Michigan.

It was constructed with donations from persons all over the nation, including President Andrew Jackson and Daniel Webster.

The original structure costs about $4,000, with half of the funds raised locally and the balance in the east.

A letter from Episcopal Bishop Richard S. Emrich was read at the meeting in which he urged parishioners to undertake the building project.

A financial drive within the membership of the parish will be started in the fall, explains Mr. Hawthorne.

Lawrence Blum and Charles Newell, Senior Wardens, are parish laymen in charge of the project.

25 Grads Honored at Mass

Twenty-five were graduated from St. Elizabeth's eighth grade Sunday.

The 10 o'clock Mass honored the graduates, who included:

Rose Short, Mary Tressler, Delfina Villanueva, Ida Villanueva, Jeanne Warner, Susan Willis and Kathleen Wykes.

Edward O'Neill, Joseph Peters, Cynthia Roll, Robert Rowe, Arnaldo Sanchez and Evelyn Serrano.

The class was feted with a dance Friday evening by the seventh graders.

A feature of the affair was the crowning of a queen and king, the honors going to Susan Willis and Michael Buku.

GET HOGS TO MARKET WEIGHTS FASTER this summer. Provide them with plenty of shade. Cool hogs not only gain quicker but do it with less feed. Hogs at temperatures around 65 degrees can put on a pound of gain with ½ to ⅓ as much feed as when temperatures rise to near 90 degrees. Market hogs weighing around 200 pounds should have access to 6 square feet of shade to assure free circulation of air and provide maximum cooling.

THERE'S A PLACE FOR GREEN CHOP on many farms. For some, it is completely replacing pasture. On others, it is used to supplement pasture when production slumps. Generally, green chop is most practical for farms having 40 dairy cows or more — in smaller herds the extra labor and equipment costs often exceed the added returns.

MAINTAINING EGG QUALITY becomes a bigger job during hot weather. The sooner you get the egg in the cooler after it has been laid, the better. This means you will want to gather eggs more often than is necessary in the winter. Here's a guide you might use in deciding on a schedule for gathering eggs. Generally about 8 out of 10 hens lay before noon — and about half of those 8 lay before 8:00 a.m.

WHERE'S THE POWER SOURCE OF YOUR WATER PUMP? Most agricultural engineers will agree that the best source is from a pole located a reasonable distance from your farm buildings. Then in the case of fire you don't run the risk of power failure to your pump — you're assured of having water.

VOICE of THE HERALD

City Needs Public Address System

One thing marred an otherwise perfect Memorial Day parade and service at Brookside Cemetery.

There was no public address system for speakers at the cemetery. As a result, few among the 400 folks on hand heard anything except selections by the band and the firing squad.

We think that the city or Chamber of Commerce should buy a public address system to have for this annual event and other occasions when one is needed.

The PA could be rented out, too, thus helping defray the initial expense.

We hate to say it, but a marvelous climax to the carefully-planned Memorial Day event was sadly stifled by the lack of a public address.

Judy Seidel Married Doug McDowell

Judy Saundra Seidel became the bride of Douglas McDowell June 3 in a candlelight service at the First Presbyterian Church.

The chancel was banked with palms and six cathedral candelabra. Large spiral candelabra on either side of the prie dieu were faced with arrangements of white chrysanthemums and pompoms.

The same flowers filled the altar vases and enhanced the tall single candelabra used to light the center aisle.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Seidel of 316 N. Union St. and the groom is the son of James McDowell, 3 Evans Creek Dr., and the late Mrs. McDowell.

The Rev. David Van Winkle of Ann Arbor performed the ceremony, Mrs. Al Merz was the soloist.

Mrs. Bertram Updike presided at the organ.

☆

THE BRIDE in a princess-type gown of bouquet taffeta, floor length, approached the altar on the arm of her father.

Hand clipped Alencon lace trimmed the rounded neckline and bracelet sleeves of her wedding dress and also trailed the length of the skirt, which was draped with a bow and cascade of taffeta.

A large butterfly bow topped the unpressed back fullness that fell into a full chapel train.

A pearl trimmed matching lace crown held the silk illusion veil in place.

She carried a dainty cascade of lilies of the valley, centered with Phalaenopsis orchids and edged with strands of ivy.

She also wore a pearl necklace and earrings which were the gift of the groom.

☆

LINDA HANNA was her cousin's maid-of-honor and Mrs. David Ousterhout and Mrs. Walter Curry were the bridesmaids.

Robin and Susan Lucas, cousins of the bride, in short blue nylon dresses with white pinafores were the flower girls. Bobbie Ahleman of Blissfield was the ring bearer.

The 400 guests were seated by five ushers, David Lott, Bruce McDowell, Barry Seidel, David Ousterhout and James Colson.

The bride's attendants wore forget-me-not blue crystal silk sheath styled dresses with cap sleeves and rounded necklines, TANGERINE and white with strands if ivy were used in decorating the Country Club for the reception following the wedding.

Each of the assistants at the club wore corsages of carnations in the wedding colors.

MRS. DOUGLAS McDOWELL

Mr. and Mrs. John Rundell, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rhora, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hyatt and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Barrett poured beverages.

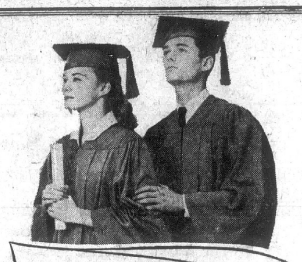
The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School 1956 and has been employed as a receptionist in Tecumseh for Radio Station WAJB and the World Travel Center.

The groom is a graduate of Tecumseh High School 1956 and tended the University of Michigan for one year and graduated from Weestern Michigan University with a BS degree before serving three years in the Coast Guard.

He is presently teaching at Addison High School.

Following a short wedding trip to northern Michigan, the couple will make their home for the summer at Indian River.

A rehearsal dinner for 25 was given by the groom's father Friday evening at the Tecumseh Country Club.



Congratulations Graduates!

Best wishes and good luck to the Classes of 1961 from Tecumseh High School and Britton-Macon High School

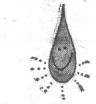
Why are some drugs like "ecstasy sauce?"



If you read "Li'l Abner" you may recall how the Gourmet's Club plotted to make "Ecstasy Sauce" from the Yokums' pet pig, Salomey. Recipe: Boil down one hammus alabamus (Salomey) until just one single, solitary delicious drop remains—and that is "Ecstasy Sauce." In terms of food, this is humorously ridiculous, but it's actually routine in the making of drugs. Often hundreds of pounds of raw materials must be processed and reprocessed to obtain one tiny pinch of the active medication. Which helps explain why modern drugs are so potent, and why we pharmacists dispense them only when your physician writes a prescription.

Prodigal Son Parable Is Pointed

The story of the Prodigal Son is certainly one of the most pointed of Jesus' parables.

It could be said that it is the gospel in miniature for all of the elements of gospel truth are illustrated.

Told with great power and pathos, yet with transparent simplicity, it convicts and gives hope, it condemns and saves.

This is the setting of the Rev. Allen Wittrup's sermon "The Road Back" Sunday, at 10 a.m. in the Tecumseh Methodist Church.

Also at this service 14 graduating seniors will be honored by the church and Temple Dependable Class.

The Detroit Annual Conference will be in session at Adrian from June 14 to 18.

The Rev. Mr. Allen Wittrup and Ronald Dillingham, lay delegate, will be attending.

Faith, Hope, Thanksgiving Put to Music

The Psalms of the Bible are the outgrowth of the religious life of the Jewish people of the pre-Christian era.

Words of faith, hope, and thanksgiving were put to music.

This Sunday's sermon at the Presbyterian Church will be concerned with the 122nd psalm.

Children's Day will be observed Sunday during the church school hour, 9:45 to 10:45 a.m., and also during the 11 worship service.

Parents are invited to attend class with their children in order to understand better the Christian education being received by their child.

During the worship service, members of the Junior High Department will assist in the service.

During the worship service, those graduating from high school will be recognized. A reception will follow.

Graduates To Be Honored

Graduation Sunday will be observed June 11 at St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Six seniors will be presented copies of The Book of Common Prayer at the 10 a.m. family service, which will be The Holy Communion observing St. Bartholomew's Day.

The prayer books are again given through a gift from one of the parish guilds, The Daughters of St. Peter's Church. Mrs. Louis S. Schneider is the president.

The graduates are Bradley Bruce, Jacqeline Dunn, Dennis Irelan, Ronald Lemerand, Carol Lowe and Isabel McCombs.

Fatigue

The mental nature of fatigue will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday in a Lesson-Sermon on the subject "God the Preserver of Man."

Friends Will Join Services

Church School and worship service will be united Sunday at Tecumseh Friends. The combined service will start at 10:30 a.m.

The children's program is in charge of Dick Butler and Marjorie Martin, senior and junior department superintendents.

Bibles will be presented to graduates Joyce Brugger, Russell Reive, Larry Brown, Duane Oliver, Marjorie Van Valkenburg, Karen Kelly, Larry Weaver and Ben Brantingham.

There will be no Sunday evening services at Tecumseh Friends because of the High School Baccalaureate service.

The Crusaders Class, taught by Mrs. John Kelly, sponsored a dinner for the high school graduates Saturday evening at the church. There were about 35 in attendance.

Dan Van Valkenburg was Master of Ceremonies and Arthur Collingsworth showed pictures of his trip to Brazil.

Plato (427-347 B.C.) said:

"IGNORANCE IS THE ROOT OF MISFORTUNE"

Your body is a machine with complicated parts. A physician has to devote years of study to learn how to keep it functioning properly. It is important that medicines be safely potent. That is why pharmacists are now required to attend college of pharmacy for five years, before being licensed to practice pharmacy.

To obtain medicines from people ignorant of this necessary knowledge can lead to misfortune. You are safer when you consult a physician for guidance and secure all medicines and health-aids from a pharmacy.

What's Going on at Boysville

By LOUIS CIAVONE

Seniors of Boysville graduated Sunday afternoon.

The ceremonies began with the Seniors' last visit to the chapel at 2:15. Following the visit Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given at 2:30.

At 2:45 the Senior Class presented and raised a new flag for the school.

Commencement exercises then began at 3 in the gymnasium with a welcome by salutatorian and class president Richard Michniak.

Nicholas Somma then gave his valedictory address.

The principal speaker of the affair was Emmett Judge, chairman of the Committee of 100, a group of Michigan businessmen interested in expanding the physical plant at Boysville.

Mr. Judge's talk was interspersed with recorded voices of men who have influenced the world's affairs for the past 18 years, the life time of the graduating seniors.

Louis Lehman, a graduating senior, received the Edward Cardinal Mooney Achievement Award, and Richard Michniak received the General Excellence Award.

After the 22 seniors had received their diplomas, Brother John Lavelle, CSC, Director of Boysville, gave a short congratulatory message.

A special arrangement of the Boysville Fight Song by the glee club and the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" on the organ concluded the ceremonies.

√

The intramural baseball season is over and the champs in both the A and B leagues have won their emblems.

The winner of the championship in the A league was Mike Maher's team, the Dudes.

The B league champions were the Brats, captained by your columnist.

√

Richard Heynen, Boysville teacher and coach, has accepted a position to teach in US Government Schools in Germany and Turkey for one year each.

He will leave on August 23 by plane from Grand Rapids to Charleston, West Virginia, to make connections for the Rhineland in Germany.

The reason for this trip is to better his knowledge of the European system of education, and to get a better understanding of the languages of the countries in which he will teach.

It is possible that Mr Heynen will visit Japan and surrounding countries. This writer would like to wish Mr. Heynen lots of luck overseas.

Britton Graduates Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Linn entertained about 90 friends and relatives in their home last Wednesday evening.

The occasion was in honor of their twin daughters, Janet and Jean, who graduated that evening from Britton-Macon High School.

The hosts were assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Lloyd Wagner and Cynthia Frayer to guests from Waterville, O., Adrian, Tecumseh, Deerfield, Blissfield and Britton.

Jean and Janet opened many lovely gifts and were pleasantly surprised about 11 p.m. with a phone call from their brother, Dick, who has spent the last several months in Largo, Fla.

√

Barbara Younglove was the honored guest at a graduation party given last Wednesday evening by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Younglove.

Barbara's sisters, Mrs. Tom Judkins and Mrs. Robert Rutherford of Manchester, assisted their mother in serving refreshments from a table centered with a red and white doll cake.

Many lovely gifts were opened from the 60 guests by the guest of honor.

√

In honor of her graduation last Wednesday, from high school, Gloria Hummel was honored at a reception given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hummel.

Mrs. Wava Knoblauch assisted her daughter in serving the 70 guests present from Evans Lake, Adrian, Blissfield, Petersburg and Britton.

Mosquito Season Arrives

LANSING—Are you supporting "be kind to mosquitoes" season in your neighborhood?

The Michigan Department of Health says you are if you and your neighbors are leaving water standing around the yard in various containers.

Most of the mosquitoes which give you a hard time in the summer and fall are born and raised right in your own neighborhood.

You can be a good neighbor and benefit yourself by eliminating water on your premises.

Without water, mosquito eggs will not hatch and grow into the pests that can limit your outdoor picnics and other activities in your outdoor living room.

Now is the time for early-stage control of mosquitoes. Here are some suggestions for helping eliminate the pests in your neighborhood:

► Eliminate all standing water by dumping, draining or filling.

► Cover sewage disposal structures and service them to avoid over-flows.

► Stock ornamental pools with fish.

► Drain clogged roof gutters and flat roofs.

► Stack pails, barrels, tubs, boats, and wheelbarrows upside down.

► Dispose of old tires to prevent their holding water.

►Bury, flatten or punch holes in all tin cans.

► Look for temporary woodland pools and swampy areas — if they cannot be drained or filled, use a 5% DDT emulsion or a wettable powder of 50% DDT—three tablespoons per gallon of water.

Once they have matured, mosquitoes leave the water and most of them rest during the day in such places as grass, shrubs or building foundations, waiting for a blood meal at night.

Sprays for 5% DDT at two to five gallons per acre will control them for about a week.

Repellents applied to exposed skin areas give users protection for about six hours.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

GROSBEAKS AND ORIOLES

At first glance I thought we had something that should have gone in last week's article. A bird lit on the rope for the awning and my goodness, but it looked like a large sparrow, a very large sparrow.

It was only about 5 feet away and so we had an excellent view. Back-brown and marked much as a sparrow; tail-slightly notched; breast-light and faintly streaked; head-ringed with light band above the eyes; bill-large and decidedly wide at the base.

I thought I knew and a quick check of the bird book—yes, our bird was a female rosebreasted grosbeak! How exciting, another first to add to the bird list.

For a number of years each spring we have been fortunate in seeing a rosebreasted grosbeak. The visit is usually a short one, and before, it has always been the handsome male who has called.

But from the beginning '61 has been unusual, as of Decoration Day we are still seeing the female grosbeak.

And we have seen him, too! It was a Thursday morning when that seventh sense prodded me and I looked out to see a gorgeous black and white bird with a rosy-red cravat sitting on the feeder.

Wow! Mr. Rosebreasted Grosbeak himself—I still get all excited just thinking about him. Imagine, right on the feeder!

☆

ALSO, MOST exciting this year have been the Baltimore Orioles. Two pairs are in the neighborhood, that is one more than we usually have.

For ten days or so they have been extremely busy and happy for me, all the activity is centered about the barberry bushes by our drive.

I don't know what they are finding but certainly something is very tasty, the birds are really giving the bushes a thorough working over.

The brightly colored males, of course, show up beautifully against the new green leaves, but the females we enjoy more when they hop to the top rail of the fence and sit for a few moment's rest out in the open.

As with the grosbeaks, the orioles show a great difference in the coloring between the sexes. I think, however, that Lady Baltimore Oriole fares better than her grosbeak counterpart who is really quite dull and drab.

Compared to her husband, who is always so resplendent in his sartorially perfect, jet black and vivid orange, she does not show off too well but when alone, she is quite lovely.

The brownish-yellow of her back and the yellowish-green of her breast have a sheen and gloss and when flying, her tail is a pretty flash of bright yellow.

☆

IN ADDITION to their appearance these birds are interesting because of their unique nests. Intricately woven baskets, which hang safe from any harm at the very end of a small branch, they are amazing structures.

In the March-April issue of Audubon Magazine there is a marvelous account of how Lady Oriole weaves and sews her nest.

From an upstairs window the author had a grandstand view — from the first fibers carried up for the nest through rearing the family she watches — wouldn't that be something?

We don't expect to see anything like that but I do hope our orioles nest someplace close, maybe they would bring the youngsters to the barberry bushes.

So it is that lately our days have been full of grosbeaks and orioles.

NEXT WEEK:
Mr. and Mrs. Bob White

Egg Producers Have To Watch Costs Closely

Michigan egg producers are going to have to watch their costs more closely this year than last, says Cooperative Extension Service poultrymen at Michigan State University, as reported by James I. Sprague, County Extension Agent, Agriculture, in Lenawee County.

The relatively good 1960 egg prices encouraged producers to expand their businesses. Resulting increase in egg numbers this year means an outlook for lower prices.

Along with producing more eggs, producers tend to relax their management practices and not watch their costs as closely as they should after a good year. Lower market prices and higher costs can mean trouble for the unwary producer.

Extension Agent, Sprague says, efficient production and good management however will pay off particularly if poultry prices are depressed.

Approved poultry practices are available free for the asking. Check with the Cooperative Extension Service Office in your county.

These include new high energy rations for laying flocks. Oats and cobs in the ration are now out of date.

TOM RIORDAN'S Long AND Short

Normally the warm months — did I say warm? man it's torrid —are thin on breaking news stories.

But it appears the reverse will be true in our community, as several big stories are in the wind.

All that can be said at the moment is that from each, Tecumseh should reap good-size benefits.

Keep watching The Herald.

☆

One item, quasi official, will concern the Tecumseh Community Health Survey.

The study, only one of its kind in the world, is making tremendous impressions on the medical profession, so much so that it will be carried on another seven years.

New additions are being made, including a gigantic dental research program.

One of the doctors involved is going to present a paper in Italy later this summer.

The Herald was commissioned to take a series of pictures showing the community — churches schools, industry, business sections. These will be made into slides and screened to help show Italian medical circles what we look like.

One of the shots taken Saturday under brilliant skies, looked so nice we decided to run it in this week's paper (on page six).

☆

Vic Lawson timed the opening of the city swim pool perfectly.

It was so hot over the weekend that the pavement was melting.

The cooling pool was inviting to hundreds of youths and a few oldsters.

☆

The city's drama group has reached its second birthday.

Big plans are being made for next year's Guild of Tecumseh Players activities.

Albert Katz, who did such a fine job in directing "The Golden Fleecing," will handle a show in the fall, probably a comedy.

One or two other productions will follow. Right now, members of the group are reading about 10 possibilities and will soon decide which ones they'll do.

So far, the Players' efforts (besides "Fleecing" there was "Charley's Aunt") have been heavy with male roles. The group is looking for plays which offer more feminine opportunities.

The Players have done phenomenally well so far and we hope they'll continue to grow and prosper.

It was only eight years ago that a group from the Jackson area got an idea for a summer theatre.

At first, the task was difficult, but gradually more and more folks joined up and audiences came to appreciate the productions they staged.

This summer, the Clark Lake Players have a "dream" operation with standing-room-only the order of the evening at nearly each performance.

It shouldn't be long for our own Players.

High School Alumni Will Be June 24

Do you ever wonder what your old high school friends are doing? Then come to the annual alumni banquet and spend the evening with them.

The event will be held June 24 at 7 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

The evening's program remains a "secret," but promises to be "surprisingly different."

Reservations must be made before June 17 and no one will be admitted without advanced payment.

Tickets are on sale at Wright's Drug Store, Gaston's Jewelry, or from Jerry Barton, 802 River Acres Dr. for $2.50.

Out-of-town reservations may be sent to Charles O'Neill, 1002 Sunset, Tecumseh.

Officers of the alumni association this year are: Donald Purkey, president; Jerry Barton, vice president; Charles O'Neill, treasurer; Mrs. Jerry Barton, recording secretary; Miss Judy Kempf, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Harold Easton, assistant corresponding secretary.

Rose Tea

The Tecumseh Garden Club has been invited to a rose tea in Adrian at the home of Mrs. E. C. DeMerritt, 1350 Westwood, from 2 to 5 p.m. Wednesday, June 21.

Violent Winds Uproot Garage South of City

The violent wind and rain storm which struck early Sunday evening caused spotted damage in the area.

On Occidental Hwy. along Lake Raisin, a home being built by Russell Lawhead, 515 E. Russell Rd., was damaged by the wind.

According to Mr. Lawhead, the wind apparently came off the lake and came through the garage area of the basement, lifting the deck and throwing it at least 50 feet into the neighboring yard and onto Occidental Hwy. The force drove some of the timber a foot into the ground.

A small boat was lifted from the shores of the lake and landed on Sutton Rd., some sixty rods away.

A much larger boat saved the life of Sherman Cleveland of 1019 Sutton Rd. Mr. Cleveland was sitting in his boat garage listening to the Tiger ball game when the storm struck. The building was completely demolished, with the wind lifting the garage roof onto the roof of the Cleveland home.

The 18-foot boat equipped with a 70 horse-power motor in the garage was damaged by the flying lumber. The windshield was broken and a considerable amount of fishing equipment was also damaged. But Mr. Cleveland, who was sitting close to the boat, was unharmed.

Debris was scattered across the yard and onto Sutton Rd.

Their 1960 Pontiac was in the path of the debris and received two holes in the windshield and a dented fender.

Only the house, which received an estimated $1000 damage, was insured.

Consumer Power lines were down on Beebe Rd. a mile west of Tipton, on Carson Hwy., on Occidental Hwy. near Sutton Rd., and on Deerfield Rd. east of Rogers Hwy.

There wes only minor and scattered damage throughout the rest of the area.

This Battalion is composed of smaller commanderies and entered no more than two to four squads of marchers in the exhibition drill.

Mrs. Wayne Smith, Roy Bower of Clinton and Larry Larson of Tecumseh attended.

PATTERSON PARTY

Teacher Is Guest of Honor

"Mrs. Baily knows everything, Mommy," explained one of the fourth grade students of Mrs. C. O. Baily to her mother after the party Friday at the Patterson school.

To show their high regard for their teacher who is retiring this year, the students of Mrs. Baily held a surprise party during the last hour of school.

The mothers assisting, Mrs. C. L. Cook, Mrs. Melvin Getz and Mrs. Hugh Schulze, invited Jimmy Feight to announce the party to Mrs. Baily by carrying the prettily wrapped gift into her room.

The gift was a casserole dish with candles for warming beneath.

A cake enscribed "Happy Retirement for Mrs. Baily" was served with punch.

☆

MRS. BAILY has taught for 20 years, fourth grade for the past eighteen consecutive years in the Tecumseh Public schools. She received her degree from Eastern Michigan University seven years ago.

Fifty-four elementray teachers who have taught at various times with Mrs. Baily held a dinner party in her honor Tuesday evening at the Tipton Community Church.

Following a swiss steak dinner, Charles Gross, president of the Tecumseh Chapter MEA, presented the honored guest with a certificate and 20-year teaching pin.

The group presented Mrs. Baily with luggage. Earl Greene made the presentation.

Board Decides Not To Ask for Two Mills

Discussion Monday night by Tecumseh school board indicated that voters would be asked again to approve more millage for the schools.

Although a request for four mills was defeated last month, the board discussed placing millage, probably four, before the electorate in November.

A proposal to ask the voters for two mills for one year and for the purpose of reducing the deficit of $136,000, was rejected at the meeting by a four-to-two vote.

Schoolmen agreed that approval of two mills would cut the deficit in half, to about $68,000, but would not restore services and programs already eliminated or reduced for the 1961-62 year and would not prevent further cuts in services for 1962-63.

Supt. James McDowell itemized school cuts made since March 13 amounting to $91,791. Reductions were made to balance the budget.

Other board action included:

Withdrawal from School Board Association, saving $180 for membership fee.

Authorized Neville Hart to check possibility of standardizing class rings.

Accepted resignations from Suzann Kane from the elementary grades, and Jack Trudeau, high school math teacher.

Approved slight additional charge for towels and locker fees.

Approved request from Mrs. Duaine Murphy to erect fence behind West Branch school.

Rejected request from Dr. Robert Murray in regards to help pave Green Hwy. from Russell Rd. to Gady.

Approved appointing Citizens Committee at the July meeting. Nearly 30 names have been submitted for the committee.

Supt. McDowell said the census report shows a gain of 54 school-age children. Total gain of pre-school and school children would have been greater except a number of pre-school youngsters have left the district.

He also told the board that the state was cutting short its money for the hot lunch program, costing the schools about $400 this spring.

At an earlier meeting, United Savings Bank was awarded the bid for a $100,000 loan to the schools.

Break-In at Moore's

An attempted robbery took place sometime Friday night at the R. S. Moore lumber yards.

The burglar apparently entered the building by forcing open a basement window.

Although the safe had been tampered with, it had not been opened.

The police are investigating the case.

5 Candidates in Running for Post

Four have filed petitions for the school board seat being vacated by Dr. Ralph Helzerman, and one has announced as a write-in candidate.

Those who filed were William Wright, Tecumseh druggist; June Stone, Adrian College teacher; Allen Russell, advertising director at Tecumseh Products; and John Robinson, local electrician employed at Clinton Engines.

Don Purkey, former city councilman, failed to file his petition in time and will run as a write-in candidate.

Pink beauty bush and white peonies with cathedral candelabra were used to enhance the chancel of Britton Bethel Baptist Church June 10 for the wedding of Esther Stutesman and Robert H. Howder.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Walter L. Stutesman and the late Mr. Stutesman of 113 S. Maumee St. and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howder of Angola, N. Y.

The Rev. Jack Sorensen performed the ceremony and Priscilla Hansen of Muskegon was the soloist accompanied by Darlene Derr of Flint.

The gown was a street length sheath, fastened in the back with a row of self buttons. A cummerbund featured cabbage roses at the back.

Her head piece was taffeta cabbage roses over white lace with white veiling.

She carried a lace-covered white Bible with cascade of white orchids and pink demure rosettes.

Mrs. Philip Stutesman was the matron of honor in a street length pale blue dress with full length front panel of embroidery and a matching flowered hat.

She carried a cascade of shell pink carnations edged with dainty white and green leaves.

Dave Thomas served as best man and the guests were seated by Jack Barlow and Maynard Belt.

A reception immediately after the ceremony was held at the Tecumseh Friends Church parlors with Mr. and Mrs. Al Williams as hosts. Mary Alice Stutesman was church hostess.

Naval Reserve Offers Annapolis Appointments

A number of appointments to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis are available to Toledo area young men through the Naval Reserve, according to an announcement today from the Naval Armory at Bay View Park.

Commander William F. Ingraham of the Naval Reserve Training Center at Bay View Park, said the Naval Reserve appointments are qualified for by taking the college entrance board examinations in competition with reservists across the United States.

In past years the 160 appointments available to reservists have not been fully utilized.

To qualify for the Naval Reserve appointments for the 1962 entrance year, young men must become members of the Naval Reserve before July 1, 1961.

In addition to Naval Reserve membership, young men must not have reached 22 years of age on July 1, 1962, and must apply for academy appointment before October 1, 1961.

He must meet the requirements of attending Naval Reserve drills, meet physical and moral requirements and pass the competitive entrance examination in March of 1962.

Commander Ingraham says that any young men desiring further information regarding this program should call Randolph 6-3451 for an appointment.

Voters Reject Millage Proposals

Morenci and Blissfield voters turned down millage proposals Monday in school elections held in their districts.

Two proposals, one for operating funds and one for a building fund, were strongly rejected by the Morenci voters, 318-191 and 314-168.

In Blissfield, a two mill levy for operating purposes was defeated 630-513.

Voters in Clinton and in Britton-Macon approved their millage proposals for a 2.5 increase for operating funds.

Say You Saw It in The Herald

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

You asked for comments on the matter of responsibility and discipline in our young people.

I agree children will accept responsibility if it is given to them. This has been proved in homes where it has been tried, in the schools, in groups, and in enterprises such as Student Government Day. Some insist it is easier to do a job yourself than to teach another, but the latter course proves better for all in the long run.

On the other side of the coin . . when we reach the point when a high school student "feels out of place" on a senior trip because he doesn't drink or smoke, it's high time to sit up and take notice.

It's sickening to see the schools be the whipping post for all our children's faults and mistakes. If we want institutions to take over for individual responsibility, there is a gleeful little man in the Kremlin just biding his time until we cook our own goose in this respect.

Recriminations for the past are worthless without a resolve to improve qurselves and our city in every possible way we can. Here and now is as good a place as any to start! Example, as individuals and groups, is the best teacher, they say, and eliminates the confusion of double standards.

In discussions with others I hear the chief problems are cars, alcohol and cigarettes.

Since our new police chief has said he is concerned about delinquency, we are hopeful that real results in law enforcement will be evidenced. A strict enforcement of curfew laws, loitering, selling of cigarettes and liquor to minors are concrete steps to be taken. Cigarette machines are great offenders. Can they be watched? All this is possible only with the support of the people of the town.

What has happened to walking and bicycling as a means of transportation? It's good exercise, too! Do enough people care about the abuse of cars to urge the raising of the licensing age to 18, or else to restrict their children in this matter? Isn't it ironic that the industry that helped to make this country prosperous can also be one of the chief contributing causes to its downfall!

There is no one among us, myself included of course, who leads such an exemplary life that he cannot improve in these matters. So let's give more responsibility and set a better example.

Young people do look for and need discipline.

What DO you want for your kids? This may be the biggest little city in the U.S., but it won't be the greatest unless we all pitch in to help each other and our youngsters face our problems.

In the matter of "Operation Abolition" we argued like crazy —over the back fence, in letters and a town meeting—good! But here is something, not on the west coast, but in our own midst, with which to deal.

Can't we respond as well to this? I'm sure there are a lot of good suggestions to be had in this matter from business men, professional men and other parents.

Sincerely,
Concerned Parents

TO THE EDITORS:

My mother was the one who really looked forward to your paper each week, and as you know, she passed away last September. Thank you for printing that notice for us.

However, since then I have read and enjoyed quite a lot of the news each week. I especially like Marda Gene Duncan's accounts of the bird activities in the yard.

I think you do a very good job of reporting news and presenting community problems. I was really surprised that the vote on the four mills tax lost so heavily.

I thought the article on the Russian student visitors was very constructive. Such visits can perhaps be more helpful in aiding Russians to understatnd us and we them than some of the top flight visits.

You have excellent human interest stories like the one about the people with Foster Parent children, the education of the handicapped children, the local libraries, etc.

I clipped the article about Beth Satterthwaite's party for my aunt, Mrs. Ruth Exelby.

The photographs are excellent.

Sincerely yours,
Frances Higgins

TO THE EDITORS:

In regard to the 4 mill levy recently voted down by the electorate.

I have avoided any controversy in the matter, as I believe that 90% of the voters, including myself, do not know all the intricate problems of our school system, and are in no position to know, unless they were to sit on the school board.

There are hundreds of rumors going the rounds, a percentage of which are probably right, and some with no foundation in fact.

As I have stated, I have voided any controversy, but when we No voters were practically called Reds I am moved to inject my two cents worth.

These things I believe.

1—That a large percent of the no votes, were not against the four-mill tax as such, and certainly not against a good education for our school children, but was a protest, due to lack of confidence, in our school board and superintendent and an aversion to a wholesale indorsement.

2—Had the voters more confidence in our board and Superintendent the four-mill tax would have passed, although, we find now, that it was to be spread, not on the city valuation, but on the state valuation, which would amount to about 5½% on the city valuation.

This, reduces confidence still more.

These things I do not believe.

That it is necessary for boys and especially girls, to take up shop, to protect us from Russia.

That the boys do not need to study chorus, life adjustment, and home economics, to preserve our basic freedoms.

That marble floors and gold plated desks, will not reduce the percentage of Pinks (if any) in our community, but I do believe, that if the raising of taxes for unnecessary expenditures, is persisted in, the result, may, in time, bring some to the belief, that Russia could be no worse.

Registration for the Pony League will take place Friday and the Peewee Program will be organized Monday at 10 a.m. at the recreation field. This latter program is for boys 7-9.

There are two new Cub League fields being constructed for play this summer. One will be located near the waterworks on Union St. and the other behind St. Elizabeth's.

The Pony League will play on the north athletic field at the high school.

☆

FOR THE YOUNGER children, there will be five supervised playgrounds which will be operating from 9-12 every morning beginning June 19. They will be located at West Branch, Herrick Park, Patterson School, Tecumseh Acres, and one will rotate throughout other parts of the city every week.

High school girls will be in charge of the program which will include handicraft and organized play activities.

Two softball leagues are being organized for the girls in the family. The Jr. Softball teams will begin practice June 20 at 1:30 for girls 12-14. The teams will play each other and from these an All-Star team will be chosen to play the Britton team.

This league has a traveling trophy which will be presented to the winning team at the end of the summer This trophy is now held by Tecumseh.

☆

AND DON'T FORGET dad and the Blooper Ball games. This league will begin next week for men over 30.

According to Carol Kapnick, there are plans to start an evening program for the ladies too. More details will be forthcoming.

Duncan Lectka said there are plans also in the making for tennis tournaments, a basketball league under the lights and the construction of shuffleboard and horseshoe courts near the swimming pool.

The summer recreation program is not under the direction of the Parks and Recreation Board which will have charge of all maintenance of the parks throughout the city.

Be Careful Near Water

Drowning victims are not by a long sight just little children or showoff teenagers.

And most victims are not swimming in the water when they fall prey to a killer that takes roughly 6,400 lives a year.

The National Safety Council pointed to those frequently twisted facts as two of the misconceptions many persons have about drownings.

No one will be lulled by false facts into thinking — over the Fourth of July holiday or any time in the year — that because he's in the prime of life, or just walking near water, he is in no danger of drowning.

Four out of five victims are males. And only about 2,400 of the year's 6,400 drownings happen to persons swimming or playing in the water.

If, despite all your precautions over the holiday, a water emergency should arise, here is what to do:

► Throw a person struggling in the water anything that will float—a board, branch, large thermos jug.

► Or, hold something out to him—an oar, branch, end of a piece of rope, even a sweat shirt.

Even if you're middle-age, you're certainly not past danger from drowning—and neither is it too late for you to learn to swim.

Counselor Aids Youths

John Pobuda, counselor at Tecumseh High School, spoke at last Thursday's meeting of Kiwanis.

He stressed that the counselor's position is not to select vocations for those seeking his advice, but to aid them in making their own selections on the basis of their interests and abilities.

What Grows Goes By Truck!

Like Michigan's factories, offices, shops and homes, her important farming industry depends on motor transport. Trucks play a vital part in getting crops planted, cared for, and harvested—and they are the means by which the harvest gets to market. For example, nearly 90% of fruits and vegetables moving into Detroit come directly by truck. And this is relatively true of other cities throughout Michigan. In addition, virtualy all farm products travel by truck at least part of the way to market. So you see how very much the dynamic farming industry relies on the trucking industry in this great State of ours.

Another 10 will be integrated into the program later. Eventually all 20 special policemen will be trained in this method, states Mr. Illeck.

"Experience Teaches A Dear School"

Older people remember from past experience that you usually get no more than you pay for. Anyone looking for a bargain generally pays more than the true value.

Recently the New York City health department stopped the sale of medicines by door-to-door peddlers. Their exaggerated claims about benefits and savings were injuring the health and in many cases defrauding the public. Do not gamble with your health. You can always depend on the quality and fair prices of the medicines, health-aids and vitamins we supply.

What to do till the doctor comes

Emergencies strike with sudden swiftness. A slip, a fall, a collision is seldom announced. So be prepared. At least one member of every family should have a working knowledge of first aid. There are books on the subject and the American Red Cross gives classes where such information and training can be acquired. We recommend that you, or someone in your household, acquire the know-how. Another worthy recommendation is to maintain a supply of first-aid medications on hand at all times—antiseptic, gauze bandages, adhesive tape, alcohol, soothing creams, etc. The cost is small and we'll be glad to assist you in your selection.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

What's in a Name?

Smiley Roberts let us in on one of his story-telling secrets the other night. He was coming to the punch line of one of his tales when Curly Rice piped up.

"It wasn't Skinny Wheeler who stopped that runaway horse," he says, "I ought to know 'cause it was my dad."

"Guess you caught me," says Smiley. "You see, if I can't think of the right name I just fill in quick with any one that pops into my head. If I hem-and-haw trying to think of a name, you fellows will lose interest. Besides, names are just details and don't affect the point of the story one bit."

From where I sit, Smiley's system teaches a lesson about living with our neighbors. Details about people aren't as important as we make them. If someone doesn't vote the way I do, or share my preference for a glass of beer, I shouldn't let it interrupt our friendship. Understanding that people have a right to be different is the "secret" of the "true story" of life.

'Mame' Draws Rave

It appears as though the Clark Lake Players are off to another rousing start—their eighth.

The lakeside thespians' opener this summer, "Auntie Mame", has drawn a rave notice.

"An hilarious comedy with well-aimed pokes at politics, prejudice and the petty snobbery of society in general," wrote Mary Hovine, drama critic for the Jackson Citizen Patriot.

"Mame" is by far the most complex production ever staged at Clark Lake.

Its 23 scene run from a lush New York apartment through a southern mansion to an Egyptian pyramid.

Mrs. Travis Pearse does a superb job in the lead role, which has her on stage in almost all of the three-hour show.

Bill McAnallen is again directing at Clark Lake and he also designed the complex sets.

Taking a role in "Mame" is Mrs. Robert Murray of Tecumseh, who portrays a snobbish "almost mother-in-law to be."

In the show's program, Mrs. Murray drew this note: "Played the deep-dyed villaness in our 1960 presentation of 'Only an Orphan Girl.' Virginia is an active member of the lively Tecumseh drama group. She has a BS from Cornell University and is MA to four little Murrays."

"Mame" will be presented six more times on the coming two weekend, June 15, 16 and 17 and June 22, 23 and 24.

Curtain is 8:30 p.m.

F.F.A. Year in Review

This has been a very busy year for the Tecumseh Future Farmers. They have taken part in many activities on both local and state levels.

The chapter had a demonstration team that represented them in the state finals at E. Lansing. The boys in the demonstration team were Jerry Forsyth, Gary Korte and John Baker. The title of the demonstration was "Swine Feeds and Feeding." The team won both the district and regional contests and received a silver rating in the state finals.

Terry Johnston had the 18th chapter broiler project this year. He raised 125 birds to twelve weeks. They were entered in the State Wide Broiler Contest held at M.S.U., but did not place in this event.

The chapter had a member try out for the state F.F.A. band and compete for the state farmer degree. Gale Kimerer, a senior at Tecumseh, tried out for both. He received the position as alternate in the state F.F.A. Band.

Our chapter officers went to a two-day leadership training school at Camp Palmer, Fayette, Ohio. We left Tecumseh at 8 o'clock Saturday, June 3, and returned home Sunday, June 4. The purpose of this camp was to acquaint the new officers with their respective duties and to make them better officers for the coming year.

Edsel Brooks was elected Secretary of Region 2 Future Farmers of America for next year's camp.

The boys have 14 acres of corn planted this year. One acre is entered in the Funk's 304 bushel corn contest. Last years yield was 143 bu. on 1 acre and we hope to better it.

The boys brought in their father's tractors to plow and plant the corn. We wish to thank Jerry Forsyth, Larrie Eaton, Gary Blatchford, Carl Bower, and the boys' parents for letting them do this. We also wish to thank Ron Muckenstrum for disking and Dean Van Neste for planting the corn.

When the boys had finished the F.F.A.'s land they plowed the lot directly behind the Herrick Memorial Hospital as a community service project.

The chapter has increased their pig chain to 7 registered Duroc gilts and 2 registered Landrace gilts.

They have increased their sheep chain to 5 registered Dorsets. Dennis Martinus has them now.

At the present time the F.F.A. boys are trying to start a commercial sheep flock consisting of 20 grade ewes and one registered ram.

The new officers for the coming year are: President, Dean Van Neste; Vice President, Jerry Forsyth; Secretary, John Baker; Treasurer, Edsel Brooks; Reporter, Larrie Eaton, Sentinal; Larry Shea.

The chapter has given various awards to the members. Jim Tilton received the Star Green Hand Award. Harvey Spreeman received the Chapter Star Farmer Award, and Larrie Eaton received the Dairy Award. Mr. Ronald Muckenstrum and Mr. Albert Van Neste received Honorary Chapter Farmer degrees from the chapter.

Special Education To Be Centered in City Schools

Elmer Eberhardt was unanimously elected to his third six-year term on the county board of education last week at the annual meeting.

Twenty one of Lenawee's 27 school boards were represented for the vote.

Milton C. Porter, county superintendent of schools, said that the state department has informed him that all state aid payments for the present school year will be completed by July 1.

Mr. Porter also announced that the special education program will take over the operation of the Croswell school next year.

He said that about 30 children will be integrated into the special education system in three type B rooms for the mentally handicapped.

These rooms are to be located in Tecumseh with tentative plans to use the West Branch School.

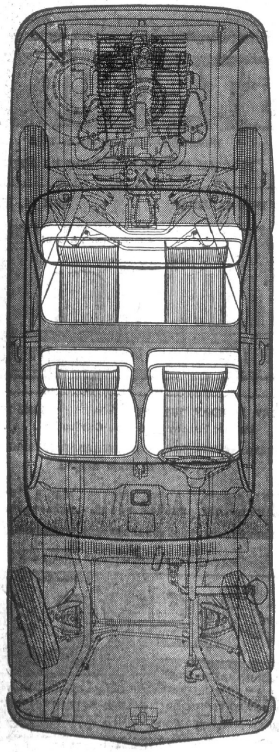
BUCKET SEATS ALONE DO NOT A MONZA MAKE



■ Gee! ■ Little did we know, when we introduced the Corvair Monza last year, that we were starting a Big Thing. We just thought it would be pleasant if you could buy a car that treats you, the driver, like you want to be treated. ■ The bucket seats, of course, are the most obvious evidence of our desire to please you. But they're not the most important thing. No sir. What's really vital is the way a Monza handles—something nobody in the U.S. has yet copied. Or can copy. Because Corvair is the only rear-engined car made in this country, and you know what that means: steering light as thistledown. (You even park this one more easily, it steers so briskly.) Beautifully balanced braking—the car stays level even under panic braking, which we hope you'll never have to do. Traction and more traction, so you don't become a stick-in-the-mud. The kind of cornering that's sheer joy to experience. ■ You get more: a fully independent suspension that blots out road shocks before they can ruffle you. Clean, crisp styling. Thoroughgoing economy, from purchase price to operating cost. ■ You're not going to be satisfied with bucket seats alone, are you?

THROUGH MY WINDOW

MR. AND MRS. BOB WHITE

Thursday—I am sure Mom went to the window to catch a few peaceful moments at the end of a hectic day.

A late afternoon sun filtering through the trees highlighting the ripples of the creek makes a quiet, restful scene, but Mom's glance never got that far. Suddenly she was ohing, ahing and exclaiming, "Why, it's a quail."

I was not in a position to see what was happening so she gave me a "blow by blow" account.

A big quail had popped out of the tall grass which grows at the top of the creek bank just outside our fence. Slowly and deliberately he looked the situation over, first on one side of the fence then the other, down the creek bank then into the yard, he was not eating a thing, just looking.

Every few moments he either went back to the clump of grass or looked that way. Something was there. Mom could see movement in the grass, but the bird did not show itself.

☆

THE NEXT DAY, again late in the afternoon, the quail was back and this time he let his mate come out in the open. The two of them made quite a lengthy visit but he was still very nervous and, although she ate, he spent most of the time "on guard".

Early Saturday morning they came for breakfast, he was apparently satisfied that everything was safe and there was no need for the constant security check—Mr. and Mrs. ate a hearty meal.

Sunday we saw the pair in the back yard and as before, when they ventured into a new territory, he assumed the role of protector.

By now I imagine the whole neighborhood has been explored in this cautious manner.

The birds are apt to turn up any place, but not quite any time, early or late seems to be their favorite feeding periods.

☆

IN EVERY respect Bob White and his wife are welcome additions to our bird guests. Appearance-wise they are both extremely attractive. Round birds with short tails, he was an outstandingly handsome head, black with white stripes and a neat white bib under his bill, but she wears a somber head-dress, dark brown instead of black and light buff taking the place of white.

When we can't see the pretty birds we often hear them—especially during the middle of the day their "Bob, Bob White" fills the air and what nice listening it is.

Even their choice of food makes quail welcome guests; a variety of harmful insects and weed-seeds are staples in their diet.

We try to help the birds in the food department — actually we are helping ourselves, but by throwing scratch-feed along the creek-bank we hope to make the quail "regulars."

☆

IT HAS worked so far and I am happy to report that they seem to enjoy free-loading as much as the rest of our gang. Incidentally, tossing scratch feed about is paying an extra, and unexpected, dividend.

All the birds are enjoying it. The other day for example, I looked out to see three mourning doves, five blue-jays, a pair of cardinals in the yard, two squirrels on the fence, hairey Woodpecker at one feeder and a pair of tufted-titmice at the other.

How is that for a full window picture?

So it is that we have newcomers in the neighborhood and in every respect they are making themselves well liked. It has been my pleasure to introduce Mr. and Mrs. Bob White.

NEXT WEEK—
Little little Reds.

TOM RICORDAN'S Long AND Short

"I'm playing like Lady Marlow's grandma," drawled the golfer as he prepared to tee off on No. 9.

The fellow in the straw hat, who smiled grimly as he made the remark, was Sam Snead.

This was the 61st annual National Open championship being held on the tortuous Oakland Hills Country Club in Birmingham.

Sam was trying valiently to snag an Open crown, but it just wasn't in the cards.

He never has—in about 20-odd tries—and he probably never will.

The likable Sam drew crowds wherever he was on the course.

As John Albert, who sells air time for WWJ-TV remarked, "I want to be sure and see Snead and (Ben) Hogan because it may be the last time."

The old warriors are nearing the end of the competative trail, which they have trod so brilliantly during nearly three decades and they may not appear in these parts many more times.

Everyone loves Sam, who combines a mastery of the game with a cheery wit.

His Lady Marlow quib came during his final round in the grueling 72-hole campaign when it was apparent Sam would be well down in the field. But he was still a great drawing card.

It's always a thrill to see the greats of golfdom perform.

They make the game look so easy while teeing off and hitting from the fairway. But around those rolling Oakland Hills greens, they reacted much like the guy next door, often times three-putting.

How they can stand the pressure of shooting for a $14,000 check and have so many people literally breathing down their necks is something to marvel over.

But when these lads, all of whom are in great physical condition, bend over the ball they seem to shut out the rest of the world.

They take considerable time setting themselves, possibly three times as much as the average fellow.

That must be the secret — intense concentration on every shot.

It appears as though the Lenawee County Board of Supervisors are seriously considering going into the printing business.

Someone told them the move would save about $6,000 a year.

Hmmmmmmmm?

If the deal comes off, our supervisors may soon start coming to the courthouse bringing printer's aprons, carrying makeup rules and line gauges.

When something has to be measured, they'll likely do it in picas, tossing in an Em or En here and there.

Their vocabularies will be dotted with "wash-up", "make-ready", "plates", "impression."

Before anyone takes pause that this is sour grapes, let your writer state that this newspaper is yet to sell one penny of printing to the county.

However, Adrian print shops have, to the tune of many thousands of dollars annually. All of these in turn pay taxes to help maintain county government.

We have never sought any of this business, probably never will. Our job printing hours are limited. Local clients pretty well keep The Herald crew hopping our two job-printing days each week.

The supervisors were told, by a nice printing equipment salesman, that about "five bills" could be saved annually if the county went into the printing business.

And he just happened to have a press that would do the job.

The supervisors have the program in committee.

It could be jolly times ahead for them.

All they have to do now is get someone capable enough to operate the press—or are they planning to do this job themselves?

Then will come typesetting chores, ordering and cutting stock, getting ink, making plates and the myriad chores which go along with the printing business.

May the supervisors—if they go through with the plan—have fun.

John Underwood Gets Franchise for Pontiac Car

John Underwood, veteran Clinton automobile dealer, has been awarded the Pontiac franchise for this area.

A 1949 graduate of Tecumseh High School and well known in the city, Mr. Underwood is president of the newly-organized Underwood Chevrolet-Pontiac, Inc.

His father, George V., Sr., is associated with him and serves as vice-president of the firm.

Pontiacs will be sold by the dealership in Tecumseh, Clinton, Tipton, Ridgeway, Britton and Bridgewater.

John Underwood served in the Air Force from 1951 to '54, then went into used car sales in Washington, D.C.

John is married to the former Juanita M. Bennett of Adrian and they have one daughter, named Mary Beth.

The agency will remain in Clinton at present.

Police Take Courses

Tecumseh policemen are going to school.

One of the first things new Chief Murell W. Clark announced upon taking office this week was a series of training sessions.

The recently-retired State Police lieutenant said that classes will cover general police work, including investigation of breakings and enterings, searching cars, setting up a new emergency blockade plan in event of serious crimes.

Chief Clark has called a department meeting for Friday morning at 9:30 when he will explain his program to the 10-member force.

The chief also plans a course in photography for his five patrolmen.

A nearly-new Speed Graphic camera is part of the department's inventory and he wants his men to become competent in snapping accident pictures, scenes of robberies and the like.

The traffic speed timer will also get plenty of action during summer months, he stated.

"It does an honest job, saves time on men," the chief explained.

A concentrated foot patrol during early morning hours is being mapped by the chief. Two men will work from a scout car, one driving and one on foot, to check buildings and property throughout the city, examine strange cars, watch for fires and malicious destruction.

Chief Clark is going to set up an extensive filing system, keeping careful tab on every complaint, not closing a case until "all angles of investigation have been exhausted."

In reports of dog bites, the force will follow up condition of the animal and the victim, taking all necessary steps in case the canine has rabies.

Besides the five patrolmen, the department has three deskmen, one policewoman and one auxiliary policeman in training. There are two scout cars, both leased from Schneider Bros. Chevrolet.

"A police department is no better than the cooperation it gets from the people," the chief explained. "Our men will be trained to process all facts given to us by the people.

"We may not be the biggest department, but we'll try to be among the best," he promised. "To do this we'll need the cooperation of all the people."

Total police department budget is $55,081.34. The chief's salary is $110 per week.

☆

CHIEF CLARK, 51, was with the State Police from 1934 to his retirement earlier this month. Since 1955, he had been assistant commander of the Eighth District at Marquette.

Born in Iron River, he attended Northern Michigan College.

Chief Clark served at seven other posts, including Clinton and Wakefield, which he opened as a trooper. It was while in the latter community that he met and married his wife, Agnes. She has a brother, Roy E. Porter, who lives in Clinton.

The Clarks have two daughters, one married and the other, Nancy, 15, who'll enter the 10th grade at Tecumseh High School this fall. She had attended Graveraf High in Marquette.

The Clarks will reside at 302 N. VanBuren St., a home which they have purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Vern Eyler, who are moving to Florida.

Mrs. Clark will teach third grade at an Ann Arbor elementary school.

Reservations Should Be Made for Banquet

Donald Purkey, president of the Alumni Association, asserted Tuesday that it is necessary for the committee to complete arrangements for the annual banquet immediately.

About 70 persons have already made reservations for the event to be held Saturday, June 24, in the high school cafeteria at 7 p.m. and preparations can be made for many more.

However food will not be prepared for persons who have not made reservations at least two days prior to the banquet.

Anyone desiring to attend may contact any of the officers or purchase tickets from Wright's Drug Store or Gaston's Jewelry.

A new and different type of program has been planned for the evening which promises to be of interest to the alumni members.

Just Beginning

"I hope that we are not finished, but just begun." With these words Dale Tuckey brought to a close his address at Thursday evening's commencement exercises.

Using the class motto as the basis of his speech, Mr. Tuckey presented this phrase, "Not Finished, Just Begun," as the theme of our American heritage, a theme which represents an attitude and a way of life. Do we as a nation lack a goal? Our goal for centuries has been freedom, but we today are "too willing to exchange freedom for security."

Helen Miller, 1961 Salutatorian, emphasized the human characteristic to reach for and grasp both numbers and heights which represents greatness to so many. The known and common places can be conquered by everyone, she said, but to reach for the large numbers and the great heights represents a constant struggle. Throughout the ages, "the heights remain and the man will continue his reaching."

GASTON AWARD — Larry Titley was the recipient Thursday evening of the wrist watch honoring the outstanding member of the Class. Pictures of scholarship winners on page 3.

Dianne Fuller, valedictorian, told her classmates. She pointed out the changing roles of the student and the benefits of learning from experience as well as from books. We will now have to prove our own worth, she said. "At this moment we know that all that our high school is and has been is forever behind us."

The hour and a half program climaxing 13 years of schooling took place before a packed audience in the high school gymnasium.

Diplomas were awarded by Superintendent James McDowell to the 138 graduating seniors. The presentations took over 20 minutes.

For the 11th year, the Gaston Award was presented to the member of the class, who in the

3-Ring Circus Here Monday

Three-ring circus—elephants, clowns, prancing horses and trapeze artists — is moving into Tecumseh Monday.

Sponsored by the IOOF, the Carson and Barnes 3-Ring Wild Animal Circus will make two performances in Tecumseh June 26, at 2 p.m. and again at 8 p.m. at the airport grounds on M-52.

The third largest circus in America, the Carson and Barnes show will present a wide variety of acts in three rings and on two stages.

Featured in the show will be Col. Tim McCoy, famed TV and Western movie star. His "Real Wild West" show will be complete with Indians, a stage coach raid and some real sharp-shootin'.

There promises to be a big herd of elephants to entertain the whole family, including Josky, the 11,000 pound elephant and Little Susie, the baby of the crew.

☆

THE ELEPHANTS will put on a pre-show performance Monday morning when the circus moves into town.

The public is invited to watch the unloading of the trucks and the raising of the tents which is a real fascinating sight.

The "Big Top" is carried from city to city on large truck-mounted spools. It is spread on the ground mechanically and raised into the air by elephant strength.

Horses are vital to the circus scene too. Performing for the audience will be Charles Barnes and his Liberty Horse Troupe in smart drills and spirited maneuvers.

Other animals featured in the show are bears, lions, monkeys, lamas, camels and Shetland ponies. The huge menagerie, including a three-ton hippopotamus, will display animals shown only at large zoos.

Also included in the exciting show are aerial acts featuring daring trapeze artists and tight-rope walkers.

Filling in the show will be the jovial clowns. Including the internationally known Felix Alman, they promise to provide laughs for the young from three to 93.

The latest addition to the Carson and Barnes Wild Animal Circus is the New Bell Hellicopter.

Captain Jack Moore and his assistants will operate the "copter" from the grounds at Meyers Airport, giving rides at a cost of $3 per person.

The blue carnations have faded, the caps and gowns are returned, cakes have all been eaten—naught remains of the stirring commencement ceremonies but memories.

As 138 Tecumseh seniors left the huge gymnasium Thursday evening for the last time, many a mom grabbed for a hankie to catch that stray tear before it streaked down her cheek.

Hardly seems longer than yesterday when that same youngster waved goodby on the way to kindergarten.

Bright and shining new "pages of the future" are open for these young people to fill with "history" of their own making.

God grant them the courage and strength to protect America's freedom as did their forefathers. Certainly this generation is all to willing "to trade freedom for security" as Dale Tuckey said in his commencement address.

PRODUCE A HIGH YIELDING CORN CROP. Now's the time plants need plenty of available plant food. Sidedressing is a good way of adding nitrogen, especially if conditions prevented plowing down or applying sufficient amounts in the starter. Corn can be sidedressed until it reaches 12 to 15 inches — but the sooner the better as far as root pruning is concerned. If weather delayed planting, cut back on the nitrogen you normally apply by about a fourth.

PINKEYE SEASON IS HERE so observe your herd for any cattle that may have a weeping discharge from their eyes. Affected cattle lose their appetites and production falls off. Call a veterinarian if the disease is noticed. Total blindness may result unless treatment is begun early. Besides, the disease is infectious and can be spread quickly through the herd if flies are a serious problem.

GET GRAIN BINS CLEANED before combining starts. Give the bin walls and floor a good spraying with a recommended chemical. One of the newest recommendations is to use a mixture of 10 ounces of 57% malathion in 5 gallons of water. Spray this material on until it begins to run off. For further protection, you might apply malathion as a dust or spray at the recommended rate to the grain as you put it in the bin.

SCREEN WINDOWS AND DOORS OF POULTRY HOUSES to keep sparrows out during the summer. Otherwise, where they are a serious problem they can add considerably to your feed bill. One sparrow alone can eat over 6 pounds of feed in a year. Besides, sparrows are a possible source of bringing disease into your flock.

In case you think you might be stung

Some people seem to feel that prescriptions are outrageously priced. The truth of the matter is this: Last year the average American bought about 3 prescriptions for a total cost of around $7.50. An average of less than $3.00 per prescription. Sure, some drugs cost a lot. So do television tubes—for the same reason. They're expensive to manufacture. New and improved production methods, however, bring prices down. Penicillin, for example, costs only a small fraction of what it did when it first came out. Your pharmacist has a professional knowledge of drugs and can tell you this. They are fairly priced. You get what you pay for. We are always pleased to serve you.

Mrs. C. O. Baily Given Gift

At Thursday evening's commencement exercises, Mrs. C. O. Baily was presented a gift by James McDowell on behalf of the Board of Education for her 18 years of service in the Tecumseh Public Schools.

"We hope you have a wonderful and full retirement," Mr. McDowell said.

Friday brought to a close 18 consecutive years of teaching fourth grade in Tecumseh for Mrs. Baily. She has taught in both the Central Building, now the junior high school, and Patterson School.

Mrs. Baily taught two years before her marriage in rural areas in Blissfield and Grand Rapids. She returned to teaching after raising a family of three daughters.

Mrs. Baily had an older brother who was a teacher and cannot remember not wanting to become one too.

She has no immediate plans for her retirement.

Thursday during the noonhour, Mrs. Baily was honored at a miscellaneous shower at Patterson School. The event was planned by the Patterson teachers. Ice cream and cake were served and Mrs. Baily received lovely gifts from the group.

Tecumseh GOPs Exchange Views with Goldwater

Three local Republicans were in Detroit Monday to hear Sen. Barry Goldwater address the Republican State Finance Committee.

Charles Trickey, chairman of the Republican Party in Lenawee County, Charles Figy of Morenci, candidate for Con-Con and Finance Chairman of the party in Lenawee, and Wayne Reganall, Membership Chairman of the county, attended the speech at the Detroit Statler Hotel.

Mr. Goldwater urged the Republicans to unite for a victory in the House of Representatives in '62.

The temperament of the country shows that Kennedy's give-away program has not received approval, he said. It will result in either a raised national debt or higher taxes.

The fund-raising event was attended by Republican county and finance chairman.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

LITTLE LITTLE REDS

Remember a few years ago when all the juke-boxes and radios were blaring a song about "I have mixed emotions . . ."? Well, that's exactly our predicament these days. There is a family of b[illegible]urrels around and my, but they are cute.

Even though we know that when fullgrown they will be destructive, mean brats, we can't help enjoying their antics now.

It seems strange but this is the first bunch of baby squirrels we have ever had. They must have started playing in our yard almost as soon as they could get around by themselves because they were so tiny and, as we were soon to learn, inexperienced.

Four in number, we often see them all at the same time—one 'takes over' the corn tree, another the feeder, the third the feice with its two ears of corn, and the smallest contents himself with snatching a bit of food wherever he finds it and rushing to the wren tree to eat in peace and quiet.

Actually, he uses this tree as a security blanket just as my cousin's two little boys and Linas "of the funny papers use their blankets; sitting all hunched up in the crotch of the tree it is just so apparent that only there does he feel safe and out of harm's way.

☆

SIZE-WISE the youngsters were almost unbelievably small when we first met them — in fact although they are, of course, getting bigger we have been surprised how slowly they seem to be growing.

They love corn, it's good to eat and the ears are lots of fun to play on. When through scampering up and down and around and round, the little squirrels climb to the top of the ears, which are standing upright, and sit there while eating. You just know they can't be very big to do that.

In addition to being so small, they are attractive because of their big, bright white-ringed eyes, snowy white tummy which looks oh, so very soft, and the red stripe down their backs. Real cuties are our little little Reds, why must they spoil it all by growing up to be naughty?

Like all youngsters baby squirrels have many lessons to learn. A big Little Red is the flightiest, most nervous thing imaginable but these 'kids' didn't know the meaning of fear.

For instance, the one who likes the feeder would let us open and close the windows, swish the curtains and drapes back and forth, even knock on the window—he wouldn't bat an eye at us.

One day Dad took some scratch feed out and put the container right on the feeding tray before the little squirrel moved. The last day or so however, they are finally becoming a bit wary and skittish—showing signs of growing up.

☆

ONE THING that has rather surprised us is how little the squirrels have to do with each other; they enjoy playing by themselves but when two of them get together, believe me, it's not play.

Just let one try to invade the other's territory and what a bit-ing, clawing free-for-all! They chatter and scream at each other —such noise and such fierceness from such little ones.

Yesterday we had another indication that the babies are acquiring the unfortunate habits of their elders.

A blue-jay was on the ground eating scratch-feed and bothering no-one when a squirrel came tearing out of the tree and deliberately chased the jay. He tried just getting out of the way but Little Red kept pestering 'til the bird flew across the street.

So it is that although we have enjoyed the baby squirrels I know we will not be happy when they grow up and are no longer Little Little Reds.

She's Tecumseh's 'Meter Maid'

Have you seen the charming lady dressed in blue walking through the downtown area recently?

She's Mrs. Curtis Isom, Tecumseh's first police woman who has been working on the force for three months.

Her schedule varies from day to day. She works in the police department office at dispatch or radio work or answering phone calls on complaint charges.

But her fame is rising as a very efficient "meter maid."

Here's what the frequent Tecumseh visitor recently wrote The Herald:

"About 10 days ago I parked my car in front of a meter. Having no change, I proceeded to the nearest store to get change. When I returned not more than two minutes later—you guessed it—a ticket was neatly in place on my windshield.

"I realize I could have left a note on my windshield stating that I had gone for change and would be back in a minute. However, I'm not in the habit of carrying a pencil and pad with me everytime I drive to Tecumseh. Since this was truly a "violation", without further word I placed the amount of the fine in the handy packet provided and dropped it in the nearest box.

"Five days later I was again in Tecumseh, and drove my car to a metered spot. I placed a coin in the meter but it did not register. I tried to insert another coin but this time the meter had jammed and would not even accept a coin. It then seemed there was no alternative but to leave the car with the meter reading "violation" and jammed in place. My errand was very quick; in fact, I returned to my car within two minutes at the most. You guessed it again — a ticket had already been placed on my windshield."

The writer of the letter saw Mrs. Isom across the street and the ticket was taken back after she had verified the jammed meter.

Mrs. Isom's meter work includes checking the some 480 meters located throughout the downtown area. In April, she issued approximately 600 tickets.

Although she has not yet served in this capacity, Mrs. Isom will act as matron on the force to women in custody.

She has no previous work with a police force, so she's "learning by doing" police work.

The Isom's live at 413 W. Cummins St.

County Young People To Hold Migrant Rally

A Lenawee County "first" will take place Sunday, June 25, when junior and senior high young people from protestant chuches throughout the county meet at the First United Presbyterian Church in Adrian for a "Migrant Rally."

The really, which will be held from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m., is under the sponsorship of the Lenawee County Migrant Ministry.

The primary purpose of the rally is to bring all Lenawee County's 2000 annual migrant workers and the Migrant Ministry.

Virgil Oyer of Adrian and Mrs. James Nixon of Blissfield. There will also be important announcements concerning the 1961 ministry beginning in mid-August.

Civil War Artillery Highlights Festival

The Civil War will live again this weekend at Greenfield Village in Dearborn at the Seventh Annual Muzzle Loaders Festival.

The colorful event being held June 24 and 25 will feature costumed frontiersmen and uniformed Civil War soldiers whose accurate shooting and military drills will recapture for the old and young alike all the color and realism of a century ago.

Activities will begin at noon both days and continue to 5 p.m.

George J. Misacca of Lenox, Mass. will give two demonstrations each day of the firing of an original 12-pound Dahlgren cannon, a 12-pound mortar that saw action with Admiral David G. Farragut's fleet and a 10-barrel Gatling gun.

The Gatling gun was used in the closing stages of the Civil War and continued to be used for the following four decades.

Two military teams, Union and Confederate, will present military contests both days. The teams are members of the North-South Skirmish Assoc.

Nearly 275 shooters, using old-time firearms in friendly marksmanship contests, will come from Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, Kentucky and Virginia.

Demonstrations and exhibits connected with weapons and the Civil War include Civil War firearms, the casting of lead bullets, the making of gun stocks, and gun engraving.

Parents Assist

Jane Hodges was initiated in ceremonies recently held by the Tecumseh Chapter No. 51, OES.

Her father, Dwight Hodges, past patron, and her mother, secretary, assisted in the ceremonies.

The chapter will recess during the months of July and August.

City Invited to Canadian Dedication

The city of Tecumseh, Mich. has been given a formal invitation to participate in the dedication of a new city hall in Tecumseh, Ontario, Canada.

Several years ago the two cities of Tecumseh, one in Michigan and one in Canada, exchanged visits and a good time was had by all.

Once again this fair city has been invited to take part in a dedication ceremony to be held in Tecumseh, Canada, June 24, 1961 at 3 p.m. A blanket invitation to our citizens has been issued by the mayor of Tecumseh, Canada to come to help them dedicate their new city hall.

There are several city officials and their wives making the journey and it would be a real neighborly gesture if there were a sizeable delegation going to visit neighbors in Canada.

Take Precautions Around the Water

Seventy-five water accidents have already caused 51 deaths and injured 29 persons in Michigan this year, the State Police report, and the toll has emphasized the need for increased safety precautions as the water sports season heads toward its point of high activity.

The drownings include 21 who fell into water from bridges, banks, docks or piers, eight boat passengers, seven who fell through ice, five boat operators, eight swimmers or waders, one skin or scuba diver, and one who lost his life while trying to rescue another.

Nitrogen Content Key to Good Crops

No presently-used soil test is reliable for estimating in advance how much nitrogen soil will supply during a growing season, says John Comstock, County Extension Director for Lenawee County.

However, experiments at Michigan State University have shown that soil tests for nitrates made during the growing season give some indication of the rate at which nitrogen is being released by the soil and taken up by the crop.

In corn, the most rapid uptake comes during the three or four weeks just before and after tasseling.

Trials at the MSU Agricultural Experiment Station have shown that the soil must test 40 pounds of nitrate nitrogen an acre during the tasseling period for maximum corn yields.

If the level falls below this point there is not enough nitrogen available to the corn either from the soil or fertilizer, Comstock says.

The 40-pound nitrate level may be critical also for other crops although their season uptake pattern is different.

While tests may show too late that extra nitrogen is needed by a crop, the new tests will be helpful in planning future fertility management, he says.

VFW Convention Meets in Lansing

About 14 couples from Tecumseh will attend one of the largest conventions in Veterans of Foreign Wars history to be held in Lansing June 22-23.

More than 5000 persons are expected for the four day conclave, the first in Lansing since 1954.

Those from here are:

Commander James Felton and Mrs. Felton

Mr. and Mrs. Harlon Boyes

Mr. and Mrs. Gaza Kish

President Mrs. George Downard and husband

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stites

Mr. and Mrs. Arlan Kapnick

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eisenminger

Several prominent speakers have been secured, one of which is General J. D. Hittle, VFW director of military and foreign affairs of Washington D.C.

Formerly of Lansing, General Hittle will outline the VFW's stand on Cuba, Laos and other world trouble spots.

Mothers Hear Trooper

Trooper Donald Schummer of the Clinton State Police Post was the speaker and presented a film for 18 members and one guest of the Young Mothers Club June 14.

The film was entitled "That They May Live."

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Raymond Seitz with Mrs. Frank Geigler as co-hostes.

The club has adopted an orphan, Samuel Tomay Loren, 10-year-old of Keng Tung Burma, through the Foster Parents Plan.

During the business session plans were made for a picnic in July with husbands as guests.

Following the serving of refreshments, the evening was spent socially.

Cub Scouts Enjoy Family Picnic

Cub Scouts of Pack 73 held a family picnic Saturday at the scout cabin.

Relay games were played and ribbons awarded to the winners.

Parents of the cubs participated in several races with some lameness and grass stained clothing resulting.

Minister Here Blasts Council of Churches

TO THE EDITORS:

The recent controversy relative to the film "Operation Abolition" raises a question which needs consideration. One notes that in this controversy a prominent place has been played by the National Council of Churches.

This is indicated by a paragraph in the editorial in the May 8 Toledo Blade, a portion of which you quoted in your editorial recently.

The paragraph is as follows: "If the Tecumseh viewers, or any others, want to judge this film on its merits, or lack of them, let them view it in light of the facts shed on it in a 15,000-word report by the National Council of Churches published to correct the bias of this HUAC promotion. The 'errors' and distortions the NCC spotlight appear to be more than minor."

The question is: Why is the National Council of Churches so much in the limelight in this issue and why, though denying any intention to aid Communism, does the NCC act in such a way that Communism actually is aided?

First, it should be made clear that the National Council of Churches does not represent all of Protestantism although this impression is often given.

There are associations of churches, such as the National Association of Evangelicals, some denominations and many churches which do not belong to the NCC. In fact the NCC does not represent 50% of American Protestants.

That leaders of the NCC are sympathetic with at least some of that which they see in Russian Communism is apparent from the following quotation from E. Stanley Jones, a missionary to India and a preacher for the National Council of Churches, in his book, "Christ's Alternative to Communism," p. 224:

"When the Western world was floundering in an unjust and competitive order, God reached out and put his hand on the Russian Communists to produce a juster order and to show a recumbent church that it has missed in its own Gospel.

"That does not mean that God, or we, can approve all they have in that order, nor all they have done to bring that order into being, but it does mean that God through the Communists is judging the unjustices and wrongs inherent in our present system.

"To the degree that the Communists have caught the meanings of the Kingdom of God and have embodied them they are a part of that Kingdom, even if they repudiate that Kingdom in the very act of embodying some of its ideals."

Another controversy of more recent date is noteworthy. It was that of a year ago concerning the Air Force Manual which made certain charges that were offensive to the NCC. One charge was concerning E. Stanley Jones.

Among other similar statements of his quoted in the Manual was the one quoted above. As a result of pressure from the NCC this manual was withdrawn.

One may ask: Was the disease eradicated in the withdrawal of the Air Force Manual or only a symptom removed leaving the disease to continue as a deadly cancer in our society?

Still another indication of the position of many NCC leaders is a statement by Dr. Nels F. S. Ferre in the United Church Herald of Feb. 9 in which he says that his "hope and goal, is that the Christian forces dissociate themselves from capitalist ideology and strike out confidently for a social, economic and political order that envisages true democracy and that makes world peace its immediate goal."

The problem basically is a theological and philosophical one. Many of the leaders of the National Council of Churches are theological liberals and as such have abandoned the idea of a sovereign, authoritative God as revealed in the Bible.

The abandonment of this concept of God by the theologian and the philosopher results in many of them turning to such ungodly philosophies as socialism and communism. The proclamation of a god who is somewhat less than the God of the Bible causes a break-down in society in that people, following their leaders reject first the constituted authority of God Himself, then that of the home, society and government.

It is this breakdown that makes possible such events as that taking place in San Francisco whether or not such events involve Communism. "See to it that no one carries you off as spoil or makes you yourselves captive by his so-called philosophy and intellectualism, and vain deceit (idle fancies and plain nonsense), following human tradition — men's ideas of the material (rather than the spiritual) world — just crude notions following the rudimentary and elemental teachings of the universe, and disregarding (the teachings of) Christ, the Messiah." (Colossians 2:8, The Amplified New Testament).

Perhaps the greatest criticism of the film "Operation Abolition" is that it may be too little too late. We will never master the rattlesnake in the baby's crib by allowing the baby to play with it and Communism is a rattlesnake of indescribable proportions.

America needs a spiritual awakening which would bring us to recognize God's power and authority in our lives through His Son, Jesus Christ.

A return to the faith of our fathers will give us a greater appreciation for the principles set forth in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States of America.

Unless there is a reversal of the trend in the thinking of many churchmen as well as of leaders in other areas or unless God supernaturally intervenes, Communism will continue to advance and society, as we know and love it will perish and this without a shot being fired.

Sincerely,
David M. Holly,
1211 Shady Lane.

Asks Aid for Negro Colleges

TO THE EDITORS:

Many thoughtful people consider Doctor Albert Schweitzer to be one of the few TRULY GREAT men of our age. This good doctor turned his back upon a brilliant career in Europe where he was outstanding by proficient in many fields, to devote himself with truly Christ-like love and humility to the service of the sick and hurt in the heart of Africa.

In answer to a questioner who wished to know why he selflessly devoted his talents and energies to such a lowly task among those not of his own race, he replied: "We have no choice. We MUST help them. Whatever we do for them is not charity, but expiation."

By this he meant that he had dedicated himself to a personification of the prickling conscience of the white man—a conscience which must realize that the white man has so shamelessly and callously exploited, abused and debased his black brothers over the centuries that we all owe to the black races a debt of atonement that we can never hope to repay.

Now, in the very nature of things, we cannot all drop our customary pursuits and immolate ourselves in hospitals and leprosaria in Africa OR the Deep South. But there is one thing that all of us who feel as Doctor Schweitzer does CAN do. We can reach a solidly helping hand to our black brothers and sisters right here at home.

Struggling valiantly against great economic odds, the many small Negro colleges which are endeavoring to help Negro youth become better citizens, are appealing for financial help. Rather than make individual appeals, they have banded together in this request for aid, and a single contribution to THE UNITED NEGRO COLLEGE FUND will benefit them all.

ESPECIALLY if you have no children of your own whom you are supporting in college you may feel willing to help those whose parents cannot give them the aid they need to make them more capable first-class citizens of our country.

Be as generous as you can when you mail your check to THE UNITED NEGRO COLLEGE FUND, 500 Murphy Bldg., Detroit 26, Mich.

Sincerely,
John D. McColl

Soil District Moved in Adrian from Court House

Offices of the USDA Soil Conservation Service will move to 235 North Main Street, it was announced by Woodrow H. Barclay, Work Unit Conservationist.

The offices have been in the Court House since 1946 where the Lenawee Soil Conservation District was formed.

"In addition to the Lenawee Soil Conservation District, Monroe and Wayne counties are serviced less comprehensively from Adrian.

Additional personnel have been assigned to the Adrian office to service the other counties", Mr. Barclay said.

Gerald E. Malone, formerly of Flint and Quentin Freidhoff of Romeo, have joined the staff recently. Both are graduates of Michigan State University with degrees in agriculture".

"The main activity of the Soil Conservation Service is providing technical service to plan and apply soil and water conservation practices on lands of rural Soil Conservation District Cooperators individually and in groups, or by watershed area.

Assistance is also provided to urban land owners who are in need of technical service on soil and water problems. Soil mapping of Lenawee county has been completed and the maps are useful for individual farm planning or to organized planning commissions", Mr. Barclay said.

Marilyn Baker, Recent Graduate, Is Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baker of Allen Rd., Clinton, entertained Thursday evening for the pleasure of his sister, Marilyn, of rural Tecumseh who was graduated from Olivet Nazarene College, Kankakee, Ill.

Miss Baker received many gifts from relatives who were guests.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Baker has accepted a teaching position in the Kalamazoo schools.

Graduate Fails to Stay Awake

Ronald Hathaway, 17, of rural Tecumseh apparently fell asleep at the wheel Friday at 6:50 a.m. when the car he was driving went out of control and over an embankment on M-50 west of Matthews Highway.

Ron was returning to Tecumseh after taking a friend to Tipton following an all-night party for the seniors.

He was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital where ten stitches were required to close a cut over his left eye. He was treated for other facial cuts.

A summons for violation of the basic speed law was issued by the Clinton State Police.

The drive-in church, at Devils Lake opened last Sunday with a near capacity crowd and marked the beginning of the second decade of programming.

This Sunday, June 25, at 9:15 p.m. the film "Goal To Go" will be shown. This portrays how a high school athlete defeats attempts of a gambling syndicate to "fix" football games in which he played.

VOL. 110 — ONE HUNDRED ELEVENTH YEAR — NUMBER 38 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 1961 | 16 PAGES — TEN CENTS A COPY

Teen agers of this area should be glowing with excitement and anticipation.

The new community center is being designed primarily with them in mind.

The giant room on the second floor will be for the young folks and we'll wager there isn't a city in the state that will be able to boast of a similar setup.

There is ample room — 8,000 square feet—for dances and parties, plus the nearby pond for skating in winter.

A perfect setup.

The older folks aren't being forgotten, either. The "glass room" at the west end of the building is going to be turned into a gracious meeting area.

Groups such as the Hospital Auxiliary, Monday Club, Business and Professional Women, garden clubs and other organizations will have a breath-taking spot for their gatherings.

There can be card parties and other social events, too.

It's almost too good to be true.

But it is a fact and there are a lot of folks we can thank.

The idea for such a community center has bobbed about for several years.

When Talon, Inc. announced it was going to pull out, attention was focused on this structure.

Certainly no one could beat the setting and the structure had great possibilities.

It was through the generosity of an anonymous citizen, working closely with city fathers and representatives of Talon that the dream became a reality.

We residents of Tecumseh are a lucky bunch, no question of that.

Royal Welch is really working for the Republican nomination as Con-Con candidate from Lenawee County.

He is booked for two or three talks every week in all parts of the county.

While traveling to and fro, Royal has noted that the countryside is dotted with campaign signs for various political hopefuls in long-forgotten elections.

This prompted Royal to make a vow to the public, sort of plank No. 1 in his platform, that is unusual to say the least.

"I pledge," states Royal, "Win or lose, to take down all of my signs, as well as any others along the way, not later than two weeks after the election."

Mr. Welch's other planks, if elected:

► Limit state government to some extent by granting local government more powers.

► Establish one board to govern all state colleges and universities.

► Eliminate waste and duplication in state government.

► Fight against state income tax, but approve right of local communities to levy them if they wish.

Mr. Welch also promises that he would spend full time, "without reservation," to a Constitutional Convention should he eventually be named a delegate.

THIS IS THE TALON BUILDING WHICH WILL BECOME TECUMSEH'S NEW COMMUNITY CENTER

Talon Plant Bought by City with Gift

Tecumseh will soon have a fabulous community center building for residents of all ages.

It is being made possible by a sizable donation from an anonymous citizen and through the cooperation of Talon, Inc. officials.

A check was presented the city Tuesday to be used to purchase the picturesque Talon building on Globe Pond, at the eastern edge of the city.

The zipper firm made a considerable sale-price concession when officials learned that the city would use the former factory as a recreation center for teen agers and other citizens.

Talon ends it operations here Friday and will consolidate assembly work done in Tecumseh over the past five years at another location.

☆

CONSTRUCTION WORKERS from the Krieghoff-Lenawee Co. will start a $35,000 renovation project Monday morning. The anonymous donor has agreed to pick up the tab on this, too.

Work should be completed by October.

The location and building, which will be magically transfomed into a center that will serve the entire area, is rich in history. (Note story on this subject on another page.)

Engineers have outlined a mammbth program of renovation. A major share will come on the second floor, which is at ground level on the north side of the building, facing Globe Pond.

Existing wood columns are being removed. Steel beams will be installed to support the ceiling. This will, make the room span clear from the wall to wall.

The elevator shaft, now running near the east end of the building in the center of the floor, will be removed.

An acoustical ceiling is to be installed and the existing wood floor given a new asphalt tile covering.

The third floor will also be worked over, but not as extensively as the second because for the time being the upper story will not be used.

☆

A BIG JOB FACES construction men in the basement, which is ground level on the south side that faces M-50. Unused boilers are to be removed, as will the ash conveyor and furnace stoke system.

All power panels and excess conduit and piping will be removed, an exterior wall erected to replace doors now located in the shipping room. A truck well will be filled and new concrete floor poured.

The exterior is to be completed repainted and brick sections repaired.

An outdoor patio, from the Pond side of the building, running toward the water's edge, is being considered.

The "glass room", which once contained power equipment, is being transformed into an area that will seat 250

Wrestling Match Set for July 13

Leaping Larry Chene will return to Tecumseh in a wrestling bout with Brute Bernard sponsored by the Tecumseh Rotary Club.

The match will be held in the Tecumseh High School Gymnasium Thursday, July 13, at 8:30 p.m.

Chene, 32, tipping the scales at 240 pounds, has won national fame by winning 387 out of 400 bouts. He has tied 10 and lost three.

Center Opens

For the young in heart, there's a chance for some summer fun at the new Irish Hills Trampoline Center on US-112, just east of the entrance to the state park.

It's open from 9 a.m. until 11 p.m. and is under the direction of Nick Kojic and John Prusac.

B bar J Ranch Holds Rodeo

Gene Foley of Angola, Indiana has accepted the challenge to ride "Yo Yo" at the B Bar J Ranch Rodeo Monday and Tuesday, July 3 and 4.

Famed in rodeo circuits, "Yo Yo" is a Brahma bull who has never been ridden in eight years of contest rodeos.

The bull is about ten years old and was purchased by Bob Spence, owner of the B Bar J, in Fort Worth, Texas nine years ago.

Another feature listed especially for the fifth annual B Bar J Ranch Rodeo is "Orletta and Orlando" and their famous Six Liberty Horses who were featured at the Calgary Stampede, the world's largest rodeo, in 1959.

Liberty horses are trained to work in a ring on cue from commands of the ring master.

These have worked with Wyatt Earp, performed in the Shrine Circus in Indianapolis and were the feature attraction of the rodeo at the Columbus State Fair in 1960.

The Tecumseh Kiwanis Club will operate a refreshment stand on the grounds serving hot dogs, barbecues, ice cream, pop and other goodies.

Mr. Spence was hurt in Ionia this weekend while attending a rodeo there. A bucking horse knocked him against the side of a chute, spraining his neck and shoulder.

Nevertheless he promises to be fit for the many activities at the B Bar J ranch rodeo over July 4.

Rain or shine, the two performances will begin Monday evening, July 3 at 7 p.m. and Tuesday, July 4, at 2 p.m.

The B bar J ranch is located 3 miles north of Tecumseh on M-52 and 3 miles east on Pennington Rd. Tickets are $1 for adults and 50c for children.

The Tecumseh High School Alumni Banquet was held Saturday in the high school cafeteria. About 140 persons attended this year affair and enjoyed a fine meal and a program of vocal music presented by Les Bennett and the high school madrigal singers.

Since the class of 1911 was being honored, the singers and alumni joined in a "Sing Along" of some of the tunes which were hits from 1907 thru 1911.

The eight members present from the Class of 1911 were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hodges of Grosse Pt. Farms, Leona Mager Stagg of Detroit, Bonnie Brown Bielenberg of Detroit, Deta Spaulding Van Valkenburg, Purnell Lowe Osburn, Josephine Orr Barritt Ellsworth Collins.

The class of 1961 was welcomed as alumni by Jack Osburn and a response was given by Jon Aho.

During the business meeting there was discussion at length on how to get higher attendance at future banquets. It was decided that future gatherings shall be completely under the direction of the class having graduated ten years previous.

Miss Edith Ingersoll was honored as the oldest graduate present, having completed high school and received her diploma in the class of 1893. She was presented with a beautiful doll cake.

Miss Ingersoll was extremely proud to report that she had missed only one Alumni Banquet since her graduation.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

"Lost And Found, Found, Found, Found!"

I ran one of the most important "Lost and Found" advertisements in Clarion history for the Widow Parker last week.

Seems she lost her purse with $8 in it at the last town meeting. We figured it would mean a lot to her if it were found and returned.

Well, the ad ran and the strangest thing happened! We received four envelopes—from Buck Hanson, Windy Taylor, Curly Rice and Slim Thomas. Each envelope contained a note saying the enclosed money was found in or around Town Hall. We returned the lost money with 300% interest!

From where I sit, people are pretty wonderful. I see it in a lot of little things. For instance, my neighbor always has a cold glass of beer on hand when he invites me over for dinner—though he prefers tea with his meals and has for years. His gesture is not only generous but tolerant, too . . . both are valuable assets to be "found" in any community.

Committee Needs Challengers

In less than two weeks the Tecumseh school board will appoint a Citizens Committee from names registered at the superintendent's office.

There are approximately 30 registered now, and most of these people are known to have supported the board and administration in the past and at the polls.

We would like to see some who have different ideas and who have opposed the schools, especially at the polls, register and become members of the committee.

Membership which includes citizens with different ideas and views should prove invaluable and undoubtedly benefit the administration, board and public.

Warning to Parents

One of mankind's most hideous crimes is the molesting of a child.

No community is ever immune to the potential dangers of this repulsive depravity.

One afternoon last week, a six-year-old Tecumseh girl was grabbed by a man. Her screams brought immediate help and sent the accoster running.

This incident serves as a warning to others and dads that a constant vigilance regarding the safety of their children can never be relaxed.

Youngsters must be reminded again and again not to accept candy or rides from strangers.

They should not be permitted to hang around after dark in areas where there is any possibility of trouble.

The warnings can never be repeated too many times.

We Urge Your Vote

Two forthcoming elections in July should be of concern to every local citizen.

The annual school election, being held Monday, July 10, will ask voters to select one person to fill the vacancy on the school board. Four have announced their candidacy for the position.

Because of the important school issues at hand and the need for a solution to the financial problems plaguing the district, the members on the board will be making decisions that determine the future of our educational system in Tecumseh.

Although there is not a big issue or a tax program to vote on, there is no reason why this election should be disregarded. It is your responsibility to vote July 10.

The primary election for delegates to the Constitutional Convention will be held July 25.

Such important issues as the reorganization of the executive branch of the state government, representation in the state legislature, election or appointment of judges, taxation, and powers of local governments are among the key subjects which will be under consideration at the convention.

The delegates will be your representatives at the convention. Study the qualifications and positions of each candidate and then, as a Michigan citizen who is interested in the future, vote July 25.

The 3 F's of Safety

The terrifying repetition of speed—skidding—CRASH—sirens—all spell out tragedy this weekend as motorist crowd the nation's highways over the long 102-hour holiday.

Will YOU perpetuate the cycle?

Last year, Michigan suffered from one fatality every few hours and 53 minutes during the July 4th weekend. In addition, there were numerous injury accidents during this period.

Will YOU be a fatality this year?

Heavier traffic, hurry, excitement and fatigue add significantly to holiday travel hazards, and chances for accidents are multiplied.

If Michigan is to hold the line on deaths and injuries, each motorist and pedestrian must faithfully obey the rules and watch out for the mistakes of others.

The extended Fourth of July weekend is the high point in summer traffic in Michigan. During the five-day period, traffic is expected to be two to three times greater than the average five-day period during the year.

To provide greater protection for the motorist and the pedestrian, there will be increased state patrols throughout Michigan highways.

But YOU, the driver, can provide the key to maximum protection and safety. With every driver expecting the unexpected, keeping his car under control, and displaying good motoring manners, more people will be able to enjoy the holiday at their favorite vacation spot.

For your safety and the safety of those driving beside you, don't drive too fast—too fatigued—too far.

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Well, ruffle my feathers, this isn't the time for migratory activity, usually, but the amount of getting about being done by Tecumseh residents would have us believe that it is.

Many of the young "birds", just out of school, have left the city. Among them are Jane Hodges, Nancy Beland, Camilla Grigg and Jim Bashore who left last week.

Nancy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beland, received a telegram Tuesday telling of her safe arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Rohland in Goslar Harz, Jurgenohl 2, Germany. This is Nancy's address if any of her friends would care to write to her while she is away this summer. The Rohland's have one daughter, Heide, who will soon be 16.

The Herald would like to hear from those out of town, especially the ones visiting other countries.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hodges received a card from Jane from Gander, Newfoundland where the plane set down at the International Airport on the way to Holland.

√

Sarah Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wright, and her house guest and school friend, Lauralee Friis of Oakland, Neb. left Tuesday for Guadalajar, Mexico where they will attend summer courses at the University of Guadalajar. The young ladies are specializing in Spanish.

EARLY MORNING RIDES—Chet Beach was present at Sunday's Dawn Patrol to offer rides to the children in his overland stage. The stage was drawn by two ponies.

After 12 Years—Rain

It finally happened after 12 years—rain on the morning of the Exchange Club's Dawn Patrol.

But despite misty weather and cloudy skies, 55 planes dropped in for the annual breakfast.

More than 400 guests were fed the traditional "husky" meal, as prepared by Exchangemen.

This was about half the usual number.

A ship from Bunker Hill, Ind. was the one to come from the greatest distance.

An orchid for the gal pilot making the longest trip almost went begging—no feminine aviatrix showed up. Ollie Musch, who donated the corsage, suggested that it be given to Mrs. John Kopka, who each year helps out in the chow line.

The low ceiling cancelled the parachute jumping.

Exchange members extended their thanks to A&P, Kroger, Van's Bakery, Meadowridge Dairy and Protane Gas, all of whom donated to the event.

A TRIBUTE TO TWO MEN WHO CARED

It has been a long time since I have had reason to enter the old Tecumseh High School building, now known as the Junior High, but what a shocking and appalling sight it is. A dance recital was held there last Saturday night and I couldn't help but notice the extremely bad shape of the entire property.

Believe me, it never looked like that when Mr. Cap Maynard and Mr. Al Helzerman worked there—even at its worst.

The rooms and halls used to be swept and mopped daily and the blackboards washed. The rooms were dusted, too. The front and side entrances to the building were clean also (seems as if I remember one of those gentlemen sweeping them at noon even) and the glasses in the doors must have been washed frequently. "Nobody" walked on the grass or ran behind the shrubs or cut corners or rode bikes on the lawn if they had any pride which seemed to rub off from "Al" and "Cap". If they did do these things one of the two men let them know pronto that it hadn't better happen again, and it usually didn't. Their efforts were backed up by both teachers and administrators.

If a function of any sort was to be held at the school, it always seemed as if these two had it shined up for the occasion. In other words, this was their personal job, and they cared.

When school was out these two men must have made a literal holocaust for the dirt that had accumulated over the year, because in the fall the place glittered and smelled good. Please don't accuse me of overglamorizing the past, because I am sure any of the other graduates of those times would agree, especially the boys who used to work under these two men.

I can still hear Cap Maynard yelling the kids off the grass and "Keep those bikes on the sidewalk." If keeping up the appearance of modern schools is unimportant these days, there is one thing that the efforts of Mr. Maynard and Mr. Helzerman did give us that these children are obviously not being exposed to today; and that is, any job accepted —no matter how insignificant or unimportant it may seem to some—is important enough to do well and take pride in.

It used to be a pleasure to pass the local school and see a building, lawn and shrubs that were as good looking or better than most taxpayers homes, but now this? ?

Messrs. Maynard and Helzerman didn't have school owned cars to drive around in, nor power mowers nor a large budget to include a lot of other "necessities" they didn't have, yet look at the results they gave.

Since this is the way taxpayers property is being uncared for, is it any wonder the people didn't go for a higher millage?

TO THE EDITORS:

Some types of gambling have been made illegal by our laws. However we all gamble many times each day and so gambling of itself is not wrong and certainly can never be made illegal.

The point that I want to make is that I feel the people who complained about the gambling at our local carnival are wrong. These games were conducted by local service clubs and the proceeds would have helped for community development and the promotion of youth programs, but this is not the important thing. The important thing is that some people set themselves up to be the judge of what is right and wrong for other people to do. This to the lowest degree is very unamerican and I believe very unchristian. If every person would spend more time worrying about what was right and wrong for them to do and less time worrying about what is right and wrong for their neighbors, this would be a wonderful world in which to live.

The games were closed as a direct result of a few complaints to the county prosecutor's office by a few narrow individuals. These people may have had several reasons for their complaints. However the amount of money lost could not have been a valid reason because of the nature of the games. It may have been that these people are compulsive gamblers, they may have had a deep grudge against the service clubs involved, or they may have just been trouble makers who felt like playing God. But what ever the case I strongly feel that everyone of them should see a psychiatrist as soon as possible for they may be very sick without knowing it.

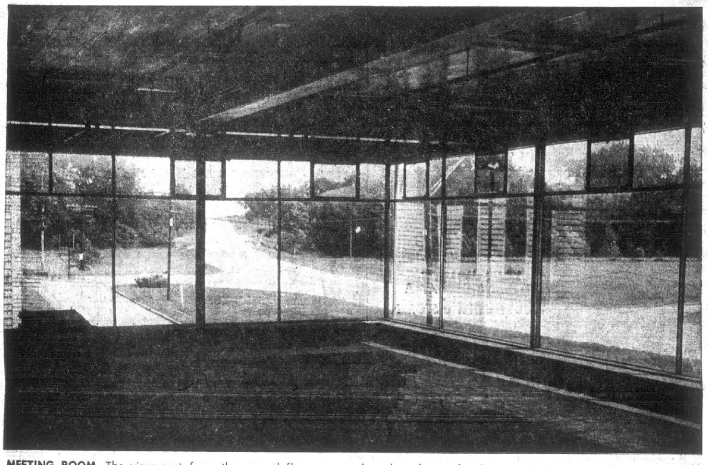
TEEN CENTER—This second floor room will be the area for the city's teenagers. The posts and elevator (center) will be removed and new floors and ceiling installed.



MEETING ROOM—The view east from the second floor room—glassed on three sides shows M-50 along the front of the building. This room will be designed for meetings and will seat approximately 250.

CITY BUYS TALON

for meetings.

The five-acre plot on which the new community center stands has parking facilities for 248 in lots to the west and east. These were installed, complete with concrete walks and street lights, by Henry Ford, but have long since been overgrown by weeds. They will be re-graded and surfaced with gravel.

Consumers Power Co. has agreed to help put the series of lights on the lots in working order.

The frame portion of the building, built by Ford in 1935 to replace the old Globe Mill, measures 136x36. The brick portion is 53x54.

☆

THE LOVELY SETTING for the center and the graceful lines of its architecture are an unbeatable combination. When all work is finished, Tecumseh will own a property worth well over $100,000.

It will be operated by the city.

The city will assume operating costs, but officials have already been assured that they will get additional gifts for this purpose over the next five years.

Site of New Center Has Great Historical Import to Community

By JULIE BOYCE

The site and building, which will become Tecumseh's new community center, has a rich and colorful history.

The original Globe Mill was built on the site that was initially chosen by Musgrove Evans when he surveyed to find a site for the village of Tecumseh.

However, when the family first arrived from Monroe they had no means of crossing the Raisin River, (at what is now M-50) so they proceeded north to settle at the spot now marked by the boulder north of the Red Mill Pond dam.

Judge Stillman Blanchard surveyed the area in 1835 and decided to build a mill on the choice water spot where the Talon building now stands.

The original company included Judge Blanchard, Joseph Russell and Asa Gardner, both of Troy, N.Y.

Two dams were constructed to form the present Globe Pond from Evans Creek. Some $34,000 was spent digging the mill race and constructing the building.

The Globe Mill was not the first mill in Tecumseh. Stafford's Mill, located near Blood's bridge began operation in 1831, and the following year, the Red Mill in Brownville was started. This building later burned in 1867.

The business was still young when the Panic of 1837 hit the country. The company was forced into bankruptcy in 1842, but Blanchard regained the property and he and Gardner continued to run the mill until 1853.

Four men from New York purchased the mill that year and then sold it to Thomas Baylis of Tecumseh and Charles C. Neukerck of New York. They operated the mill from 1853 to 1857.

In August of 1858, William Hayden bought the Mill at a sheriff's sale and the property remained in the Hayden family until 1933.

The Globe Mill received its name back in 1839. Suspended from the eaves at either end of the mill roof were two large copper globes, about two feet in diameter. Thus the mill came to be called the Globe Mill.

William Hayden died in 1896. In 1897, the William Hayden Milling Co. was formed with Levi C. Hayden, his son, as manager.

Levi and his brother, Will, remodeled the mill after the Panic of 1897, but the first day the mill was in operation, March 25, 1898, it caught fire and burned to the ground. A new mill was immediately erected on the same site.

The operations of the mill were moved to the present site on South Pearl St. in 1927, but the old Globe mill was used for storage until 1933.

At this time, the mill and surrounding land were taken over by Mr. Ford. Mr. Ford razed the mill to build the present structure.

This work was done by welfare employees from Ford's Detroit plants. Mr. Ford spent around $250,000 rebuilding the mill, and installing the steam turbine.

The present building was dedicated on the 100th Anniversary of the founding of the mill—on May 17, 1935—by Chief Kiutls Tecumseh.

It was thought that Henry Ford was planning to use the mill to grind soy beans grown on his farms in this area, but the mill was never used for this purpose.

During the Ford ownership, the building housed an assembly plant building electrical equipment for Ford cars. Later the space was used for storage for Ford materials.

In 1951, the Ford Motor Co. sold the property to the Universal Button Co. of Detroit. The company operated the factory for four years until it moved to Lawrencebury, Ky. in 1955.

The property was then sold to Talon, Inc. who began packaging zippers in July, 1956, and continued operation until this spring.

WHAT FORD LEFT—These light fixtures that were installed by Henry Ford in his parking lot will be repaired to light the total area, which has room for 250 cars. The parking lots and the concrete walkways will be cleaned and repaired.

Stage Coaches Center Table at Bridal Shower

A pre-nuptial shower for Betty Lou Andrews, whose marriage to Airman Theodore Kempf will be an event of July 1, was held Thursday at the Country Club.

A western theme suggesting the couple's move to Lincoln, Neb. was used in decorating. Stage coaches were centerpieces with the slogans. "Nebraska or Bust" and "New Frontiers."

Dessert was served to 40 guests early in the afternoon by the hostesses, Mrs. Joe Horvath, Mrs. Ted Pihl and Mrs. William Macbeth.

Gifts were presented from a miniature stage coach with tiny bride and groom dolls seated on the coach. The groom was appropriately dressed in an air force uniform.

Diana June Seagert Weds Harry Pape Jr.

BRITTON — In a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening Diana June Seagert and Harry R. Pape Jr. were united in marriage in the Britton Congregational Christian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Seagert and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Pape of Bangor.

The Rev. Gustav Hannevik, pastor of the church, performed the double ring service.

Preceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Lee Spohr of Britton, sang "Because" and "I Take Thee My Dear."

Accompanied by Peggy Jo Peklington at the organ, she sang "The Lord's Prayer" while the couple knelt at the altar.

The chancel was beautiful with the glow of tall cathedral candelabra and palms.

The pris-dieu was flanked with large spiral candelabra faced with arrangements of white flowers.

The altar was enhanced with bouquets of white carnations and mums. The family section of the church was marked with white satin bows and flowers.

She chose a floor length gown of pure silk organza styled with a rounded neckline and short sleeves and edged with Alencon lace. Appliques of the same lace adorned the full skirt which flowed into a chapel length train. Tiny iridescent sequins and seed pearls trimmed the bodice.

A circlet of silk organza roses edged with seed pearls held in place the three-tiered silk illusion veil.

Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white butterfly roses and stephanotis, with strands of ivy.

Karen Shaffoe of Laramie, Wyo., former college classmate of the bride, was the maid of honor.

She wore a pale pink silk organza dress, styled with a rounded neckline and a rose colored sash ending in the back with a drape from the waist to the hemline.

Her pink crown was adorned with crystal tear drops.

Bridesmaids were Marion MacDonald of Detroit, and Marilyn Pape of Benton Harbor.

Their gowns were styled identically to the maid of honor.

Linda Seagert, served as her sister's junior bridesmaid, wearing a silk organza pale pink floor length dress. Her crown was identical to those worn by the other attendants.

Beautiful cascade arrangements of shaded pink carnations were carried by the attendants.

They all wore white gloves and crystal tear drop earrings, gifts of the bride.

The bridegroom asked Charles Huttula of Pontiac, a college roommate to be his best man.

The guests were seated by Ronald Paler of Detroit, and Richard Seagert.

Ricky Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Brown, served as a junior attendent.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cheever greeted the 400 guests at a reception held immediately after the ceremony in the Tecumseh Products Union Hall.

The bridal table, flounced with white linen and swags of pink silk, was centered with a five tiered wedding cake topped with a dainty lace heart centering a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Clara Schumann and Mrs. William Pape cut and served the cake. Mrs. Robert Hockin was in charge of the guest book.

Others assisting with the serving were Mrs. Albra Clark, Mrs. Arthur Brenke, Sandra Clark, Brenda and Sharon Brenke and Yvonne and Sharon Papenhagen.

Also assisting were Marilyn Long and Pearl Menegan.

Mrs. Clyde Papenhagen and Mrs. Clifford Papenhagen were in charge of the gifts.

The bride, a graduate of Britton-Macon High School in 1957, received her certificate in Dental Hygiene from the University of Michigan in 1960.

Dr. Pape graduated from Hirich High School in Chicago, Ill. and attended Western Michigan University for his pre-dentistry study.

June 17 he received his Doctorate of Dental Surgery from the University of Michigan.

He was commissioned a lieutenant in the United States Navy and will report for duty July 12 at the Great Lakes Naval Station. Dr. and Mrs. Pape will reside on the base.

"What can I do about this pain?"

Customers often ask questions like this. And every year we sell perhaps a ton of pain relievers. Relievers. That's the point. We can sell simple analgesics, but we can't prescribe drugs to eliminate the cause of pain. Diagnosing and prescribing are in your physician's province. We, as professional pharmacists, work with doctors, providing the drugs they order. So, if you have any kind of a persistent pain, see your physician. We shall be pleased to provide any medication which may be prescribed.

Summer Recreation

Tecumseh has planned a full recreation program for the summer with fun for young and old.

The Tot Lots are located at Herrick Park, Patterson, Tecumseh Acres School, West Branch School and one lot that will move from week to week. These lots are open from 9 a.m. until noon and feature activities for ages pre-school to 10 years. Included in the activities are handicraft, games, story telling, pet shows, picnics and many others which interest the children.

Pee Wee Baseball is organized for boys seven to nine. The four teams are handled by Craig Rosaerans, John Oberlin, Tim Sisson and David Blanden. About 50 boys are participating in the program at the athletic field Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Cub League Baseball is for boys 10 through 12. They play on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 5:30 p.m. at the newly constructed diamonds. A total of 120 boys on eight teams make up the league.

The Cub Minor League is composed of six teams. They play Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Cub League diamonds at 5:30 p.m. One hundred eight boys are participating in this program.

Four teams from Tecumseh and one from Clinton and from Deerfield compose the Pony League for boys 13 and 14. The Tecumseh teams are: VFW managed by George Ruhl, Products, managed by Curtis Belcher, Legion managed by Glen Work and the Indians managed by Herb Maynard. The teams will play ten games. The Pony League diamond is located on the North Athletic Field at the high school. Fifty-two boys are participating in the league from Tecumseh.

All boys playing in the Cub, Minors and Pony League are covered by insurance.

For the girls there are two programs of softball. The Jr. Girls teams are for girls 12-14. Three teams have been organized and from these an all-star team will be chosen to play an all-star team from Britton.

For the girls 15-18, there's Sr. Girls Softball. These girls play in a league composed of Girls Training School, Deerfield, Hudson and Britton. Carol Kapnick has charge of these two programs.

Blooper Ball is a version of softball for men over 30. There is still room for any number of teams, but only one has been turned in so far. Each player is asked to contribute one dollar in this league as an entry fee. Anyone interested in placing a team in the league should contact Duncan Leetka. Play will begin as soon as the team lists are in.

The girls have already started organizing a tennis program under the direction of Carol Kapnick. She is offering lessons for girls 12-18 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 3:30 to 5 p.m.

Those interested in Tennis tournament play should sharpen up for the action which will begin July 17. The courts are going to be improved and a new net and new screen installed.

Fields of Play

TOT LOT TALK

HERRICK PARK — Monday about 35 boys and girls came to the playground. Many played games such as softball, croquet, checkers, cards, and horseshoe throwing, but the majority worked on handicrafts. Lee Ann Ward and Michael House assisted Linda Refner in teaching braiding to the group.

Due to poor picnic weather on Friday only 10 boys and girls came, so they decided to have the picnic the following Monday.

PATTERSON — This week at Patterson everyone has been busy. Each day 15 to 20 children have attended for three hours of fun with their fellow playmates. Some introduced new games and taught them to the other children. Handicrafts in leather are provided for the children to purchase and make. Lou Ann Hewitt, Jack Pence, Susan Prettyman and Larry Getz made the small leather wrist purse.

Friday was picnic day. Each child brought a sandwich and what they wanted to eat. The drink was kool-aid, and chocolate chip cookies were served for desert. Although the weather was a little cool, a good time was had by all.

We all have a barrel of fun at the Tot Lot and would like to invite all the other children in the neighborhood to come and join in the fun.

Next week the roving playground will be located at Adams Park. July 10 the playground will move to River Acres.

JR. GIRLS SOFTBALL began Monday afternoon with 30 girls signing to play.

They have been divided into three teams. Each team has a captain who will direct the team, call each girl on her team to notify them when a game has been cancelled, and substitute each girl so everyone will get to play.

Insects Damage Spruce Trees in Michigan

Several pesky insects are real hazards in growing high-quality Christmas trees in Michigan, says James Sprague, agricultural agent for Lenawee County.

Research at the Michigan State Agricultural Experiment Station is resulting in a better shaped tree for Michigan growers by developing ways to control these insects. Three of them are the European pine shoot moth, Eastern spruce gall aphid and the Zimmerman pine moth.

A single application of DDT or Sevin gives excellent control if applied to the tree when all adults have emerged from the pupal cases—usually about July 4 in the Lower Peninsula.

The spruce gall aphid disfigures white and Norway spruce. This pest can be controlled with a single spray of lindane. The application is made in the spring after the last freeze and before the shoots come out.

The culling of badly infected trees can help avoid injury to other trees in the stand.

New research trials are underway to learn better ways to control the Zimmerman moth. Growers have had generally poor control from the use of the common insecticides, and better controls are needed.

County Ladies Promote 4-H Leader Training

In an effort to raise $585 towards the building of a dormitory at Camp Kett, the Farm Bureau Women of Lenawee County are asking county residents to buy a Camp Kett Button to promote adequate leadership for our 4-H boys and girls.

"The 4-H is dedicated to developing clean minds and hearts," writes Mrs. Arch Thompson, state chairman of the Farm Bureau Women, "and we know that where 4-H Clubs flourish, they help our youth become good young Americans and enable J. D. to stand for 'Juvenile Decency' instead of 'Juvenile Delinquency.' It was because of this that Farm Bureau Women of Michigan volunteered to raise the money to build one 60-bed dormitory at Camp Kett."

Of special concern to these women were the recent riots throughout the world caused by Communism working on the young people. In Japan, Korea and Turkey, riots were staged by college students. Even more significant were the recent riots on the West Coast in May, 1960.

With the growth of the 4-H program, there is need for better and more varied training of over 12,000 volunteer leaders to work with these young folks.

Several years ago the 4-H Foundation purchased a tract at Center Lake, 12 miles south of Cadillac, for 4-H leadership training. The camp will be available to other organizations for leader training and special conferences, but the emphasis will be on youth.

A button may be purchased by sending a donation (at least 50c) to the Lenawee County Farm Bureau Office, R. 1, Adrian or to Mrs. Orville C. Pontious, R. 3, Morenci.

Neil DePuy and Earl Kotts are leaving Saturday for Fish Lake Resort near Webb Lake, Wis. for a fishing vacation.

The meaning of being cared for is this: it is knowing you can have the best of everything . . . the skill of all the people, the benefit of all the medicines, the help of all the equipment your illness may demand. This costs money. But Blue Cross-Blue Shield believe there is no such thing as being half-sick. That's why Blue Cross-Blue Shield comprehensive coverages assure you the protection you need when you need it. Yet for those who feel they simply can't afford this complete coverage, Blue Cross-Blue Shield offer modified programs, too, deductible and economy plans that provide coverage as inclusive as their lower initial rates will permit. If you have never looked into the many advantages of Blue Cross-Blue Shield membership, shouldn't you do it now? Just contact our enrollment specialist in your area.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

MR. AND MRS. CARDINAL AND FAMILY

It all began way back in the middle of April; that was when Mama Cardinal started building her nest. For better than a week before this, she and her handsome mate had looked and looked and looked. Finally, the lease was signed and our cardinal adventure really began.

Where was the nest—well, in front of the window next to the garage there stands a trellis upon which a honey-suckle bush climbs and in this bush, between the trellis and the window, the red ones built.

It was wonderful spot as far as showing off their family raising techniques but we worried about cats and dozens of other harmful things. As it turned out, our fears were groundless.

All this was happening at the other end of the house but Mom, Dad, Gram and Ida did a wonderful job of keeping me posted. At first the nest building progressed at an agonizingly slow pace.

We were all just sure it wouldn't be ready when egg-laying time came. Again we were wrong.

The birds worked just a short time each day, a few twigs would be put in place and off they would go galavanting around the neighborhood.

Most of the building material was, as explained several articles ago, taken right from the honeysuckle bush itself. How convenient!

As might be expected, Mama Cardinal did most of the work. But Papa Cardinal kept close track of what was going on and now and then added a twig or two.

☆

THE FOLKS said it was amazing to see how much the birds did, their only tools, of course, being bills and feet. She would take a twig, and with much poking and pulling, weave it into place—Mom one day laughed as Mrs. C. stamped and at last had to resort to jumping up and down on a particularly hard to manage branch.

Finally the birds quit playing around and started working on the nest quite seriously. The work went fast then and in no time at all she was putting the finishing touches on the inside.

Everything had to be just so—she would sit in the nest, wiggle around a little, then stand up and make a few corrections. The result of all this work was a pretty little nest.

THURSDAY, May 11, was time for rejoicing—that morning Mom saw one egg in the nest. Friday there was another—about noon we had a scare when Ida peeked out and saw only one egg. Nothing was wrong however; when Mama Cardinal turned her eggs one had simply rolled to the edge of the nest and out of sight. Thank goodness.

Saturday morning there was a third egg. Wow! The eggs, by the way, were small, cream in color and mottled with brownish spots. Now the suspense really began—would there be a successful hatching?

But I see our Cardinal adventure is running me out of space so we'll continue next week.

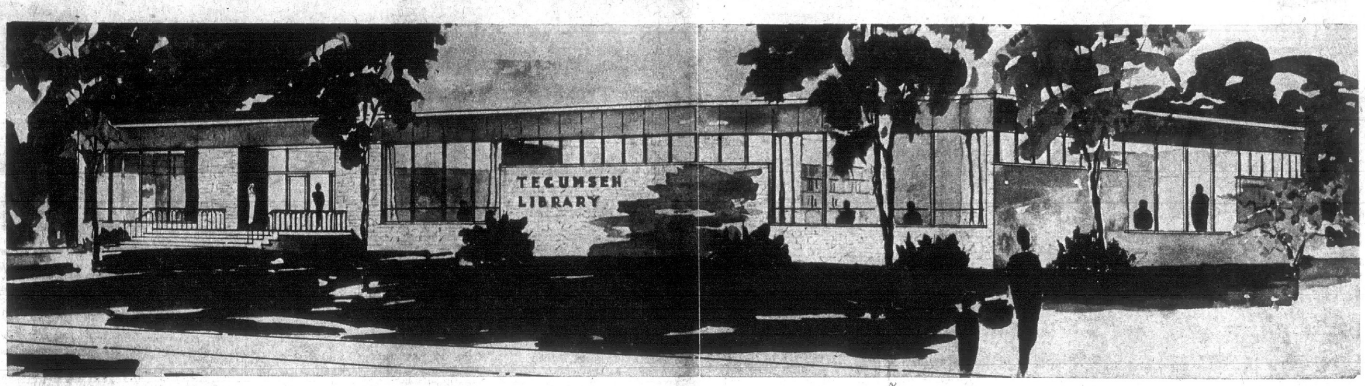
New Library Will Be Started This Year



A library will be built here in late summer or early fall by the Tecumseh Commmunity Fund Foundation.

This is the first "brick and mortar" project undertaken by the Foundation.

Formed only two years ago, this unique organization has a combination purpose: to raise money for charity and provide funds for needed civic projects.

The Foundation board members expect their treasury will contain $120,000 by the time ground is broken. Additional money will come each fall from "overage" given to the annual charity campaign.

The Foundation board OKed the preliminary architectural plans submitted by its library project committee June 27.

The new library will be situated in the park immediately west of the Tecumseh Junior High School and cost more than $200,000. The location, owned by the city, is almost in the geographic center of the city. There will be ample parking facilities located adjacent to the building.

Two intensive studies have been made regarding local library facilities:

► A professional survey was conducted more than a year ago by the Library Board.

► The Foundation Action Committee of Tecumseh, better known as FACT and appointed by the board, did a detailed study last June.

Both reports have contributed vital details to the current project.

The new one-story building will have more than 10,000 square feet and offer room for at least 35,000 volumes, double the current number.

The present library is about 3,000 square feet, including both floors.

The 11-member library project committee, chaired by William Wright, who also is a member of the Library Board, has been at work since March studying library needs of the community, visiting various libraries and preparing recommendations to the Foundation.

Another Library Board member is Joseph Galazzi. Robert Bonner and Arthur Schwartz represent the city council; James McDowell and Aden Mead, the schools; Mrs. Oscar Bryan, from FACT; Jack Curtiss and Stuart Costigan, United Products Workers Union; and Dr. Carlton Cook and the Rev. Paul Brantingham, City Planning Commission.

The Library Board is appointed by the School Board and currently includes besides Mr. Wright and Mr. Galazzi, Mrs. Laine Holden, Mrs. Jens Touborg, Mrs. James Beardsley, Allen Russell and the Rev. Frank Hawthorne.

The library with the same board will continue to be part of the Tecumseh School District, serving 86-square miles.

Tecumseh's present library was erected in 1904 and its layout has remained unchanged since then.

As a school district library—providing for all adults and children in the area—it now has a potential of 14,000 patrons. This number is expected to double in the next decade.

There currently are 2,950 adults and 1,225 children registered as card holders.

Circulation of books and other materials from the library has increased over 400% since 1954.

Annual library budget is $24,000. Income is derived from a one-half mill school district tax, state penal fines and local library fines.

The general public Jan. 10, in an open meeting held by the Foundation at the United Products Workers Union Hall, approved building a library.

Another FACT survey choice—a community center—came unexpectedly into reality last week when an anonymous citizen donated funds to buy the old Talon plant.

Work of the library project committee was praised by the Foundation Board at its June 27 session.

TOM RIORDAN'S Long AND Short

Let's pretend you're editor of The Herald.

You always look forward to landing a really big story, but you must admit you feel a mite queezy in the pit of your stomach when one comes along.

You worry honestly that you might not do it justice.

Then, wham, a giant hits.

Your city is going to have a $100,000 community center—all donated by a local citizen.

The keys on your typewriter just won't go fast enough as you hammer out the wonderful news.

You want to cover every angle, make your readers sense the excitement that such an event brings.

At last the press rolls, you sit back, a little weary, but you're extremely happy, too.

However, there is no time to relax and enjoy things.

Suddenly you discover lightning has struck twice, another equally fantastic bit of news has broken.

Now your city is going to have a quarter-million-dollar library, in addition to the community center.

It's incredible, you gasp to yourself, realizing that few small communities such as yours have either of these things ever happen, let alone both and almost on the same day.

You hustle to make sure the library gets the coverage and typographical impact the community center yarn received.

Facts and figures swirl about your brain.

Now you want to prepare an editorial on these two subjects, to sum up the tremendous news which has happened so fast and with such tremendous consequence to your fellow townspeople.

What do you say? What phrases will express the turbulence you experience?

This is a tough assignment.

Pancakes and Moonlight

Two of the retail merchants' most successful annual promotions —the free pancake supper and the moonlight sale—are being combined this year.

They're scheduled for Friday, July 14.

Free pancakes, butter, syrup, coffee and milk will be served from 6 until 9 p.m.

Stores will be closed these hours and then opened from 9 until 12.

Serving will be from the city's fire station with tables set up on the parking lot between the station and Wright's Drug Store.

During the meal a jazz combination, headed by Don Johnson will provide music in the dining area.

Merchants estimate they'll feed 4,000.

Gals To Hold Pancake Race

There's going to be a pancake race for housewives as part of the July 14 Pancake Supper and Moonlight Sale.

It's being patterned exactly after the one held annually in Olney, England since the 15th Century.

This is the race in which each gal is given a nine-inch skillet containing one pancake. They walk, trot or run a course 415 yards long.

En route they scamper under three ribbons, eight feet off the ground. Over each they must flip the pancake and catch it as it comes down the opposite side.

Some years ago, women of Liberal, Kansas challenged the women of Olney to a race.

The event, which attracted nation-wide publicity in newspapers, magazine and TV, was run off via trans-Atlantic telephone with times of various contestants compared as the gals on each side of the ocean ran identical 415-yard courses.

Merchants are inviting local married women to enter the event. They may sign up at The Herald office, on S. Evans St., immediately across from the city's fire station.

☆

THE PANCAKE RACE idea has also become a tradition at Disneyland, where the event is held each year just before the beginning of Lent.

In the last Disneyland race, champions from California, Washington, Arizona, Nevada,

Colorado and Idaho competed. More than 200 contestants took part.

The race was preceded by a parade of hopeful housewives, officials, bands, Mickey and Minnie Mouse, the Mad Hatter and Alice and other Disney characters.

Athletic coaches from local high schools were selected to act as official race timer.

Merchants here are mapping out a regulation 415-yard course and hope to get coaches to officiate.

Contestants will be divided into heats and the winners of each compete for the title as "Michigan's Champion Pancake Racer."

Fire Damages at Quick Lunch

Fire, probably originating from a wastepaper basket, severely damaged the pool room behind the Quick Lunch restaurant about 12:45 Saturday morning.

The fire damaged a section of the wall and ceiling and burned some pool equipment. Smoke filled the building, and firemen, who were at the scene for nearly two hours, entered the building with masks.

The restaurant, closed Monday, was open for business Wednesday. The poolroom will probably be closed for the rest of the week.

Robert Aten Will Head Fund Drive

A series of special meetings held within recent weeks terminated in the adoption of a master program by the Tecumseh Community Foundation Fund, Inc. on June 27.

Robert Aten of Radio Station WABJ, was named as the general chairman of the 1961 Community Fund Drive.

Neither Mr. Aten nor the Foundation have determined the dates for the drive, nor the amount to be set as a goal as yet.

A further meeting between Mr. Aten and the Foundation Trustees will establish each of these items.

The Trustees however did adopt a $20,150 Charity and Community budget.

It was the decision of the Foundation Trustees that besides the Michigan United Fund, which serves 34 charities throughout the state, that 12 other local and county groups will participate in the disbursements.

Local and county groups participating are:

Tecumseh Service Club, Inc.
Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce
City of Tecumseh (recreation contribution)
American Red Cross
Catholic Social Service
Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic
Lenawee County Humane Society
Salvation Army
Wolverine Council
Boy Scouts of America
Irish Hills Girl Scout Council
Tecumseh Scout Cabin Association.

Four To Vie in Election

Four candidates will vie for the one opening on the school board at Monday's annual Board of Education election.

Voting will take place July 10 in the high school cafeteria from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Dr. Ralph Helzerman, a member of the board for 14 years, declined to run again for the position.

Those seeking the four-year term are John Robinson, Allen Russell, June Stone and William Wright. Pictures, thumb-nail sketches and statements by the candidates appear on page 2.

Don Purkey is also running for the position as a write-in candidate.

Registered electors of the city or township are eligible to vote in this election.

Heated Hay May Cause Extensive Damage on Farms

Fires from spontaneous combustion of hay have destroyed at least 1.25 million dollars worth of Michigan buildings in the last four years.

Spontaneous heating can destroy up to 40 per cent of the total dry matter in hay that doesn't burn up costing American farmers 75 million dollars a year—perhaps more than the fire loss.

Excessive moisture causes rapid fermentation. This produces heat and may lead to spontaneous combustion. Short-chopped or baled hay will store safely if put in the barn at 22 per cent moisture without going through a hay drying system.

There are three ways to find out if hay is safe to store.

First, twist a handful of hay. It's safe if the stems seem slightly brittle and the twisting brings no sign of moisture.

Second, scrape the outer layer of skin on the hay stem. Hay can be stored safely if this thin layer doesn't peel off.

Third, notice whether the hay stays dry and fairly brittle when pieced in the shade. If so, it's safe to put the hay in the mow.

A hay drying system provides positive control of spontaneous heating. "But it's still important to put this hay in at the right moisture content—ideally about 35 per cent."

Six Attending 43rd Annual 4-H Club Week

Six local 4-H members will be among those from Lenawee County who will share in the 43rd Annual 4-H Club Week at Michigan State University, July 11-14.

Delegates will be divided into groups representing twelve different countries and will study the customs of their country. Special sessions will be held on a wide variety of careers.

Tours through the Oldsmobile plant and the Capitol should round out a time of many varied and exciting experiences.

Attending from this area will be Angela Lopez of Ridgeway, Carl Bower, Lee Wagner and Roger Bortel of Britton; and Dennis Avery and Frank Creger of Tecumseh.

Urges Polio Protection

Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, today reminded Michigan residents who haven't been immunized against polio that there is still time to be at least partially protected before the seasonal peak arrives for this disease which each year needlessly cripples hundreds of American of all ages.

The peak of the polio season is usually in late August or early September in Michigan.

Even though polio continues to strike hardest and most frequently among the very young, each year finds breadwinners and even persons over 65 among the victims of this crippling disease.

Immunization against polio should start at age three months The first injection in an initial series of three is followed by a second a month later and the third seven months after that.

They're Running for Board Post

ALLEN RUSSELL

MRS. JUNE STONE

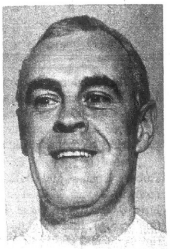
Allen S. Russell, father of two children, is the advertising manager at the Tecumseh Products Co.

He received his master's degree in Business from Dartmouth College.

Mr. Russell is a member of the library board, the Tecumseh Country Club Board, and the Episcopal Church.

"As a parent with two children in grade school," he states, "I want to see Tecumseh have an outstanding educational program. As a taxpayer, I want to see this done within the income available to the school district.

"I believe furthermore that these aims are compatible and if elected, I will do everything I can to achieve both objectives."



WILLIAM WRIGHT

Bill Wright, 47, is married and the father of two daughters. He resides at 104 E. Chicago Blvd. and operates C. A. Wright & Son.

He graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1932, earned his bachelor of science degree from Kenyon College in 1936 and received a degree in pharmacy from Ferris Institute in 1940.

Mr. Wright states: "The present School Board is doing an excellent job. I think that in order to correct any imbalance in the school budget, the board should try to fit outgo with income."

A rural resident of the school district, June N. Stone and her husband, Robert F. Stone, live on a dairy farm northeast of Tecumseh.

She has three boys in school.

Mrs. Stone received her bachelor's degree from Michigan State University and her Master's from Cornell University. She is now teaching part time at Adrian College.

"I believe that the average citizen of Tecumseh has a right to expect that the Board of Education should present a long range plan including both building and operating needs on a business-like basis," she states.

"To me, being businesslike means deciding what you need, and then determining how much of it you can afford.

"Those in the Tecumseh school district and the teachers in the system deserve the opportunity to examine the plan to decide how it affects them as individuals."

JOHN ROBINSON

John Robinson, a graduate of Adrian High School, now lives at 1210 Shady Lane. He is employed by Clinton Engines, Corp.

Mr. Robinson, 34, has three children, two of them now in grade school.

"I believe there should be a member of the board who has young children in school now and for several years to come," he states.

"I don't like the idea of our younger children going half days when I feel something could be done about it. I believe some of the money could be spent a little wiser."

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meyer and daughter Ann Marie of Napoleon, O. called on Mr. and Mrs. David Younglove Sunday.

What happens to tired, old railroad depots when the passenger business drops off to almost nothing?

If you get up to northern Michigan this summer you'll probably see a few former stations—all beautiful in new dress.

Depots at Indian River and Petoskey are examples.

A few years back the New York Central announced it would like to sell the seldom-used stations.

A Detroit advertising executive, Jack McCarthy, who has a cabin in Indian River, bought the station there.

He and his wife had been thinking about some sort of summer business and the depot's size and location lent itself beautifully to their plan.

They settled on an exclusive novelty store and are now entering their second season with the "Of Cabbages and Kings Gift Shoppe."

Mrs. McCarthy, the mother of six, runs the business, getting an assist from her husband on weekends.

The McCarthy youngsters are cared for during business hours by a housekeeper at the family cabin, located in a wooded area near Indian River.

The whole operation seems to be working out well. The railroad, which still runs trains daily, has unloaded surplus property and the McCarthys have an excellent spot for their vacation enterprise.

At Petoskey there are two stations, one completely made over into a commercial venture (a gift shop, what else) and the other, in the heart of the city, divided into several ventures.

The railroad has a small office in the latter, but the structure, is dominated by a swank shop and offices of several professional people and the local Chamber of Commerce.

Outdoor Dance To Feature the 'Playboys'

"The Playboys" will entertain Tecumseh teenagers and adults at the first midsummer outdoor dance in the parking lot of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church Saturday, July 15.

This event is sponsored by the St. Elizabeth Altar Society from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. Music will be provided for both round and square dancing.

The parking lot, now asphalted, will feature gay lights and decorations with tables surrounding the dance area.

Tickets are available or may be purchased at the door.

The committee is planning to turn this event into an annual affair for the whole community.

IT'S JUST TOO SMALL—The library "on th corner" will soon yield to a new structure to be built later this year by the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation. Overcrowded for the past several years, this library houses 17,000 volumes in approximately 3,000 square feet. Because of the important educational value of improved library facilities, the Trustees gave this building project first preference with the Foundation money—nearly $140,000. No plans have yet been announced for the future of the old building, which is owned by the Board of Education.

Tardy Wife Started Race Idea in 1445

Did you know that there is an official Pancake Day?

It's traditionally the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday.

That's how it happened that this pancake race business got its start.

In old England housewives flocked to churches on Pancake Day to be "shriver" or absolved of their sins.

At the tolling of the bell in the morning, it was customary for the housewife to drop whatever she was doing and hurry to church.

Since this was also the day for feating and eating pancakes in the small town, these holiday cakes soon became known as "shriving cakes" because they were made on the day the women were "shriven" of their sins.

One day, over 500 years ago, as legend has it, a wife in Olney started baking her pancakes rather late.

They weren't quite finished when the church bell rang, but she hurried off to the "shriving" carrying her griddle and pancake with her.

Villagers were much amused at the sight of this housewife racing through the street flipping her pancake in the skillet.

It was this incident in the year 1445 that led to the start of the famous Olney Pancake Race Day.

Citizens decided that a Pancake Day Race from the village pump to the church, a distance of 415 yards, should become an annual event.

Each year since, housewives of Olney have gathered at 11 a.m. for their annual derby to the church steps.

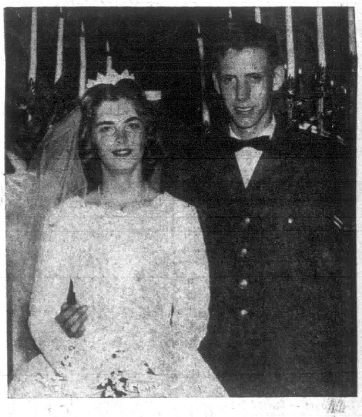
Following a week's vacation at Lake Louise, Mich. the newly married couple will make their home in Cambridge, Mass.

The rehearsal dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jordan at the church, June 23.

Betty Andrews Marries Theodore Kempf



A bank of Jade Palm foliage, white gladioli and majestic daisies outlined the entire chancel of the Presbyterian Church Saturday afternoon for the wedding of Betty Lou Andrews and Airman Theodore Kempf.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Andrews and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kempf.

The Rev. B. O. Bashore performed the double ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schwartz sang "Because", "I Believe" and "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Julia Boyce.

Cathedral candelabra with arrangements of Jade foliage and satin bows interspersed the chancel flowers.

Bouquets of daisies and lemon foliage decorated the aisle candelabra and tall white entrance candles with cascades of ivy marked the carpeted aisle.

The bride chose a gown in traditional design of silk mist ordanza with chapel train and bodice trimmed with Chantilly lace and iridescent sequins. The bodice featured a sabrina neckline, long sleeves with points ending over the hands and a pert organza bow.

Her finger-tip veil was attached to a double crown of pearls and lace.

Joan Allshouse, Bonnie Buscheimer and Linda Andrews were the bride's attendants, wearing gowns of yellow chiffon trico accented by cummerbunds of tropunto trim with floating back panels.

They wore matching head pieces of illusion with trico bows

Arthur W. Marcouillier of Rhode Island was best man and the ushers were Mitchell Francis of Oklahoma, John Baker and Barry Seidel of Tecumseh.

The rooms of the Country Club were transformed into a garden setting for the reception for 200 guests. Lighted cylinders formed a background at the fireplace.

Tall trees of yellow roses holding gay colored bauble lights with burning candles enclosed, made an impressive setting against the lighted background.

A four-tiered water fountain with yellow roses floating and a bird bath with two gaily colored birds accented one corner of the garden.

The bride's table skirted in yellow taffeta with overskirt of white nylon tulle held a four-tiered cake with four heart shaped cakes as a base.

It was flanked with silver candelabra arranged with white snapdragons and yellow roses.

The buffet table and punch tables were decorated in similar design. Quad-lites with candle lighted bright colored globes and baskets of white snapdragons and yellow roses were suspended from the ceiling.

The newly married couple will make their home in Lincoln, Neb. where the groom is stationed at the Air Force Base.

A rehearsal dinner was given Friday evening at Don's Grill by the groom's parents.

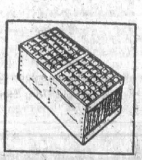
LIVESTOCK NEED PLENTY OF WATER during summer months. For dairy cows especially, it's important to provide it right in the pasture so they won't use up energy unnecessarily walking to and from the barn. A temporary pipeline can be extended to some nearby pastures by laying plastic tubing. On the other hand, you may wish to supply water in pastures by using a tank equipped with drinking cups and mounted on a wagon chassis.

HARVEST SMALL GRAIN AT UP TO 20% MOISTURE as long as you have equipment to dry it down to 12% required for safe storage. Reduction in field loss will usually more than offset the cost of drying the grain. In most instances, drying costs won't exceed 5c per bushel. But don't overdry. This will only add to drying costs and reduce the weight of grain you sell.



REDUCE EGG BREAKAGE by making sure hens get plenty of oyster shell. Reduced appetite often leads to thin shells during hot weather. Problem can be offset by sprinkling oyster shells on top of the feed to assure a sufficient calcium intake. You may also want to have your feedman mix one ounce of ascorbic acid per ton of feed to supply vitamin E which improves shell quality.

MAKE BEST USE OF PASTURE GROWTH for the rest of the season by adjusting grazing methods. Rotate cattle between pastures or fence off sections within the pasture. Also, separate milking cows from the dry cows and replacement heifers so producers get first choice on best grass. Keep weeds and mature grass clipped to make way for new growth.

Students Built Model Dwellings

Students in the Industrial Arts classes of both the Junior and Senior High Schools undertake various projects, including wood work, copper plaques, leather work and model homes during the school year.

Model homes, built to scale, were constructed as a requirement in the class of Charles Gross.

Prior to the construction of the models, each student was required to draught a floor plan, front, rear and side elevations

An average of 37 hours was spent on each of the four models, made mostly of balsa wood and construction board mounted on plywood.

Realistic roofs were attained by using sandpaper, cut in strips.

One of the models has a kidney shaped swimming pool in the backyard, greatly adding to the detail of the model.

Flag Given to Ontario's Tecumseh

Eleven local citizens were present in Tecumseh, Ontario, Canada, to witness the dedication of its new municipal buildings, June 24.

The official opening of the municipal buildings—fire station, council rooms and city office, and police department offices—took place at 3 p.m. and was followed by a banquet at 6 p.m.

Mayor Harold Easton was on the dedication program, presenting to the Canadian city a new 50-star flag for its council rooms from this Tecumseh city.

During the program, a plaque was presented to Mayor Easton from Tecumseh, Ontario, residents expressing their appreciation for the visit to help celebrate the opening of the buildings.

Attending from Tecumseh besides Mayor Easton and his wife were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Mackin, Mr. and Mrs. Don Murphy and Police Chief Murell Clark.

BRING BACK PLAQUE — Mayor Harold Easton (right) holds the plaque he received during a recent ceremony at Tecumseh, Ontario, also attended by councilman Terry Mackin (left) and Royal Welch. The award reads, "Presented to Mayor Harold Easton and his Council of Tecumseh, Michigan in appreciation of their visit to T ecumseh, Ontario to help celebrate the official opening of the municipal building, July 24, 1961." It was signed by Mayor Wallace D. Baillageon and Council.

Rev. Wittrup To Be Guest

This Sunday, and for the following two Sundays, the Reverend Allen Wittrup will be the guest minister at the Presbyterian Church.

Times of the morning services remain the same with Church School at 9:45 and the worship service at 11:00.

VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL at the Presbyterian Church begins Monday, July 10 and will be held from one to three each afternoon.

This year's Church School, like preceding years, will last for two weeks and will conclude on Friday, July 21.

There will be classes for children of Kindergarten age (those already four years of age) through the Junior Hi age (14).

Parents of children in the Kindergarten Department (4 and 5) are requested to accompany their children on the first day of Vacation Church School in order to properly register them.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

I am enclosing my check for four dollars to renew my subscription for another year.

I have been enjoying The Herald each week since my mother (Mrs. Clifford Adams) gave me a subscription a year ago.

May I say, however, that I would like to see more personal notes and pictures.

I left home and Tecumseh as soon as I graduated in 1948 and have lived away since then. I do enjoy reading news and seeing pictuers of those I knew while still in Tecumseh. It might be interesting to ask former graduates to write in and tell a little about where they are living now, their families, husband's occupations, and anything else which may interest old friends. As for me, I have completely lost track of those who no longer live in Tecumseh.

Letters of this type might make an interesting page each week: perhaps—"News of Former Friends," just as you now have "News of Britton," (which I also like to read, having several relatives in Britton.)

Mrs. D. H. Merriman
(Donna Adams Merriman)

TO THE EDITORS:

There have been several letters in the paper regarding ideas on taxation for the benefit of Tecumseh schools.

I would like to give my side of the picture. When we bought this home in 1948 the taxes were less than $75 per year. In 1960 they were $220. Meanwhile I have been forced to retire from a salary of over $5,000 per year to $283.87 per month. My out go is $259.55 per month before food or taxes. I don't have any rubber plantation to stretch it out either.

Most of my trouble has been due to illness in the family. I believe that the same may be said about the system of handling funds in the school system.

A good business manager the past ten years could have put the school system on the right side of the ledger.

The school operations are going to have to be pared to the bone for some time or find funds other than property tax.

Audience Enjoys Rodeo

Ray Ostrander, employed by Elmer's Body Shop, won the first prize of $62 in the doggin' event at the B Bar J Ranch Rodeo over the weekend. His time was 6.5 seconds.

Little Roy Rodriquez, one of Tecumseh High School's next year's senior, won second in the calf roping contest. Bud Smith of Temperance won first.

Many cow punchers and rodeo people from Ohio, Indiana and Michigan took part in the afternoon's events.

The featured bull, "Yo Yo", was not ridden by Gene Foley as scheduled due to injuries. Mr. Foley received in the wild horse riding event just preceding the bull riding.

Mr. Foley was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital where he was treated for a dislocated shoulder, cuts and bruises. Stitches were required to close facial wounds.

Jack Zoober attempted to ride "Yo Yo" Monday evening and was injured and knocked unconscious, but he refused treatment

Mrs. Robert Spence, wife of the owner of the ranch, said that audience comments led them to believe that this was the best rodeo held at the B Bar J in the five years they have been rodeoing.

The Liberty horses and other special features were well received and though the profit was not what it might have been, the Spences were happy that the performances went along smoothly, no really serious accidents occurred and the weather was fine.

Junior Mat Title Goes on the Line

All-star professional wrestling returns to Tecumseh on Thursday night, July 13, at the Tecumseh High School.

Sponsored by the Tecumseh Rotary Club, the card will be headlined by a clash for the Junior Heavyweight Championship of the World.

Gentleman Jim Hady, teh present titleholder, will defend his crown against the challenge of Joe Smith.

Hady is regarded by veteran mat observers as perhaps a near perfect wrestler.

Superbly conditioned and strong enough to trade punches with the biggest of heavyweight, Gentleman Jim is also a master of wrestling's most exacting aerial tactics.

Jim first won his championship in an international tournament in Paris, where he met and bested many of the finest grapplers in the world.

For him, the Paris tournament was the climax of a highly-successful wrestling tour of the continent.

In Europe, he learned such holds as The Octopus and The Reverse Crab, which were virtually knewn to North American matmen.

Smith, scientific wrestler, first gained national prominence as an All-American football halfback. Although facing a possible career in pro football, he unhesitatingly chose a pro mat future.

Leaping Larry Chene, "The People's Choice," will take on Jim "Brute" Bernard, who weighs 285 pounds, in another featured encounter.

The other heavyweight match will pit Luis Martinez against Dynamite Johnny Gates.

A Mighty Midget bout will complete the slate of single matches.

As a special added attraction, the winners of the first two matches will return against the losers in a mixed Australian tag-team bout. Midgets will be in the ring with heavyweights.

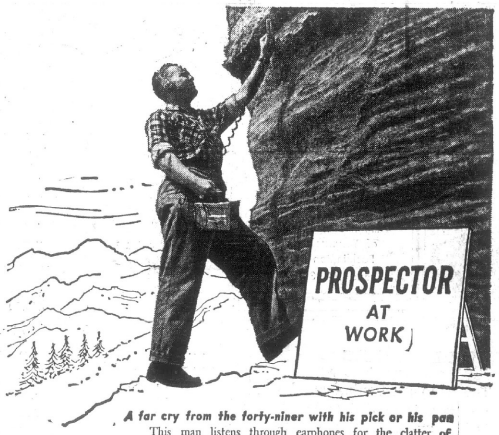
FOR ALL WE HOLD SACRED . . . ATTEND CHURCH !



A far cry from the forty-niner with his pick or his pan

This man listens through earphones for the clatter of exploding atoms.

Otherwise, he must follow the tortuous path of the prospector. Uranium, like gold, is where you find it . . . . high on a cliff . . . . deep in a chasm . . . . anywhere.

There are spiritual riches to be found in life—by those with the determination to seek them. But don't make the common mistake of assuming that one Sunday in Church should satisfy the search.

Spiritual riches come gradually with religious growth. As a family makes worship and religious study part of everyday living, the treasures of God begin to accumulate in the character and experience of that family.

You'll probably be disappointed if you merely give religion a try. But your earnestness will be rewarded when you make Christianity the foundation of your life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

'I Haven't Planned One Thing'

BRITTON—What does it feel like to have an oil well on your property?

Do you start day-dreaming of the things you'll buy with possible royalties?

"I haven't planned one thing," says Milburn Preston, who owns a farm north of here on which oil has been hit.

So far, there has only been test pumping.

But this looks good. Mr. Preston has some samples in Mason jars in a shed near his home.

To the casual glance, the contents look like high-grade black gold, all refined and ready to pour into the car engine.

However, all the well's output hasn't been this good, confides Mr. Preston.

Some is extremely watery and there is a constant worry that large contents of sand may filter in.

Natural gas is also being produced by the well and at present the test pumping motor is driven with this gas.

Another well is being drilled several hundred yards from Preston's, this on the property of Joseph Smitka, who lives on Smith Rd.

There is a good chance that this well will also hit pay dirt—but again how much or how good are paramount questions.

If and when a well produces, the land owner receives a one-eighth share of profits.

☆

THE ACTIVITY of these wells is being closely watched by the "Oil and Gas News", a trade magazine published in Mt. Pleasant.

Here's what it reported on activities north of here:

"Pump unit is being set at the Preston 1, se nw se 23-5s-5e, Macon Township wildcat, Lenawee County, after testing for an estimated 30 barrels a day. Good and Good and Al Gray reworked the wildcat, originally drilled by McClure and Max Pray Production is from the Trenton.

"Meanwhile, McClure, Bell, Marks and Basin, with Good and Good the contractor, staked the southwest offset location."

Testing will continue for several more weeks on the Preston well, according to Alan Gray, engineer from Mt. Pleasant.

"The oil is typical high grade Trenton crude, similar to that in the Jonesville field," Mr. Gray said.

☆

PROSPECTING for oil in Lenawee County has been going on since 1920. Some gas wells have been hit, but never producing oil.

Operations at Preston 1 began last fall and black gold was hit in December. It was capped until warm weather and then tests begun about a month ago.

Mr. Preston's father, David, settled on 80 acres in 1900. Milburn purchased 46 adjacent acres in the 1950's and it was on these that the oil was discovered.

He did general farming on the land until suffering a heart attack about two years ago. Since then he has leased out most of his land.

Those royalty checks would sure come in handy, but Mr. Preston isn't banking on them.

Dieting — It's Simple

Overweight is a common American problem, and dieting is a popular topic of conversation. Both men and women discuss reducing pills and the latest "crash" diet.

Anita Dean, foods and nutrition specialist at Michigan State University, says no pill or trick combination of foods can take the place of a "weak will."

You lose weight when you eat fewer calories than your body uses, and you gain weight when you eat more calories than your body uses. The principle is just that simple.

Gradual loss of weight is best. Luckily, harmful and foolish plans to lose weight fast are difficult to follow.

Since a dieter must change his eating patterns permanently to keep weight under control, he might as well begin with a realistic attitude toward eating, and choose meals with fewer calories.

Food habits formed at the family table are long-lasting. The homemaker has a challenge to help her children build good food habits and to fit calories in meals to family needs. She is in a key position to modify family food habits.

For cutting calories, Mrs. Dean suggests that the homemaker change old recipes or find new ones in line with the likes and dislikes of her family and their lower calorie needs. She can do this without being obvious to the family and without discussing it.

Mrs. Dean cites a few days to cut calories. Omit toast or bread when griddle cakes or waffles are served.

Omit cereal with a breakfast of eggs, bacon and toast, and cut down on use of sweet rolls, doghnuts, jams and sirups.

Balance a heavy meal with a light dessert, and vice versa. Avoid combinations of foods such as macaroni, potatoes, lima beans or corn, and dried beans.

Select lean cuts of meat. Use skim milk for drinking and cooking in place of whole milk. Use homogenized milk for cereal and coffee instead of cream.

Use dry skim milk for whipped topping in place of whipping cream. Use angel or sponge cake in place of frosted butter or chocolate cake.

Cook bacon crisp. Pan-broil, broil, bake, steam or poach foods instead of frying or deep-fat frying them. Spare extra fat and sugar where they are not essential to the flavor or texture of food.

Serve moderate-size helpings of food, and limit "seconds" of high-calorie dishes.

It is good psychology to plan meals which meet the calorie needs of the less active members of the family, then add extras for the young people. Snacks after school can provide these additional calories.

This is much better than depriving overweight members of a favorite dish.

EDITORIAL in PICTURE

This is democracy in action, a scene at the recent school levy vote in the Tecumseh High School cafeteria. The Herald was disappointed with the result, but at the same time we felt pleased that more than 2,300 went to the voting place to register their opinion on the question. As long as folks will get out and vote, the answers to our problem will be forthcoming. District voters will again be asked to express their privilege at Monday's school election. Voting will take place from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the high school cafeteria.

Bill Would Hit 'Pirating'

WASHINGTON—A bill to discourage the "pirating" of industry from one part of the nation to another has been introduced by Congressman Robert P. Griffin of Michigan.

He said the bill is designed to close a federal tax loophole, which is being used by some states to lure industry away from other states.

Under present laws, the interest on municipal bonds is exempt from federal income taxes. Congressman Griffin says this exemption is justified so long as municipal bonds are issued for a public or governmental purpose.

"However, when tax-free municipal bonds are issued to build a new plant for a private industrial corporation, then the law is being abused. This loophole should be closed," Griffin said.

Griffin's bill would discourage the future use of municipal bonds for this purpose by prohibiting a company from deducting, for income tax purpose the rental paid on an industrial plant financed with municipal bonds.

The City of Muskegon, in Congressman Griffith's Ninth Michigan District, suffered a severe blow when the Norge Division of Borg-Warner Corp. disclosed recently that it will soon move its operations to a new plant near Ft. Smith, Arkansas, and will close its Muskegon plant which had employed as many as 1,800 workers.

Norge will occupy a brand new factory financed with $7½ million of tax-exempt bonds issued by Greenwood, Arkansas, a suburb of Ft. Smith.

In 1953, a measure similar to Congressman Griffin's bill passed the House of Representatives, but failed to pass the Senate. At that time, Senate-House conferees indicated that further study of the legislation was needed.

Mr. Griffin maintains that it is now time to act.

Unclean Grain Can Be Costly to Farmers

Nine out of ten cases of grain contamination begin on the farm, says Leyton V. Nelson, farm crops specialist at Michigan State University.

Harvest of small grain will begin soon and it will be up to the farmer to keep his harvested grain as clean and wholesome as it was in the field.

The principal causes of unclean grain in Michigan are contamination by animals and birds, insects or chemicals.

When grain is stored on the farm, an effective rodent control program combined with rodent and bird-proof storages solves the animal problem.

Farmers can avoid loss from granary insects by cleaning up and repairing granary storage and treating it with methoxychlor or other suitable insecticide two weeks before harvest.

Old grain should be sold or placed in separate storage. New grain should be stored with less than 14 per cent moisture content.

"Pink" grain is the third main cause of unclean grain in Michigan. It is due to mixing harvested grain with seed grain that has been treated with a poisonous fungicide.

Pink grain has caused substantial losses to elevator owners and farmers in the last two or three years.

MR. AND MRS. CARDINAL AND FAMILY
PART 2

Well, last week we left Mama Cardinal setting on her three eggs, didn't we? While she was thus occupied, Papa Cardinal proved himself an attractive, faithful mate. All through his wife's confinement—actually he started while the nest was being built but anyway, all this time he was serenading her, and incidentally us, with the lovliest of cardinal whistle songs.

Sometimes he would sit close to her, othertimes he would be on the TV antenna. There were several perches from which he sang, but none of them were far away.

Finally, after twelve long days of waiting, May 25 was H-Day, hatching day. About 7:30 that morning Mom came in with the news that one baby was out.

Next morning another was hatched and the shell of the third was cracked. Fascinated, Mom watched as Mrs. Cardinal tried to pick bits of the shell away and thus help her last youngster. Some of the pieces she even ate.

Mom watched as long as she could and kept running in to tell me how things were progressing but, all too soon, the hands of the clock pointed to worktime. Apparently this third baby did not make it, because a check in the afternoon showed but two birds in the nest.

By dinner time the next day ed to one. What happened to the our family of babies had dwindl- two we don't know.

Appearance-wise Baby C. was a far cry from his lovely mama and handsome papa. A tiny naked bit of skin and bones, he was all head and eyes and, of course, completely helpless.

H-Day plus one saw the weather turn cold, rainy and of all things, snowy. Mrs. C. spent most of the time on the nest keeping Junior warm while proud Mr. C. whistled his happy song.

He didn't mind the bad weather, he was a new father—it took little imagination to hear a new note of pride in his call.

☆

THEY WERE good parents. Even before Junior could hold his head up, Mama C. was carefully putting food into his oversize mouth.

At first when the 'head of the house' brought something he gave it to her and she fed the baby. (Are all new fathers a little afraid of tiny babies?)

Soon, of course, both parents were busily engaged in trying to fill up their fast-growing youngster—really, a baby bird's appetite is amazing.

Saturday, Junior was eight days old, when tragedy almost ended our cardinal fun. When the birds first started building we worried about their skittishness, shy and so easily frightened, they flew at anything.

We tried to be careful, the car wasn't put in the garage, etc., but even so, they had many bad moments. On this particular day, when the folks came home for lunch, Mrs. C. flew away when the car nosed in the driveway.

As always when Mom came in, she went to peek at what was happening in the nest. It was empty! A small dark "something' was in the honeysuckle bush — Dad went to the rescue.

Baby Cardinal was gently put back into the nest. Mama C. had apparently flown away in such a hurry that she had spilled the youngster out.

☆

FORTUNATELY nothing else out of the ordinary occurred. Junior grew stronger every day; his eyes opened and he started feathering out. His voice grew, too at first hardly audible, it was soon a loud shrill squeak which could be heard all over the yard.

Early in the morning of June 6 he was standing up and hopping around in the nest. Half an hour later Mother reported that he was at the edge of the nest—five minutes later he was gone.

In just the time she had spent telling me what was happening Mama and Papa Cardinal took Junior and 'flew the coop'; after all the waiting she didn't get to see one of the things we had wondered about — how Junior did on his first flight. Where did they go and how are they getting along?

So it is that although we didn't see it all, what we did see was fun. We certainly enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Cardinal and family.

NEW AND OLD - Behind the simple beauty of the Carr Memorial Library rises the elaborate clock tower of Central Hall, landmark from another era. The Hillsdale College Campus, founded in 1844, is enriched with architectural designs of the past century. However, the scene will be changing as Hillsdale carries out its proposed building program under the Master Plan, a 15-year, $14 million project.

Hillsdale College Entering Giant Building Program

(Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of articles, "Where Tecumseh Youths Go To College." Attending Hillsdale College next fall will be Anne Preston, a transfer from Albion, and David Grigg, a freshman.)

HILLSDALE — Without endowment, without charter, with no legal organization, buildings or students, Hillsdale College was founded in 1844.

The determination and integrity of three independent Free Will Baptist ministers succeeded in founding a school when slavery was the question of the hour.

Originally, Hillsdale College was founded at Spring Arbor, Michigan, under the name of Michigan Central College.

Classes began in December under the administration of President Daniel McBride Graham, a graduate of Oberlin College.

From its inception the College offered instruction to all, regardless of race, color, sex or religion, and during its long existence has had a highly cosmopolitan student body.

Nine years after its inception, the College voted to leave Spring Arbor, due to inadequate accomodations and urgent needs which Spring Arbor could not meet.

After a distressing period of controversy and litigation, Hillsdale College secured the enactment of a general college law by the State Legislature and opened its doors in November, 1855. The change of name to Hillsdale College was legalized in 1863 by legislative act.

The spirit of independence which characterizes Hillsdale College today was evident in its infancy. It was the first college in Michigan, and the second in the United States, to admit women on a par with men.

It was the first college to grant degrees to women, the first to elect a woman to the Board of Trustees, the first to establish a nursery school, the first to erect a separate building for a gymnasium (which currently is used as a student union), and the first to establish a campus newspaper.

PRESIDENT J. DONALD PHILLIPS OF HILLSDALE COLLEGE

The campus is composed of 18 buildings, in addition to the well-equipped fieldhouse with pool, and the College Baptist church.

Hillsdale's co-educational student body numbers approximately 750, and the Bachelor of Art and Bachelor of Science degrees are granted after four years of study.

Students may choose from 57 fields of concentration, and many participate in a variety of co-curricular activities: religious, fraternal, academic and social.

In addition, they may engage in the Leadership Development Program which was instituted in September, 1960, and which involves conference training, discussion leadership, and many other on-and off-campus associations with business and industry.

This program depicts the Hillsdale slogan: Preparation for leadership through learning and experience.

A large percentage of Hillsdale students are preparatory school graduates, and the Dales come from many states in the nation. Too, foreign students study at Hillsdale, and in 1960-61, they number 37.

Continuing in the tradition of leadership and independence, Hillsdale College offers its professors as well as its students great personal responsibility for their action.

The college that began with only the determination to provide higher education for those qualified men and women who desired it, has grown in stature and size throughout the years.

The dominant spirit of determination, integrity and independence is Hillsdale College today.

Poultry Farmers Find Confinement Cheaper

Skyrocketing prices of land, labor, and equipment are causing many poultrymen to change from range rearing of replacement pullets to the confinement reading of these birds, says James Sprague, agricultural agent for Lenawee County.

Another and often big expense that usually enters range-rearing is losses to predators.

While certain researchers have found that range-reared birds laid more eggs during the laying year, other investigators have found no significant difference in yearly egg production.

In tests by Michigan State University poultry researchers with two pure lines of SC White Leghorns, no significant difference in yearly egg production were found between the range-reared and the confinement-reared stocks, L. R. Champion, MSU poultry scientist, has reported.

Research data on another important laying house trait—mortality—are conflicting.

Researchers agree that range-birds are significantly lighter in body weight at housing time. This difference disappears at about 500 days of age.

On the average, range-reared females lay significantly larger eggs than do confinement-reared birds. Albumen quality, shell strength and the incidence of egg inclusions— blood spots and meat spots—are not affected by method of rearing, research indicates.

Feed efficiency, which is the number of pounds of feed required to produce a dozen eggs, is affected by method of rearing. Contrary to expectations, the feed efficiency of range-reared birds is lower than confinement-reared stocks. This means that over a test period the range-reared birds required more feed to produce a dozen eggs. This may possibly be explained by the fact that the range-reared birds gained more body weight during the laying year than did the confinement-reared birds.

Research evidence from the Iowa Agricultural Experiment Station has shown that it is cheaper to raise pullets in confinement than on range. The saving was about 10 cents a female. The confinement-reared females required 28 per cent less labor than did the range-reared birds.

In addition, the confinement-reared stocks had a 39 per cent smaller depletion rate than the range-reared. The lower depletion rate of confinement-reared populations of chickens was suggested as being due to a reduction in predatory losses.

Jaycees Say 'Thanks'

Jaycees of Tecumseh are a hard-working lot and they are thoughtful, too.

Each year they stage a homecoming and carnival, always striving to make the current one better than the last.

It takes a lot of time and work—two things which they give freely—to make their event a success.

It also takes considerable outside help and so this year when they decided to add an evening of fireworks to the agenda, the young men needed to raise $500.

They received the money in a series of donations from local business and professional people.

To the donors they say, "Thank you."
